HITLER WARNED AS HINDENBURG CUTS SALARIES

Wages, Retail Prices and Rents Slashed; Fear of Violence Held.

BRUENING, IN RADIO TALK, HITS FASCISTI

Chancellor Says Martial Law Will Meet Any Effort to Overthrow Cabinet.

Berlin, Dec. 8 (U.P.).—President Paul von Hindenburg tonight issued another drastic emergency decree slashing wages, retail prices and rents from 10 to 25 per cent, while the government warned the militant Fascist party of Adolf Hitler that it would resort to martial law if necessary to prevent illegal overthrow of the cabinet.

The presidential decree involved substantial sacrifices by all classes of citizens and the government leaders expected that it would strengthen the Fascist party, which has been winning political victories in all parts of Germany recently.

As a result there was fear that there would be an increase in violence and bloodshed between Fascists and Communists and the A clause was inserted prohibiting all mass meetings from December 9 to January 3, thus attempting to prevent gatherings of extremists who might endanger the public safety.

"The government will not tolerate any power in Germany except the constitutional power," Chancellor Heinrich Bruening declared in a radio address to the people explaining the presidential decree which gave the cabinet dictatorial powers to prevent political outbreaks.

Warns Against Revenge.

"The government is determined to employ every means, even to a state of siege, against anybody attempting to [illegible] the constitutional organs in fulfillment of their functions," Bruening said.

The soft-voiced, iron-handed chancellor denounced the Fascist party, but refrained from an attack on Hitler by recognizing that the Fascist leader has been careful in asserting he is willing to employ only legal means in his campaign to gain power.

"It will be a crude contrast to such declarations, if his lieutenants indulge in their plans, inspired by uncontrolled political imagination," Bruening declared in reference to the purported threats of underleaders of the party to seize power by force. "Protests of legal action are valueless if it is admitted they are binding only until the moment of assumption of power.

"It would be still worse if, simultaneously with declarations of legal intention, plans are being prepared for revenge against their political enemies."

Bruening also made an appeal to other governments to abandon "inadequate" methods of dealing with the reparations problem. He said only a "generous solution" would overcome the world economic crisis.

Provisions of Measure.

"I urgently appeal to all governments to see that the often-repeated principles of international solidarity and cooperation are finally put into practice."

Spain Takes Action On Basque Demand

Authorizes 3 Provinces to Submit Proposals for Constitutions.

Madrid, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The Government tonight authorized the three Basque provinces to submit projects for regional constitutions, foreshadowing formation of another autonomous government similar to that in Catalonia. The Basque provinces, Alava, Guipuzcoa and Vizcaya, had demanded semi-independent governments under the republican regime at Madrid.

The constitutional assembly postponed final vote on the new republican constitution and the election of a constitutional president.

A government proposal declaring the law for defense of the republic and the law regulating the work of the responsibilities committee (investigating the "crimes" of the monarchy) compatible with the constitution was approved. Both laws will become transitory amendments to the constitution.

$1,000,000 Fee Asked In Steel Merger Fight

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—[illegible] services of attorneys were worth $1,000,000 to those who fought the Bethlehem Steel-Youngstown Sheet & Tube merger, Smith W. Bennett, Columbus corporation lawyer, estimated today.

At a hearing before John T. Scott, Cleveland attorney, who is to adjudicate the amount of fees to be paid to the merger foes' legal talent, Mr. Bennett based his estimate on 2,088 days spent by members of four legal firms. Each day was estimated as seven hours long, and, according to Mr. Bennett, who was employed as an expert and disinterested witness, the value of each attorney employed per day should be about $500.

Lenz and Jacoby Gain 360 Points in Match

Team Playing "Official" Contract Bridge System Successful Again in Second Night's Contests; Wins 4 of 7 Rubbers With Culbertsons.

New York, Wednesday, Dec. 9 (A.P.).—Sidney Lenz and Oswald Jacoby gained 360 points in the second session of their contract bridge match with the Ely Culbertsons. When the session was adjourned this morning, Lenz and Jacoby had a net score of 2,075, in contrast to the 1,715 of the first session.

The rubber standing of the series is: Lenz and Jacoby, 7; Culbertsons, 3. Seven rubbers were played in the second session and the Culbertsons won three.

Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson contracted for four no trump and made six on the first hand. This gave the Culbertsons game and reduced the Lenz-Jacoby plus score of 1,715 attained in the first session to 1,475. The hand was played by Culbertson. It was the twenty-fourth hand of the series and the first hand of the fourth rubber.

Hand 25—Culbertson kept a contract of four clubs and had 100 in honors. He reduced Lenz's lead to 1,295.

Hand 26—Lenz made six no trump and game on a contract for three. Net score, Lenz, 1,550. Each side vulnerable.

Hand 27—On a contract for four spades Mrs. Culbertson made five, winning game and rubber. She had 100 honors. Net score of the match to date, Lenz, plus 780.

Rubber 5.

Hand 28—Culbertson was double at a contract for four hearts and was set two. Net score, Lenz, 980.

Hand 29—Lenz contracted for four hearts and made it giving him game. Net score, Lenz, 1,100.

Hand 30—Culbertson was set one on a bid of five diamonds. Net score, Lenz, 1,150.

Hand 31—Mrs. Culbertson was set two on a contract for three no trump. Net score, Lenz, 1,250.

Hand 32—Culbertson contracted for four hearts and made five, giving him

CONFIDENCE VOTED LAVAL BY DEPUTIES

Premier Wins Postponement of Interpellation Upon Arms Session Riot.

Paris, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Premier Pierre Laval won a vote of confidence from an unruly Chamber of Deputies tonight when the chamber postponed debate on the riot that broke up a recent disarmament meeting in Paris.

The premier requested that interpellations on the riotous incidents, in which prominent statesmen of various countries were howled down, be postponed. It was put as a question of confidence, the chamber yielding to his demand by a vote of 324 to 265.

He also obtained postponement for interpellations on a skirmish between nationalists and pacifists at Bordeaux, which was a repercussion of the Paris affair.

"Peace is not the prerogative of any political party," Premier Laval said while the chamber applauded.

The vote interrupted preliminary debate on the disorder, which occurred at a mass meeting of disarmament advocates in Trocadero Hall on the night of November 27.

'Bossy' Gillis Goes To Defeat at Polls

Spectacular Mayor of Bay State City Is Denied Third Term.

Newburyport, Mass., Dec. 8 (U.P.). "Bossy" Gillis, red-headed former sailor and spectacular and boisterous mayor of this city for the last four years, was defeated for a third successive term today by Gayden W. Morrill, shoe manufacturer.

Morrill received 3,932 votes and Gillis, 2,818. It was the worst defeat a Newburyport mayor ever received. Morrill carried every ward in the city but Bossy's own, Ward 4, and that was divided at 475 for each candidate.

Bossy was seeking to break a Newburyport tradition that no mayor be elected to three successive two-year terms. When Newburyport had a one-year term for its mayor one man had succeeded in getting three terms in a row, but it has not happened since the two-year rule went into effect.

KANE IS DESCRIBED AS KIND AND CRUEL

Jury Is Chosen Quickly and Professor Enters Plea of Not Guilty.

Hampton, Va., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Prof. Elisha Kent Kane 3d was alternately pictured as a "philanderer and a lothario" and as a "kind and considerate husband today in his trial on charges of drowning his wife at a Grand View beach, on Chesapeake Bay. The descriptions were given by opposing attorneys in opening statements after the athletic young University of Tennessee professor had pleaded not guilty in stentorian tones in answer to the indictment.

Kane contends the drowning was accidental.

W. C. Graham, father of Mrs. Jenny Graham Kane, the dead woman, described Prof. Kane as a man who cursed his wife at night and treated her with an attitude of devotion during the day.

"Many a night I have heard Kane in an adjoining room curse and abuse my daughetr in a way that I wouldn't use on a brute," Graham testified as a State witness. He said he had never tried to stop "the cursing of my daughter and her mother" by the professor because he knew the attitude of both and thought it best that things be left to smooth themselves.

Graham said that while the Kanes were at Knoxville he sent his daughter a check to be used for transportation to her parents' home at Hilton Village, insisting that she leave her husband.

"But she wouldn't," he said, "and 'Sash' knew it. He knew that she would die before she would leave him. He himself had exhausted means to make her leave him and she wouldn't.

Graham was the fifth witness called by the State, taking the stand late in the afternoon. He was preceded by Coroner George K. Vanderslice; the

Walker Is Christened As Chief of Navajos

Albuquerque, N. Mex., Dec. 8 (A.P.). Mayor James J. Walker, of New York City, was made a chief of the Navajo Tribe by 200 Indians here this afternoon, in a colorful ceremony witnessed by 4,800 persons.

Standing before a circle of tepees and blazing bonfires, Mayor Walker was christened "Hosteen Be-Jay-Tso," or "He Whose Heart is Big," as a wrinkled old Navajo medicine man sprinkled sacred cornmeal over him three times and another Navajo wrapped a blanket symbolically around him.

Post Again Will Sponsor Toy Fund for Christmas

Money Will Be Devoted Exclusively to Make Needy Washington Boys and Girls Happy and to Continue Their Belief in Santa Claus.

Will you help to bring a Merry Christmas to every needy child in Washington?

A Merry Christmas to adults may mean many things, food, clothing, shelter and security.

To the heart of a child it means just one things—TOYS.

There are hundreds of little children in Washington who, without the help of more fortunate Washingtonians, will wake up Christmas morning to find that Santa Claus, the good saint of childhood, has passed them by.

Therefore, The Washington Post has started a Christmas Toy Fund with a first contribution of $5 from "A Friend of The Post." This Christmas Toy Fund will be devoted exclusively to the buying of toys for Washington boys and girls who have no other Santa Claus.

Christmas toys, in a year of depression, are luxuries in families where the pay of the wage earner has been cut to the point where only the direst necessities may be purchased, or where unemployment and want stalk through the home like the spirit of evil.

But little children have a right to be happy at Christmas time. Kind Washington men and women, let's see that they are happy.

Every penny given to the Christmas Toy Fund of The Washington Post will go directly to the buying of toys for children. There is no overhead expense. All the money contributed will be distributed among the welfare agencies of the city so that they may purchase the toys for children who would be without them otherwise. These relief and welfare agencies are in touch with the families that need such Christmas assistance.

The drain upon Washington charitable institutions has been so terrific

U. S. EMPLOYES PAY SLASH BILL IS INTRODUCED

Rich, Member of House, Starts Battle for Reductions.

MEASURE PROVIDES 10 PER CENT CUTS

Pennsylvanian Hopes All, From President Down, Will Be Affected.

By J. B. M'DONNELL.

Representative Robert F. Rich (Republican), of Pennsylvania, wealthy manufacturer and club member, yesterday fired the opening gun in the battle which is to be waged in the Seventy-second Congress to reduce the pay of Government employes.

Representative Rich, who was appointed to the last Congress to fill a vacancy and was reelected to the present Congress, introduced a bill providing that no employe of the Federal Government or the municipal government of the District, shall, in 1932, receive more than 90 per cent of his or her normal salary, except those employes who have been elected or appointed for specific terms.

This exception, necessary under the law, would exempt from the salary cut all members of Congress, the President and such other Government employes as have been elected or appointed at so much salary for so long a time, including members of the judiciary, most of whom, if not all, are appointed for life terms.

Hopes All Will Be Affected.

Representative Rich, who is a prominent manufacturer in Pennsylvania and is a director in many banks and other business concerns, beat Representative Will R. Wood (Republican), of Indiana, in launching the war on Government employes. Mr. Wood had announced his purpose to sponsor legislation to reduce the salaries of Government employes some weeks ago and his proposal had found immediate response among other members of Congress who agreed with his declaration that Government employes had not suffered by reduced wages because of the depression but should be compelled by Congress to do so.

Despite the exempting clause in his measure, Representative Rich said he hoped that his bill would affect every Government employe from the President down. The Government employes, Representative Rich said, have been "a favored class thus far" in escaping reduction in incomes due to business depression and he believed they, too, should suffer a reduction in pay. He was, he said, only trying to relieve the present situation.

Federal Union Battle.

Although the attack on Government pay by Representative Rich came from an unannounced quarter, those who have been familiar with the situation have been expecting not only Mr. Wood but several other members of Congress to propose a reduction in Government pay.

Rome (Wednesday), Dec. 9 (U.P.).—Antonio Salandra, 78, premier of Italy during the World War, died here at 4 a. m. today.

Grandi Sees Duce On Reaching Rome

Minister Reports Conclusions of Washington Trip in Writing.

Rome, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Foreign Minister Dino Grandi and his wife, Donna Antionetta, returned to Rome today—he to a long conference with Premier Mussolini; she to her children.

The foreign minister went straight from the railway station to the Venezia Palace, where he told the premier of the conclusions he reached and the impressions he received while in the United States, where he discussed disarmament and other world problems with President Hoover. The head of the state and the foreign minister were closeted together for an hour, during which the premier asked many questions and received a written report covering 100 pages.

Coming up from Naples, Signor Grandi told the press he was more than satisfied with his Washington trip. His determination that something be done at the Geneva disarmament conference next February has become stronger than ever, he declared.

Snow Begins Falling Early This Morning

The first snowfall of the season, which was predicted by the Weather Bureau, began falling shortly after 1 o'clock this morning.

The snow will disperse into rain, according to the prediction. Warmer weather was the forecast for tomorrow. The thermometer was expected to drop to 29 degrees during the night. The low point yesterday was 24 degrees at 7:30 o'clock in the morning.

DEMOCRATS IN HOUSE TO STIR DEBATE ON HOOVER MESSAGE; PROGRESSIVES DESERT MOSES

HEATED BALLOTING TO CONTINUE TODAY

Pittman, Nevada Democrat, Polls Most Votes, but Fails of Majority.

By EDWARD T. FOLLIARD.

In a chamber amazingly quiet considering the nature of the battle, Republican Progressives in the Senate yesterday set out to even the score with the man who called them "Sons of the Wild Jackass."

Twelve Western Republicans bolted Senator George H. Moses, of New Hampshire, when he came up for reelection as president pro tempore of the Senate. Ten of them were so-called Progressives, and the other two were men regarded as "regular" Republicans—Senators Wesley Jones, of Washington, and Arthur Capper, of Kansas. The one-man "bloc" of the body, Senator Henrik Shipstead (Farmer-Laborite), of Minnesota, also voted against Moses.

However, when the balloting was interrupted so that the Senate could adopt resolutions of condolence for the late Nicholas Longworth and other deceased House members, Senator Moses was still President pro tempore, no candidate having received a majority.

Continues Until New Choice.

Under the rules, Senator Moses continues in his office until a successor has been elected.

Today the balloting will continue. What the outcome will be can only be guessed at, and guessing in the case of a body as capricious as the Senate is dangerous.

Precipitated by Robinson.

Senator James E. Watson, of Indiana, the Republican leader, said last night that if the deadlock is not broken today he will endeavor to bring about conferences looking to a "settlement."

As of today, the Moses controversy will be the "unfinished business." So long as there is nothing important before the Senate, Watson and the others are not worried by the fight.

Today, however, President Hoover is scheduled to send down a message urging approval of the one-year moratorium on war debts, and this is a matter that the Republicans want to dispose of as quickly as possible.

The contest was precipitated when Senator Joe T. Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, moved that the Senate take up the election of a president pro tempore.

The Democratic nominee for the post was Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada.

Pittman, 42.
George Norris, Nebraska, 7.
Charles L. McNary, Oregon, 5.
Jones, 1.

McNary Withdraws.

McNary announced after the first ballot that he did not want the job, and he asked that his five supporters not vote for him.

The second ballot follows: Pittman,

Democrats Urged To Act Now for '32

Raskob and Smith Voice Appeal at Session of "Minute Men."

New York Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Democrats were urged to act immediately to strengthen their party organization for the 1932 campaign in speeches today by John J. Raskob, national committee chairman, and Alfred E. Smith, titular head of the party.

Mr. Raskob and Mr. Smith shared the program with Jouett Shouse, national executive chairman, at a luncheon of the "Minute Men," a Democratic organization recently incorporated to advise with the committee on national party politics.

Prior to the speeches, Shouse told the 50 Democrats in attendance that 125 party leaders in 34 States already have applied for membership in the "Minute Men" and that "this widespread representation guarantees that the committee from now on may expect the constructive advice and support of many lay friends whose wise counsel heretofore has been lost to the party."

Eckener Offers Service For Atlantic Air Fleet

Howden, Yorkshire, Eng., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the German Graf Zeppelin, offered today to advise the British government in establishing a transatlantic airship service.

Visiting the shed in which the R-100 was built, he said he was willing to place his experience at the service of the government with a view to taking over the sheds at Cardington and Howden for building craft for such a purpose. He later went to Cardington.

HOUSE DEMOCRATS WIN RULE REVISION

(United Press.)

The House of Representatives yesterday made a historic revision of its rules to grant minorities, if they number one-third of the membership, a vote. Immediate effect of the change, with the strictly disciplined Democratic organization of "Texas Jack" Garner in control, is problematical.

The new House Democratic majority defeated a Republican attempt to present its version of rules liberalization by a strict party vote, 227 to 194. Thereupon, the House adopted the Democratic program. Only seven Republicans dissented. The final vote was 402 to 7.

The House Democrats followed this up by a party conference, in which dissenters forced their leaders to refer to themselves for revision, a plan to centralize their party control by allowing rules committee members to sit on other committees. Representative William I. Sirovich, Tammany Democrat, led the revolt.

The House rules liberalization is expected by many to make certain a test vote on prohibition.

A last-minute change in the rules liberalization program, which was drafted by Representative Charles R. Crisp (Democrat), Georgia, and revised by the Democratic leadership, retains for Representative Thomas Blanton (Democrat), Texas, and

House Bolts Pinchot On Relief Measure

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The House of Representatives, stronghold of administration forces throughout the regular 1931 session, today bolted the Pinchot unemployment relief program.

The rout of the administration came when, by a vote of 171 to 16, the House passed finally the Talbot bill, mainstay of the anti-Pinchot unemployment relief program and target of Attorney General Schnader's severest criticism. It appropriates $10,000,000 for direct relief.

REPORT READY SOON ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Hoover Working on Special Message to Transmit Later in Week.

By HAROLD J. T. HORAN.

President Hoover will supplement his message to Congress yesterday by another report, dealing solely with the foreign relations of the United States. This message will be ready for presentation to the Senate and House by the end of the week.

The President was working on the details of this message yesterday and went over some aspects of it with Secretary of State Stimson at the Cabinet meeting.

The decision of the President to treat of the present situation of American foreign relations in a special message, is significant of the postwar trend of international politics, which has brought the United States into closer contact with European problems.

The momentous decision of the President last July to halt payments due on Germany's war debts to France and other allies, will be explained in great detail to the members of the Senate when the President asks them for approval of his plan for twelve months' suspension of intergovernmental debts.

This point was broached in yesterday's Presidential message, but will be more amply developed in the subsequent report. However, the members of the Senate foreign relations committee are awaiting also the President's recommendations for consideration at this session of the world court.

Senator William E. Borah, chairman of the foreign relations committee, has announced he has not altered his opposition to the world court, but

Holmes Ends 29 Years In U. S. Supreme Court

PRESIDENT PROPOSES U. S. LENDING AGENCY

Asks Banking Law Revision; Cites Expected Deficit of $4,400,000,000.

(Associated Press.)

President Hoover told Congress yesterday what he thinks the country needs in the way of legislation and House Democrats voted to make his recommendations the subject of general debate on the floor of the chamber.

Meeting in caucus late in the day, they instructed Majority Leader Rainey to take the action necessary to bring this about. He will do so today, soon after the convening hour.

A temporary tax increase, formation of a reconstruction corporation to supplement the credit pool already organized, and an overhauling of the banking and antitrust laws were asked by the Chief Executive.

Bills Are Introduced.

Soon after yesterday's message was received bills were introduced in both House and Senate to establish the reconstruction corporation bulwarked by Federal funds to be loaned to suffering industries.

The President said such action will "strengthen confidence." In addition to this agency, he asked a thorough overhauling of banking laws to loosen restrictions that hamper credits.

Under his tax plan, which is expected to be outlined in detail today by Secretary Mellon, the higher levies would remain effective only two years. Arguing the need of more revenue, the message disclosed the Treasury expects to be more than $4,400,000,00 behind when the next fiscal year closes.

More Land Bank Funds.

Among other measures proposed for revivifying confidence were subscription of more money to Federal Land Banks, use of Federal Reserve assets to thaw assets frozen in failed banks, institution of a home-loan bank system and broadening of the base for Federal Reserve discounting.

Leaders of both parties in Senate and House expect nonpartisan action on those sections of the presidential program clearly for the benefit of business. They saw plenty of prospect for conflict, however, over details and controversial questions presented.

The President asked rejection of proposals to extend Federal payments to veterans, and at the same time said $200,000,000 should be appropriated immediately for the Veterans' Administration to continue loans on service certificates. The House appropriations committee will go ahead to provide the money without delay.

Emphasizes Limits.

All Federal expenditures have to be kept down, Mr. Hoover said. He emphasized that if the limits defined by him for taxes, appropriations or Federal borrowing should be exceeded, it would react tragically on confidence, jeopardize the financial system and "actually extend unemployment and demoralize agriculture rather than relieve it."

He objected strongly to any form of Federal dole.

The specific recommendations opposed any general revision of the tariff, and favored adjustments in the antitrust laws and Federal regulation of interstate power transmission.

He proposed to transfer administrative functions of the Shipping Board to the Department of Commerce and at the same time to give the Shipping Board regulatory functions with jurisdiction over coastwise shipping, and rates and services on the inland waterways.

Major Aspects to Wait.

The major aspects of the administration program are expected to wait until after Christmas for action. Be-

Inquest Is Ordered Today In Death of C. U. Student

The cause of the death of Jeremiah J. Callahan, 21-year-old Catholic University student, who was found dead yesterday on the steps of Gibbons Hall, will be decided today at an inquest to be held at the morgue at 11 o'clock.

Homicide detectives are certain that Callahan met his death through an accident; but whether he fell up the steps or from one of the windows above the steps will be decided by the evidence submitted to the coroner's jury.

A group of friends of Callahan, who saw him early yesterday, a short time before his death, were questioned last night by Detective Sergts. James Springmann, Floyd A. Truscott and Dennis J. Murphy. After giving information to the police they returned to the university.

Edward Meagher, 20 years old, of New Brunswick, N. J.; Vincent J. Lynch, 20 years old, of Lodi, N. J., and [illegible] nington, Vt., took a walk with Callahan Monday night and spent a few hours with him.

Early in the morning, William F. Ferguson, of South Manchester, Conn., and Callahan were in Lynch's room. Callahan appeared to have been drinking, the other students said. After visiting the rooms of other students, he returned to the room of Lynch. About 2:30 Callahan became boisterous and attempted to strike Ferguson, according to detectives. None of the blows took effect.

John Lyons, 21 years old, of West Philadelphia, who sleeps on the first floor, heard the rumpus and with Lynch, they put Callahan to bed. This was at 2:45. Ferguson went to his room on the fifth floor, accompanied by D. S. Sullivan, of Baltimore. Sullivan then returned to his own room.

HYDE REPORT CITES FARM OVERGROWTH

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN.

Despite vastly increased financial aid from the Federal Government, American agriculture made little progress last year toward solution of the fundamental problem of adjusting production to the rapidly changing world demand, Secretary of Agriculture Hyde emphasized in his annual report to Congress made public last night.

With his plea for a vigorous policy of "constructive adjustment" he coupled a warning that if American agriculture continues its present competition in world markets it must face lower standards of living.

"It is time to revise the crude notion that only a continually expanding agriculture can be a profitable agriculture," he declared.

"This recommendation to reduce the volume of our agricultural exports does not challenge the ability of our farmers to meet foreign competition. They can produce, with or without tariffs, as cheaply as farmers anywhere. But to do so they would have to accept lower living standards."

Largest Plantings in History.

In the face of organized drives for acreage reduction in every major crop, the combined plantings in 1930 were the largest in the history of the Nation, the report revealed.

"Lessening demand for farm products, at home and abroad, and repeated warnings against overexpansion did not prevent the 1930 crop area from increasing 2,000,000 acres above that of 1929."

Save as they apply to cotton and tobacco, every factor in world economy today dictates the wisdom of reestablishing American agriculture on a basis of domestic supply, the report suggests.

"Reducing farm production may often be difficult and sometimes costly, but its difficulty and its cost will certainly be less than that of continuing production on a scale in excess of demand."

Constructive Adjustment.

In the long-time view, Secretary Hyde pointed out, the stimulus to agricultural exports was America's need for the industrial products of Europe. Since the World War, however, this need has vanished and Europe at the same time, has developed other sources of agricultural supply, in Canada, Australia, Argentina and New Zealand. Never has the agricultural policy of the United States taken into account these basic changes. To recognize them now "is not a policy of defeatism, a passive acceptance of declining business," he added. "It is a policy of constructive adjustment to a radically changing market situation."

Although the United States has exported but 13 per cent of its agricultural production during the last decade, the price of the entire yield has been controlled by the purchasing power of the foreign buyers. To this condition is attributed the crushing effects of the current worldwide economic dislocation upon American agriculture.

The 1930 tariff revision cushioned the shock to agriculture to a degree, but could not be effective on commodities, which were thrown into the export market.

Worse Competition Avoided.

"In the twelve months following the passage of the (tariff) act," the report said, "imports of dutiable agricultural products fell off by 33 per cent, whereas our imports of duty-free agricultural products declined only 7 per cent.

"Had the new tariff law not been in effect, world competition would have been felt by our farmers disastrously in the domestic as well as in the foreign market."

All factors conspired to create a most difficult situation in agricultural credits during the year, and the department sees no permanent relief from this condition until existing rural credit agencies are reorganized on a more comprehensive basis.

"An important field of usefulness lies open to agricultural credit corporations in those communities where existing local credit facilities are inadequate," the report suggests.

Gross Farm Income Cut.

Although United States agricultural production was 2 per cent greater in 1930 than in 1929, gross farm income was 22 per cent lower in 1930.

But operating costs, labor and taxes did not decrease proportionately with gross income. Accordingly, the decline in net income to the agricultural community last year was approximately 40 per cent under 1929.

Farm taxes declined slightly during 1930 for the first time in seventeen years. But the high cost of local government still is a crucial problem of the farmer. Although farm land values now are generally at the prewar level, farmers paid, for the country as a whole, a total of $2.49 in taxes last year for every dollar paid in 1913.

Farmers Forfeit Large Areas.

"Much land over large areas reverted to public ownership through the inability of owners to pay taxes. In the northern portions of the lake States the tax base of many local governments has shrunk so much that the continued existence of these governments is threatened," the report said.

Farm land values declined more precipitately last year than in any year since the postwar inflation. At the end of the year the national level of farm real estate was only 6 per cent above the average for the five years preceding the World War. The downward tendency continued during 1931. In several States the present land values are considerably below the prewar level. Whereas only 24 States recorded decreased land values in 1923-24, 46 States so reported in 1930.

At the end of 1930 some 42.4 per cent of all farms in the United States were operated by tenants, against 38.6 per cent in 1925, and 25.6 per cent in 1920, the year the Census Bureau began collecting these statistics.

A total of $17,055,761 was advanced from the three emergency drought relief funds provided by Congress last winter, Secretary Hyde reported. These loans went to 385,192 farmers in 21 States.

In addition, the emergency construction appropriations made available last session enabled the department to create employment for some 200,000 men [illegible]

KANE, COUNSEL, SHERIFF AND JURY IN TRIAL

Rev. J. D. Hosier, a Methodist pastor, and Deputy Sheriff Bickford Curtis.

The court was adjourned with the State well into its testimony. Mr. Cook said he expected the prosecution to rest some time tomorrow afternoon after Mrs. W. C. Graham, mother of Mrs. Kane, testifies.

Capt. G. S. Rawlings, a clammer, was on the stand as the adjournment came.

Other witnesses who testified this afternoon included W. H. Pride, a Newport News high school teacher and neighbor of the Graham family.

A jury was selected quickly for the trial, veniremen who had scruples against imposing the death penalty being rejected.

DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.

Met at noon and adjourned at 2:50 until noon Wednesday.

Mrs. Thaddeus Caraway was sworn in as senator from Arkansas. Warren Barbour was sworn in as senator from New Jersey.

Senator Pittman (Democrat), of Nevada, introduced a resolution declaring the effective date of office is the date of election or legal appointment; it was referred to the judiciary committee.

The President's message was read.

Senator Robinson (Democrat), of Arkansas, moved the election of a president pro tempore, precipitating three ballots, which failed to unseat Senator George H. Moses (Republican), of New Hampshire.

HOUSE.

Met at noon and adjourned at 3:30 p. m. until noon Wednesday.

Adopted by vote of 227 to 194 proposals of the Democratic caucus to liberalize rules.

Heard President's message read.

Formally ready to receive legislative proposals, the House machinery was deluged with hundreds of measures; among these were some inspired by the President's recommendations.

Representative Strong (Republican), Kansas, introduced a bill providing for a $500,000,000 credit corporation in line with the President's recommendations. It was almost identical with that proposed by Senator Walcott (Republican), Connecticut. Cash payment of veterans' compensation certificates was proposed by Representative Wright Patman (Democrat), Texas, and others. Representative James (Republican), Michigan, introduced a bill for operation of Muscle Shoals which was the same as that vetoed by the President last Congress.

Representative Vinson (Democrat), Georgia, introduced a bill to abolish the Farm Loan Board. It was one of several farm loan measures introduced.

Speaker Garner accorded Representative Earl Major (Democrat), Illinois, privilege of second man to preside over the House.

Representative Joseph Byrns (Democrat), Tennessee, announced his purpose to seek appropriation of $200,000,000 for immediate payment of veterans' loans.

Representative Mansfield (Democrat), of Texas, proposed a bond issue of $500,000,000 to speed river and harbor projects.

Democrats named party personnel on the rules and appropriations committees.

Received recommendation from Secretary of the Treasury Mellon that corporations be allowed 15 per cent of their gross income as tax exempt when given to unemployment funds.

Representative Louis Ludlow (Democrat), of Indiana, introduced a measure providing for donation of 10,000,000 bushels of wheat by the grain corporation to aid distress.

Foreign Loan Quiz Planned by Senator

(United Press.)

Investigation of the billions of dollars of foreign loans floated in this country since the war will be proposed in the Senate this week by Senator Hiram Johnson (Republican), California, he said yesterday.

The announcement starts off Johnson's campaign of opposition to the Hoover one-year moratorium. The administration, supported by some of the Democratic leaders, will bring this up late this week or early next for ratification by both Houses. President Hoover will urge immediate action on the proposal in a special message to Congress tomorrow.

Johnson said yesterday he contemplated investigation into South American bond issues as well as those of Germany and other European countries. His resolution will propose that the Senate finance committee call before it the leaders of international finance in this country, such as Charles E. Mitchell, of the National City Bank of New York, and Albert H. Wiggin, of the Chase National, to tell [illegible]

Extent of Stellar System Declared Overestimated

Presenting the theory that the current estimate of the diameter of our stellar system—200,000 light years—is too large, Frederick H. Seares last night spoke on "The Stars About Us" at the Carnegie Institution of Washington. The lecture was one of a series presenting results of recent research activities of the institution.

Estimate of the system's size depends on the light given out by stars whose brightness varies from time to time. The time of least brightness is taken as the base and the increase in luminosity is measured. This difference gives the distance from us of the star being studied, the speaker explained.

These measurements, however, do not take into account dimness caused by clouds of dust and gas scattered about the system, Mr. Seares says. "The obscuring clouds dim the light of the clusters and thus make the calculated distances too large," he continued.

This theory, he claimed, finds confirmation in the apparent rift between the two luminous branches of the milky way. Recent photographs made mostly at the Mount Wilson observatory by Dr. F. E. Ross, of the Yerkes Observatory, with a special telescope show conclusively that the rift is formed by dense clouds which absorb the light radiated by stars beyond, it was stated.

The various spiral nebulae and the whole body of stars show many points of similarity, but the disparity of size between them has also been noticed. Heretofore the diameter of the system has been taken as five times that of the largest of the spirals. To make an allowance for the absorption of light by the dust and gas clouds will reduce the disparity between the system and the spirals, he said.

"Whether this difference will be wholly removed by allowing for absorption is an open question, but that it will be substantially reduced may confidently be expected," he declared.

Mr. Seares is assistant director of the Mount Wilson Observatory. The lecture was illustrated by lantern slides.

Red Cross Nursing Heads Meet Here

National Committee Studies Many Problems of Service.

Thirty members of the national committee on American Red Cross Nursing Service met yesterday in annual meeting at the national headquarters of the Red Cross to discuss enrollment, registration and problems relating to the work of Red Cross nurses. Miss Clara D. Noyes, national director of the Red Cross Nursing Service, and chairman of the committee, presided.

Among those attending were Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. Helen F. Draper, Miss Mabel T. Boardman, Miss Elizabeth Burgess, Miss Sophie C. Nelson, Miss Susan C. Francis, Miss Florence M. Johnson, Miss Mary M. Roberts, Miss Alta C. Dines, Miss Elsie M. Lawler, Miss Jane E. Nash, Miss Juanita Woods, Dr. William DeKleine, Miss I. Malinde Havey, Miss Mabel J. Rue, Maj. Julia C. Stimson, Miss J. Beatrice Bowman, Miss Lucy Minnegerode, Mrs. Mary A. Hickey, Miss Elinor Gregg, Miss Janet Fish, Dr. Charles M. Griffith, Dr. Hugh S. Cumming, Rear Admiral Charles S. Riggs, and Maj. Gen. Robert U. Patterson. Miss Ida F. Butler, assistant to the director of Red Cross Nursing Service, is secretary of the committee.

Members of the nursing staff of the Red Cross were hostesses to the committee at luncheon at the American Association of University Women's Club. Miss Boardman entertained the committee at tea at her home.

Cotton Crop Estimated At 16,918,000 Bales

(Associated Press.)

This year's cotton crop was estimated yesterday by the Department of Agriculture at 16,918,000 equivalent 500-pound bales, based on conditions existing December 1. A month ago the estimate was 16,903,000 bales.

Decentralization Urged by Wilbur

Secretary, in His Report to Hoover, Frowns on Education Body.

(Associated Press.)

A vigorous brief for decentralization of Government lay before President Hoover and the country yesterday in the annual report of Secretary Wilbur.

The chief of the Department of the Interior viewed without favor the recent proposal of the national advisory committee on education for creation of a Federal Department of Education.

He emphasized his conviction that preservation of natural resources, care of dependent peoples, education of the young, and similar activities should best be managed "many hundred miles closer to the people than is the city of Washington." Wilbur strongly defended, however, the reclamation of arid lands in the West, maintaining that the work done so far on public lands has added only about three-fourths of 1 per cent to the country's crop area, while giving the West additional purchasing power of more than one and three-quarter billion dollars.

U. S. May Dismiss Legation Attache

(Associated Press.)

The State Department is considering dismissal of Christian Gross, second secretary of the American legation at Ottawa.

He was allowed to be off to attend a case, in Chicago, where he lives, in which he was judged the father of the youngest child of his former wife. She was formerly Virginia Harrison, daughter of the former Governor General of the Philippines.

The foreign service officer had sought a Chicago court ruling as to whether his youngest child, born after he secured a divorce, should participate in a $1,000,000 trust fund of which he was executor and which had come from his former wife's family.

The leave which Gross was granted for the court case expired five weeks ago. He has not reported back to his

LEGION WOULD ADD $25,000,000 TO AID

Commander Hands to Hoover Program for Increase in Appropriations.

(Associated Press.)

The American Legion wants additional expenditures for veterans of more than $25,000,000 yearly despite warnings from the President that the Federal pocketbook is very lean.

In his message to Congress Mr. Hoover yesterday said veterans' relief cost more than $1,000,000,000 last year and he felt this was no time to be adding to such a formidable sum.

Almost as his words were being read at the Capitol, however, Harry L. Stevens, legion commander, appeared at the White House and handed the Chief Executive a program calling for more money.

Mr. Hoover's admonition for conservatism toward veterans' relief was reinforced later in the day by the annual report of Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, head of the Veterans' Administration.

Hines Warns of Need.

Hines told Congress it would have to dig deeper into the attenuated Treasury wallet if it sent more veterans to Government hospitals.

Commenting that it seemed the policy of the Government to give hospital treatment to veterans, regardless of what caused the illness, Hines said if that attitude continued "the existing and authorized Government facilities will have to be materially increased to meet future demands."

In addition to the $25,000,000, the legion program called for an appropriation of about $40,000,000 for hospital construction.

Stevens was informed of the President's representation on expenditures for former service men.

"We intend to ask this, any way," the legion commander said, pointing out that the organization was not asking for Government funds to take care of able-bodied veterans.

President Hoover last year unsuccessfully opposed increasing the loan value of veterans' certificates and yesterday Gen. Hines gave figures on what the raises had taken from the Treasury.

He said that more than $866,984,922 was loaned to veterans on their certificates in the last fiscal year, bringing the total outstanding to $1,087,195,525.

From another source yesterday came word that the Government must have more money before it can meet the demands for loans.

Chairman Byrns, of the House appropriatoins committee, said it planned to appropriate immediately $200,000,000 for loan purposes.

Loan Funds Necessary.

He said the Veterans' Administration had recommended it and that applications were being held up because funds were lacking.

Included in the legion program were requests for allowances for widows and orphans regardless of "service-connected death;" the reduction of interest on veterans' loans and provision for additional medical treatment for former soldiers.

Stevens also said the legion advocated a prohibition referendum and wanted the Navy built up to its maximum strength under the London naval treaty.

Court Asked to Order Wave Band Allocation

(Associated Press.)

Radio Corporation of America Communications, Inc., yesterday asked a court to direct the Federal Radio Commission to assign it 40 high-frequency broadcasting channels.

The frequencies originally were allocated to Universal Wireless Communications. When this company was dissolved, the District of Columbia Court of Appeals issued an order that the facilities be assigned to R. C. A. Communications. The commission, after lengthy hearings, asked the court recently to clarify its original order. The company in its request yesterday seeks to preclude further hearings by the commission.

Cuba Would Extradite Kid Chocolate, Fighter

(Associated Press.)

Extradition of "Kid Chocolate," prominent Cuban prize fighter, on a serious moral charge has been asked of the State Department by the Cuban government.

The fighter is now being held by authorities in New York, where he will appear before the United States commissioner who will determine whether he is to be held pending a decision on the extradition request by Secretary Stimson.

7 Women and 17 Men, Nudists, Fight Charges

New York, Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Seven pretty women and seventeen men, members of a nudist cult who were arrested last night while doing nude calisthenics in a mid-town gymnasium, announced today they will fight charges of improper exposure. Their case will come up in Jefferson Court one week from today.

Five detectives, who, with bulging eyes, watched the exercises from a neighboring roof, raided the gymnasium, broke down the door and ordered the ungarbed to dress before exposing themselves to the coldest December night of the year, en route to the police station.

HURLEY CANDIDACY IN 1936 ADVOCATED

The early rumblings of a Hurley-for-President-in-1936 boom were heard last night at the annual banquet of twenty-seventh National Rivers and Harbors Congress at the Willard when Col. Clarence B. Douglas, of Oklahoma, vice president of the congress, said, "I expect to see Mr. Hurley follow the trail of Secretary of War Taft across the street from his present office to the White House in 1936." The 300 delegates to the convention rose and loudly cheered the Secretary, who was in attendance as toastmaster.

"It has been a long trail from a Choctaw Indian reservation to his present position as Secretary of War, but it is a much shorter trail to the White House," Col. Douglas continued.

Speakers on the program included Sol Bloom, associate director of the United States Bicentennial Commission, who gave an address on "Washington, the Builder," and Dr. John Bellamy Taylor, consulting engineer of the General Electric Co., who spoke on "Audible Light."

The banquet marked the close of the first day's sessions of the congress attended by advocates of the coordinated inland waterways system from all over the country.

Representative Wilson, of Louisiana, chairman of the House flood committee, urged coordination of flood control and navigation projects at the morning meeting. He told the convention that the two problems are linked on virtually every inland waterway.

Immediate improvement of the New York State Barge Canal with Federal funds was advocated by John F. Galvin, chairman of the Port of New York Authority.

The convention was presided over by former Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, its president.

At the final sessions of the congress to be held today, the delegates will take up a number of subjects at a symposium meeting. This afternoon reports of committees and the adoption of resolutions and election of officers will conclude the two-day sessions of the convention.

Martin Insull Fails To Bare Funds' Use

Does Not Know if Donation in 1926 Went Out as Political Gift.

(Associated Press.)

The Federal Trade Commission failed yesterday to learn from Martin J. Insull, of Chicago, for what purpose $44,100 was used which he received from the Middle West Utilities Co. Mr. Insull is an official of the utilities company.

The utilities magnate was questioned closely by R. E. Healy, commission counsel, on this item.

Examiner Asel Colbert, of the commission, testified last week he had been unable to find for what purpose the money, recorded on the company's subscriptions and donations account for 1926, had been used.

Mr. Insull, when asked if he could say on his oath that the $44,100 was not used in connection with political contributions of Samuel Insull, said, "All I can say on my oath is to my knowledge it was not."

Filipino to Present Independence Plea

Moncado Thinks Congress Will Consider Liberty Talk Seriously.

A plea for "immediate, complete and absolute independence" of the Philippines will soon be made to Congress by Dr. Hilario Camino Moncado, president of the Filipino Federation of America, who recently arrived in Washington following a trip around the world gathering data on universal sentiment regarding Philippine independence.

Dr. Moncado spent many months making an extensive study of economic and political conditions in the Philippine Islands and is here to place before Congress the results of his research.

Belief was expressed that Congress will give serious consideration to the independence plea at the present session because of the visit to the islands last summer by Secretary of War Hurley and other representatives of the government.

Alternatives Await Rail Pay Cut Plan

Unions Ready for Meeting Today to Take Up Reductions.

Chicago, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Possible alternatives to wage reductions were considered by railway unions today in preparation for the general meeting tomorrow, which will take up the proposal of a flat 10 per cent cut.

As they concluded two days of advance meetings, the four big brotherhoods and a fifth large group, the Switchmen's Union, were believed to have agreed on what stand they would take regarding an informal proposal of the railroads. The labor leaders declined to comment, however, before the meeting of general chairmen.

Another group which began conferences today was the executive council of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of Labor. Bert M. Jewell, head of this conference, said, "There are several ways out of the financial troubles of the railroads, if the managements will accept any of them. Their adoption would make the proposed wage cut unnecessary." Mr. Jewel declined to say what the alternatives were.

Thompson Pledges More Farmer Aid

Board Veteran Declares Marketing Law Is Not Subsidy.

Chicago, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Assurance that the Government intended to continue its aid to agriculture was given the American Farm Bureau Federation today by Sam H. Thompson, member of the Farm Board. He said that the marketing act had not put the Government into business and that funds administered by the Farm Board had not been a subsidy to agriculture.

The federation's annual meeting was a home-coming for the aging Farm Board member, who served as president of the Farm Bureau for many years.

One major point in the Farm Bureau program was the stabilization of commodity prices. Representative C. W. Ramseyer, Iowa, a participant in the recent money conference called by the Farm Bureau, urged [illegible] stabilization on the basis of 1926 prices.

The "Big Three" of farm organizations—the Federation, the Grange and the National Farmers Union—have reached an accord on such a stabilization program.

WEB NOOSE SHAKES POWERS' PLACIDITY

20 Witnesses Bare Story of Construction of Death Chamber in Garage.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—A grim-visaged prosecutor sought to put Harry F. Powers in the shadow of the gallows today—and the gum-chewing defendant squirmed in annoyance. More than 20 State witnesses paraded to the stand on the stage of the town opera house. With them they brought eight sets of vital exhibits.

They told how the pudgy little defendant, while he was writing impassioned love letters to widows and divorcees in all parts of the country, supervised construction of a windowless garage with underground chambers—a place the prosecutor has pictured as a feudal type of torture house.

They told of seeing him dig a grave for the two women and three children he is accused of slaying in that out-of-the-way place.

Then began the recounting of his relationship with Mrs. Dorothy Pressler Lemke, the Northboro, Mass., divorcee, for whose slaying Powers is being tried.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flemming, of Worcester, Mass., brother-in-law and sister of the dead woman, told how they found a picture of Cornelius C. Pierson (one of Powers' aliases) on the divorcee's dresser.

"We are going to get married," Mrs. Flemming quoted her sister as having said.

"He has a big ranch at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and is going to give me everything my heart desires." The Massachusetts couple, still showing signs of grief, told how "Pierson" had arrived at their home with Mrs. Lemke, talked proudly of his ranch and his plans for the prospective bride and then drove off with her the next day.

Both sought to avoid the cold stare of the man whose fate their words might be deciding, but when they were required to identify Powers, Mrs. Flemming looked him in the eye for a full minute before speaking and then said:

"That is the man."

Around Mrs. Flemming, as she sat on the stand, were bundles of her sister's possessions which she identified with occasional sobs. They were coats, dresses, shoes, a camera, an umbrella, photograph and checks.

As the grief-stricken woman left the stage she gave Powers a cold stare and then buried her face in a handkerchief.

The second day of the trial opened with the orchestra pit, the balcony and even half of the stage filled with spectators. Hundreds of other curious towns people milled about in the street.

The first witness exhibited a rotted piece of belting shaped like a noose, which had been knotted around the divorcee's neck. As it was held up almost directly over Powers' head, the man the jurors will be asked to send to the gallows glanced at it with the unconcern he showed yesterday—then suddenly twitched and looked the other way.

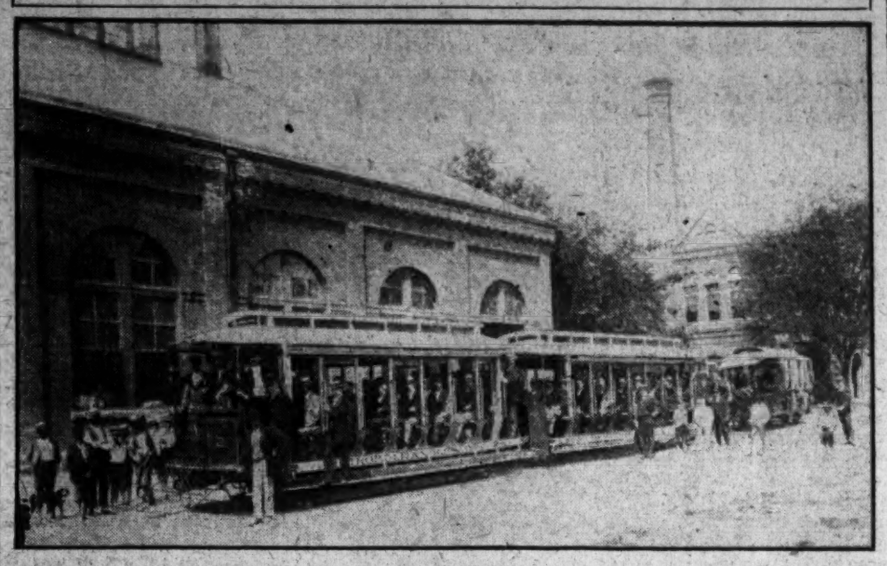
When Washington Was Younger—No. 130



THE king is dead, long live the king! might easily be the caption of the above picture, although the crowd of curious spectators who in the summer of 1895 watched the first electric street car operated from an underground trolley move out from the power house at Four-and-One-half and O streets southwest little realized that faithful Dobbin would be hurled from his throne by this motor-propelled monster. However, the old order passes, and the present generation knows the once familiar horse car only through the media of slap stick comedies and the musty fragrance of old prints.

The Metropolitan Railroad was one of the many lines which in 1899 merged with the Washington Railway & Electric Co., to form the present progressive transportation system. Riding in the car and trailer may be seen officials, and the board of directors of the line, many of whom are still active officials of the Washington Railway & Electric Co. Standing on the front platform and on the extreme right may be seen C. S. Clark, who was line superintendent of the Metropolitan Railroad, and beside him is Samuel L. Philipps, president of the railroad. Bringing up the rear may be seen that relic of a bygone age, the horse car.

MYSTERIOUS RADIO STATION IS SEIZED

Two-Year Search Ended by Capture Linked With Huge Rum Ring.

San Francisco, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Seizure of an unlicensed short-wave radio station and the arrest of its alleged operator by Federal officers here today climaxed a two-year search, officers said, and revealed the station has been used to control movements of liquor ships from Alaska to Central America.

C. A. Reeves, C. A. Housel and R. H. Shaw, special agents, arrested Harry Bruce Mowatt, alias Mullatt, as operator of the set. Federal agents said Mowatt, whose home is in San Jose, Calif., has a liquor charge, resulting from his arrest recently with a truckload of liquor at Palo Alto, still pending.

He was charged with violation of the Federal radio tariff act and three counts of conspiring to violate the national prohibition act. Those named with Mowatt in the complaint and for whom Federal officers were searching, were: George McDonald, Tony Picetti and two "John Does."

The agents said they seized hundreds of code messages sent to and received from liquor ships off shore, indicating a large illicit liquor dealer of the Pacific Coast, named Chance, is involved in the rumrunning activities they uncovered.

The radio set, which agents said was fitted to send for at least 5,000 miles and to receive from farther distances, has been sought since its messages were first intercepted here in February, 1930. The set was found in a small house in a residential district.

The code used and the hiding place of the set were changed every few months, the agents declared. They said Mowatt had rented the house under the guise of an art student and was preparing to move again when it was raided.

Capt. R. A. Beman, head of the special intelligence bureau of the Prohibition Office, said ten men may be charged as financial backers of the smuggling syndicate and said they have names "which will instantly be recognized." He said it was impossible to estimate the "thousands or perhaps millions involved in liquor orders transmitted over the set."

Mrs. Caraway Takes Seat In Senate; Casts First Vote

Widow of Legislator Passes Busy Day in Taking Up Work to Carry On "as Dad Would Have Done;" Only "Mrs." in Upper House.

(Associated Press.)

To Mrs. Hattie Caraway, her first day in the Senate was a memorable experience and entirely enjoyable—if a little bit strenuous. After being sworn in she left to have lunch, but didn't even have time to finish it.

A hurry call to the Senate floor to vote for President pro tempore interrupted the meal at the home of her sister a few blocks away, and brought her to the Capitol posthaste in a taxi.

But the second woman ever to receive a seat in the Senate—and the first to serve as an active member—took it all quite calmly. Still wearing her hat, she entered the chamber after her name had been passed on the voting roll call. Then she arose in her seat in the back row on the Democratic side, addressed the chair and voted for her party's candidate—Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada.

She repeated this vote on the other two ballots "as dad would have done," following out her policy of "carrying on" for her late husband, Senator Thaddeus Caraway, of Arkansas, whose place she was appointed to fill. And after it all was over and a recess taken, she went back to finish the interrupted meal.

Her debut as a senator somewhat earlier was quiet and unostentatious. Dressed entirely in black and looking very small beside the bulky figure of her fellow senator from Arkansas, Joe Robinson, she entered the chamber just as Vice President Curtiss was calling the Senate to order.

The presence of a "Mrs." among 95 "Misters" proved a stumbling block for the roll-call clerk, who hesitated each time he reached the name.

U. S. and Canadian Land Trade Urged

"Pan Handle" of Alaska Would Be Given for St. Lawrence Strip.

Rome, N. Y., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The Rome Chamber of Commerce today empowered its secretary to suggest to the State Department the trading of the "pan handle" of Alaska to Canada for land south of the St. Lawrence River before consummation of a water power and waterways treaty between Canada and the United States.

The chamber approved a report of its committee on canal transportation opposing improvement of the St. Lawrence until the United States has acquired half interest in the stream.

"Your committee confesses itself unable to understand the attitude of the Middlewestern States," read the report, "which in most matters are conspicuously pro-American, but which in this case seem to be giving no consideration to the all-American route."

3 of Jungle Film Unit Are Hurt in Auto Crash

Sarasota, Fla., Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Three members of an RKO-Pathe Production Co., in which Ann Harding is making a jungle picture, were injured seriously tonight when their automobile was wrecked on the Tamiami trail between here and Venice, the company's headquarters.

John Orlando, head grip man for the company and driver of the car, suffered deep lacerations and probable rib fractures; W. E. Copeland, grip man, severe scalp wounds and internal injuries, and Tommie Clark, assistant head cameraman, serious internal injuries. All are from Hollywood, Calif.

Helene Costello Says Sherman Cursed Her

Los Angeles, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Helene Costello, motion picture actress, daughter of Maurice Costello and sister of Dolores Costello, today filed an answer to Lowell Sherman's divorce suit, declaring the names she may have called him were as nothing to the epithets he directed at her.

The director's suit was filed last week. It charged Miss Costello cursed him in the presence of other motion picture notables, became intoxicated night after night and assaulted him. Miss Costello's reply declared Sherman beat her.

CONFIDENCE VOTED LAVAL BY DEPUTIES

States, was booed by members of the audience on that occasion and Alanson B. Houghton, former American Ambassador to Berlin, was unable to make himself heard in an uproar of jeers and fist fights.

The protest against the meeting later was attributed in unofficial quarters to a feeling among some Frenchmen that it was an indirect slap at France's policy of "security."

Declaring that he spoke as chief of the government on the eve of the disarmament conference, M. Laval recalled that France had reduced military service from three years to one and had cut the number of divisions from 57 to 26.

"Let me say that no attempt of any sort will be made by France for the adjournment of the conference," he said.

20 Admit Helping In Pay Roll Padding

Chicago Graft Witnesses Say They Were Paid for No Work.

Chicago, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—A parade of Chicago sanitary district payrollers of the allegedly spendthrift era of 1927-28 moved steadily through the courtroom today before three criminal court judges, giving testimony against eight former officials accused of conspiring to dissipate $5,000,000 in public funds.

Twenty witnesses were heard at the session, abbreviated because of the indisposition of Judge John Prystalski. The witnesses told of receiving a total of $36,426 in salaries for little or no service to the drainage district.

While they testified, an assistant State's attorney went through a stack of 110,000 checks for $22,000,000, the entire pay roll of the district in the era covered by the indictments, sorting them into checks paid for work done and those alleged to have been paid for sinecures.

Two Women in Taxicab Injured in Triple Crash

Two women passengers in a taxicab were slightly injured yesterday in a triple collision at Ninth and R streets northwest.

The women were passengers in a cab operated by William C. Dunn, 25 years old, of 1729 Twenty-first street northwest, who was driving north on Ninth street when his machine collided with another operated by Richard Johnson, colored, 27 years old, of 734 Fairmont street northwest. The impact forced the cab into the automobile of W. Schilke, 4000 Cathedral avenue northwest. Miss Estelle Lustick, 35 years old, of 4521 Iowa avenue northwest, and Miss Fannie Cleyman, 53 years old, of 4521 Iowa avenue northwest, were treated at Emergency Hospital for cuts and bruises.

Violence Suspends Tobacco Markets

Low Prices in Kentucky Cause Fights, Threats and Protests.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Fights, threats, demonstrations and protests against low prices caused suspensions of sales at five Kentucky tobacco markets today. Sales of the burley crop here, halted yesterday by farmers, were renewed without disorder, however, under the surveillance of extra police.

At Shelbyville one of the operators of a burley warehouse was knocked down and kicked in the head before sales were halted. At Hopkinsville, a dark leaf market, the auctioning was stopped when more than 1,000 growers voiced their objections.

Shouts of "You are stealing it" broke up the auction at Greensburg after 45,000 pounds of burley had been sold at from $1 to $24.50 per hundred, the average being between $7 and $8. At Lebanon the growers pushed auctioneers and buyers out of a warehouse and stopped the sale.

FRANCE CITES STAND ON REPARATIONS CUT

Would Favor Slash in Other Intergovernmental Debts if Germany Wins.

Paris, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The French government publicly took the position today that any reduction in German reparations payments must be accompanied by a simultaneous reduction in other intergovernmental obligations.

This stand was set forth in instructions sent to the nation's ambassadors and ministers.

Those diplomatic representatives were informed that France considers Germany's request for an inquiry into her ability to pay reparations to be the just initiative of a debtor desiring to meet his engagements.

The Government's official explanation of the debt stand shared interest with an announcement by Albert H. Wiggin, American banker, that banking interests in Germany's creditor countries are in harmony in regard to the problem of short-term German credits.

Mr. Wiggin, who headed the world bank committee which investigated Germany's economic structure last summer, will go to Berlin tomorrow at the invitation of a committee of German bankers.

In Informal Discussions.

"Representatives of banking interests in the various countries concerned with short-term credits to Germany have been having informal discussions in Paris preliminary to visiting Berlin," he said.

"Those representatives are in harmony, but I am not justified in discussing these matters further prior to the conference at Berlin."

An official communique accompanying the outline of the French government's debt stand contended there were two causes for Germany's financial troubles.

"The world economic crisis explains a great part of Germany's difficulties," the communique said, "but they are due also to expenditures and systematically exaggerated loans made by the Berlin government.

"France recognies the necessity for helping Germany and will conform with the spirit of the communique issued at Washington after the conversations between President Hoover and Premier Laval."

Views on Gold Standard.

Basel, Switerland, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Germany will do everything possible to remain on the gold standard, Carl Melchior, German representative on the World Bank advisory committee, assured his fellow committeemen this afternoon.

Herr Melchior informed the banking experts investigating Germany's capacity to pay reparations that the German people were horrified at the thought of abandoning the gold standard.

These statements were contained in the German delegate's presentation of his nation's case, in the course of which he succeeded, contrary to the wishes of France, in introducing the subject of short-term credits into the reparations discussions. Whether these commercial credits are to take precedence over reparations is expected to be cause for much argument before the committee sessions are concluded.

First Authentic Report.

Taking the floor in the double role of attorney and witness for his government, Herr Melchior presented the committee with its first detailed and authentic report on Germany's economic position.

He said the total short-term foreign debt is 12,000,000,000 marks (approximately $3,000,000,000), which is 4,000,000,000 marks more than was estimated last August in the report of the world bank committee, headed by Albert H. Wiggin, American banker.

Sir Walter Layton, who served with Mr. Wiggin and is a member of the committee now sitting, described the Melchior summary as "the newest and most exact information available, collected by a census imposed by decree."

"The reason the figure on short-term credits is 4,000,000,000 higher than the Wiggin report," Sir Walter continued, "is that industrial non-banking debts are greater than the Germans themselves supposed."

Herr Melchior said that despite a foreign trade monthly average surplus of 350,000,000 reichsmarks, the gold coverage of the Reichsbank had fallen from 30 to 12 per cent, exclusive of bank holdings of foreign exchange.

LEAGUE MAY EFFECT CHINESE PACT TODAY

Dawes and Associates Set Stage for Adoption of Compromise Plan.

Paris, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Ambassador Charles G. Dawes and officials of the League of Nations council set the stage tonight for final adoption at a public council session tomorrow of a compromise plan for settling the dispute between China and Japan in Manchuria.

League leaders expressed hope that at tomorrow's meeting the curtain would be rung down on the council's long and tedious deliberations.

The plan of settlement, finally drafted and tentatively approved today by all parties, provides for sending an international commission of inquiry into the Far East to dig into all causes, both remote and recent, of trouble between China and Japan.

Enduring Peace Forecast.

Other "details" upon which the two parties were unable to agree—such as a definite provision for evacuation by Japan within a stipulated time limit and the organization of a neutral zone—have been eliminated altogether or placed in the interpretative declaration of Chairman Aristide Briand. This declaration will have no executive validity.

After the council members had approved the final arrangements late this afternoon, Gen. Dawes crossed the Seine and discussed the entire situation with M. Briand and Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general of the league.

While the ambassador declined to comment afterward, it was understood he acquainted himself with all details of the plan which the United States already had approved in principle.

League authorities declared the proposed settlement, if it received formal ratification by all fourteen council members tomorrow, would provide a basis for enduring peace in the Far East. They admitted every thing depended, however, upon future military developments in Manchuria.

Provision for Evacuation.

The resolution calls for troop evacuation by Japan as soon as possible and binds both parties not to aggravate the situation.

Apprehension was provoked this afternoon by news reports that action by the Japanese troops was contemplated in the Chinchow area.

The organization of a neutral zone has been virtually abandoned and the council will take the position that a demilitarized area already exists and both parties are engaged not to violate it.

It was admitted that some hitch might develop at tomorrow's public session because the Japanese tonight had not received final instructions to accept the resolution.

Tokyo wanted the resolution to stipulate Japan's right to take measure against bandits. Some vague reference to measures for maintaining order will be included in the Briand declaration.

The Chinese were ready to accept the resolution, declaring it would prove a useful basis of procedure if Japan honored her engagements not to advance and to evacuate as soon as security conditions permit.

Wife Sues 101 Ranch Owner.

Newkirk, Okla., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Col. Zack Miller, of the 101 Ranch, was sued for divorce today by Mrs. Margaret Blevins-Miller. The suit followed her action yesterday in asking a writ of habeas corpus to obtain custody of her two children. The petition alleged cruelty.

HOOVER'S MESSAGE IS PRAISED AND HIT

G. O. P. Leaders Cite Merits While Democrats Find Proposals Weak.

(Associated Press.)

President Hoover's message to Congress yesterday drew praise and condemnation with party lines usually marking the division point.

Antiprohibitionists quickly called attention to the fact that Mr. Hoover had omitted any reference whatever to national prohibition. Representative Black, Democrat, New York, commented that this "is the first presidential message since prohibition that omitted praise of the dry law."

Here is what they said about the message:

Senator Watson, Indiana, Republican leader—"Remarkably strong. There is nothing that can arouse partisan rancor in a discussion of the measures proposed."

Senator Robinson, Arkansas, Democratic leader—"The recommendation respecting increase of taxes is notably indefinite. The President's suggestion relating to the tariff is subject to emphatic criticism."

Snell Praises Suggestions.

Representative Snell, New York, Republican leader—"The suggestions will be of inestimable value to the American people if enacted into law."

Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi—"A repetition of his former messages stripped of optimism and former prophesies of immediate business revival."

Representative Hawley (Republican), Oregon—Able and comprehensive statement with practicable measures for meeting existing contingencies.

Senator McNary (Republican), Oregon—Clear presentation of pending political and economic issues.

Senator McKellar (Democrat), Tennessee—A plea of confession and avoidance—a confession of failure.

Senator Walsh (Democrat), Massachusetts—No plan for correction of disorders in our political and economic structure.

Representative LaGuardia (Republican), New York—The President's heart seems to be in the right place, but the punch is just not there.

Representative Wood (Republican), Indiana—Timely in its contents and should appeal to the people with its fine proposals.

Representative Purnell (Republican), Indiana—A constructive program.

Representative McFadden (Republican), Pennsylvania—I am opposed to the reconstruction corporation.

See Real Program Lacking.

Senator Costigan (Democrat), Colorado—"He continues without any real program on unemployment, farm distress, tariff excesses, the public interest in electric power, unstable credit and planless industrialism."

Senator Coolidge (Democrat), Massachusetts—"The recommendation of the reconstruction corporation, mortgage-discount banks, and liberalizing the Federal Reserve act, has every indication of placing a heavy burden of taxation on the people and business for future generations."

Senator Fess (Republican), Ohio—"Early and final action of Congress on these recommendations will go far to relieve the economic situation."

Senator Smoot (Republican), Utah, said: "This is not a complete report. The President will have further recommendations. I am very well satisfied with the report."

Smoot to Tell Club Problems of Deficit

Senator Smoot will speak on the measures which Congress must adopt to meet the Federal deficit tonight before the Inquirendo meeting at the home of Fred Schew, 2701 Chesapeake street northwest.

Following the address, members will hold a round-table discussion with the senator. Officers for the coming year will be elected, Conrad Fehr, president, announced.

Not Guilty, Is Evans' Plea in Embezzling

Pleading not guilty to an indictment charging embezzlement of approximately $29,000 of funds of the International Union of Operating Engineers, Dave Evans, of Chicago, former secretary-treasurer, was allowed 10 days in which to attack the validity of the indictment.

HOOVER PROPOSES INCREASE IN TAXES

fore then, however, he plans to send up the year's moratorium on intergovernmental debts for approval. He promised several special messages to come, one especially on foreign affairs.

In a brief discussion of the railroads, the President said they should be given the chance to reduce operating costs by "proper consolidation." He suggested revision of the law under which the Interstate Commerce Commission regulates them, and gave notice that he would soon forward recommendations from the commission to Congress.

Another intended communication is to deal with strengthening law enforcement and judical procedure; while a third will transmit the findings of the Alabama-Tennessee-War Department committee on behalf of private operation of Muscle Shoals.

other "objectors" to Treasury bills, their opportunities to block small "Treasury raids."

It was originally proposed to require five objectors to set aside private claims and other "unanimous consent" bills. But as finally agreed upon, the old provisions were allowed to stand. In addition to Mr. Blanton, frequent objections to these bills are made by Representatives W. H. Stafford (Republican), Wisconsin; F. H. LaGuardia (Republican), New York, and John C. Shafer (Republican), Wisconsin.

TEXT OF PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Reconstruction Finance Corporation Advocated

Step Urged by Hoover to Rehabilitate Business; Also Proposes Increased Taxes, But for Two Years Only.

Following is the text of President Hoover's message to Congress:

TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

It is my duty under the Constitution to transmit to the Congress information on the state of the Union and to recommend for its consideration necessary and expedient measures.

The chief influence affecting the state of the Union during the past year has been the continued world-wide economic disturbance. Our national concern has been to meet the emergencies it has created for us and to lay the foundations for recovery.

If we lift our vision beyond these immediate emergencies we find fundamental national gains even amid depression. In meeting the problems of this difficult period, we have witnessed a remarkable development of the sense of cooperaton in the community. For the first time in the history of our major economic depressions there has been a notable absence of public disorders and industrial conflict. Above all there is an enlargement of social and spiritual responsibility among the people. The strains and stresses upon business have resulted in closer aplication, in saner policies, and in better methods. Public improvements have been carried out on a larger scale than even in normal times. The country is richer in physical property, in newly discovered resources, and in productive capacity than ever before. There has been constant gain in knowledge and education; there has been continuous advance in science and invention; there has been distinct gain in public health. Business depressions have been recurrent in the life of our country and are but transitory. The Nation has emerged from each of them with increased strength and virility because of the enlightenment they have brought, the readjustments and the larger understanding of the realities and obligations of life and work which come from them.

National Defense Maintained.

Both our Army and Navy have been maintained in a high state of efficiency. The ability and devotion of both officers and men sustain the highest traditions of the service. Reductions and postponements in expenditure of these departments to meet the present emergency are being made without reducing existing personnel or impairing the morale of either establishment.

The agreement between the leading naval powers for limitation of naval armaments and establishment of their relative strength and thus elimination of competitive building also implies for ourselves the gradual expansion of the deficent categories in our Navy to the parities provided in those treaties. However, none of the other nations, parties to these agreements, is today maintaining the full rate of construction which the treaty size of fleets would imply.

Although these agreements secured the maximum reduction of fleets which it was at that time possible to attain, I am hopeful that the naval powers, party to these agreements, will realize that establishment of relative strength in itself offers opportunity for further reduction without injury to any of them. This would be the more possible if pending negotiations are successful between France and Italy. If the world is to regain its standards of life, it must further decrease both naval and other arms. The subject will come before the general disarmament conference which meets in Geneva on February 2 next.

Foreign Affairs.

We are at peace with the world. We have cooperated with other nations to preserve peace. The rights of our citizens abroad have been protected.

The economic depression has continued and deepened in every part of the world during the past year. In many countries political instability, excessive armaments, debts, governmental expenditures and taxes have resulted in revolutions, in unbalanced budgets and monetary collapse and financial panics, in dumping of goods upon world markets and in diminished consumption of commodities.

Within two years there have been revolutions or acute social disorders in 19 countries, embracing more than half the population of the world. Ten countries have been unable to meet their external obligations. In fourteen countries, embracing a quarter of the world's population, former monetary standards have been temporarily abandoned. In a number of countries there have been acute financial panics or compulsory restraints upon banking. These disturbances have many roots in the dislocations from the World War. Every one of them has reacted upon us. They have sharply affected the markets and prices of our agricultural and industrial products. They have increased unemployment and greatly embarrassed our financial and credit system.

As our difficulties during the past year have plainly originated in large degree from these sources, any effort to bring about our own recuperation has dictated the necessity of cooperation by us with other nations in reasonable effort to restore world confidence and economic stability.

Cooperation of our Federal Reserve system and our banks with the central banks in foreign countries has contributed to localize and ameliorate a number of serious financial crises or moderate the pressures upon us and thus avert disasters which would have affected us.

The economic crisis in Germany and Central Europe last June rose to the dimensions of a general panic from which it was apparent that without assistance these nations must collapse. Apprehensions of such collapse had demoralized our agricultural and security markets and so threatened other nations as to impose further dangers upon us. But of highest importance was the necessity of cooperation on our part to relieve the people of Germany from imminent disasters and to maintain their important relations to progress and stability in the world. Upon the initiative of this Government a year's postponement of reparations and other intergovernmental debts was brought about. Upon our further initiative an agreement was made by Germany's private creditors providing for an extension of such credits until the German people can develop more permanent and definite forms of relief.

The difficulties between China and Japan have given us great concern, not alone for the maintenance of the spirit of the Kellogg-Briand pact, but for the maintenance of the treaties to which we are a party assuring the territorial integrity of China. It is our purpose to assist in finding solutions sustaining the full spirit of those treaties.

I shall deal at greater length with our foreign relations in a later message.

The Domestic Situation.

Many undertakings have been organized and forwarded during the past year to meet the new and changing emergencies which have constantly confronted us.

Broadly the community has cooperated to meet the needs of honest distress, and to take such emergency measures as would sustain confidence in our financial system and would cushion the violence of liquidation in industry and commerce, thus giving time for orderly readjustment of costs, inventories, and credits without panic and widespread bankruptcy. These measures have served those purposes and will promote recovery.

In these measures we have striven to mobilize and stimulate private initiative and local and community responsibility. There has been the least possible government entry into the economic field, and that only in temporary and emergency form. Our citizens and our local governments have given a magnificent display of unity and action, initiative and patriotism in solving a multitude of difficulties and in cooperating with the Federal Government.

For a proper understanding of my recommendations to the Congress it is desirable very briefly to review such activities during the past year.

The emergencies of unemployment have been met by action in many directions. The appropriations for the continued speeding up of the great Federal construction program have provided direct and indirect aid to employment upon a large scale. By organized unity of action, the States and municipalities have also maintained large programs of public improvement. Many industries have been prevailed upon to anticipate and intensify construction. Industrial concerns and other employers have been organized to spread available work among all their employes, instead of discharging a portion of them. A large majority have maintained wages at as high levels as the safe conduct of their business would permit. This course has saved us from industrial conflict and disorder which have characterized all previous depressions.

Immigration has been curtailed by administrative action. Upon the basis of normal immigration the decrease amounts to about 300,000 individuals who otherwise would have been added to our unemployment. The expansion of Federal employment agencies under appropriations by the Congress has proved most effective. Through the President's organization for unemployment relief, public and private agencies were successfully mobilized last winter to provide employment and other measures against distress.

Similar organization gives assurance against suffering during the coming winter. Committees of leading citizens are now active at practically every point of unemployment. In the large majority they have been assured the funds necessary which, together with local government aids, will meet the situation. A few exceptional localities will be further organized.

The evidence of the Public Health Service shows an actual decrease of sickness and infant and general mortality below normal years. No greater proof could be adduced that our people have been protected from hunger and cold, and that the sense of social responsibility in the Nation has responded to the need of the unfortunate.

Loans to Agriculture.

To meet the emergencies in agriculture the loans authorized by Congress for rehabilitation in the drought areas have enabled farmers to produce abundant crops in those districts. The Red Cross undertook and magnificently administered relief for over 2,500,000 drought sufferers last winter. It has undertaken this year to administer relief to 100,000 sufferers in the new drought area of certain Northwest States. The action of the Federal Farm Board in granting credits to farm cooperatives saved many of them from bankruptcy and increased their purpose and strength. By enabling farm cooperatives to cushion the fall in prices of farm products in 1930 and 1931, the board secured higher prices to the farmer than would have been obtained otherwise, although the benefits of this action were partially defeated by continued world overproduction. Incident to this action the failure of a large number of farmers and of country banks was averted which could quite possibly have spread into a major disaster. The banks in the South have cooperated with the Farm Board in creation of a pool for the better marketing of accumulated cotton. Growers have been materially assisted by this action. Constant effort has been made to reduce overproduction in relief of agriculture and to promote the foreign buying agricultural products by sustaining economic stability abroad.

To meet our domestic emergencies in credit and banking arising from the reaction to acute crises abroad the National Credit Association was set up by the banks with resources of $500,000,000 to support sound banks against the frightened withdrawals and hoarding. It is giving aid to reopen solvent banks which have been closed. Federal officials have brought about many beneficial unions of banks and have employed other means which have prevented many bank closings. As a result of these measures the hoarding withdrawals which had risen to over $250,000,000 per week after the British crisis have substantially ceased.

Further Economic Measures.

That major economic forces and weaknesses at home and abroad have now been exposed and can be appraised, and the time is ripe for forward action to expedite our recovery.

Although some of the causes of our depression are due to speculation, inflation of securities and real estate, unsound foreign investments, and mismanagement of financial institutions, yet our self-contained national economy, with its matchless strength and resources, would have enabled us to recover long since but for the continued dislocations, shocks, and setbacks from abroad.

Whatever the causes may be, the vast liquidation and readjustments which have taken place have left us with a large degree of credit paralysis, which, together with the situation in our railways and the conditions abroad, are now the outstanding obstacles to recuperation. If we can put our financial resources to work and can ameliorate the financial situation in the railways, I am confident we can make a large measure of recovery independent of the rest of the world. A strong America is the highest contribution to world stability.

One phase of the credit situation is indicated in the banks. During the past year banks, representing 3 per cent of our total deposits have been closed. A large part of these failures have been caused by withdrawals for hoarding, as distinguished from the failures early in the depression where weakness due to mismanagement was the larger cause of failure. Despite their closing, many of them will pay in full. Although such withdrawals have practically ceased, yet $1,100,000,000 of currency was previously withdrawn which has still to return to circulation.

This represents a large reduction of the ability of our banks to extend credit which would otherwise fertilize industry and agriculture. Furthermore, many of our bankers, in order to prepare themselves to meet possible withdrawals, have felt compelled to call in loans, to refuse new credits, and to realize upon securities, which in turn has demoralized the markets. The paralysis has been further augmented by the steady increase in recent years of the proporton of bank assets invested in long-term securities, such as mortgages and bonds. These securities tend to lose their liquidity in depression or temporarily to fall in value so that the ability of the banks to meet the shock of sudden withdrawals is greatly lessened and the restriction of all kinds of credit is thereby increased. The continuing credit paralysis has operated to accentuate the deflation and liquidation of commodities, real estate, and securities below any reasonable basis of values.

All of this tends to stifle business, especially the smaller units, and finally expresses itself in further depression of prices and values, in restriction on new enterprises, and in increased unemployment.

Lack of Confidence Unjustified.

The situation largely arises from an unjustified lack of confidence. We have enormous volumes of idle money in the banks and in hoarding. We do not require more money or working capital—we need to put what we have to work.

The fundamental difficulties which have brought about financial strains in foreign countries do not exist in the United States. No external drain on our resources can threaten our position, because the balance of international payments is in our favor; we owe less to foreign countries than they owe to us; our industries are efficiently organized; our currency and bank deposits are protected by the greatest gold reserve in history.

Our first step toward recovery is to reestablish confidence and thus restore the flow of credit which is the very basis of our economic life. We must put some steel beams in the foundations of our credit structure. It is our duty to apply the full strength of our Government, not only to the immediate phases, but to provide security against shocks and the repetition of the weaknesses which have been proven.

The recommendations which I here lay before the Congress are designed to meet these needs by strengthening financial, industrial and agricultural existing institutions and agricultural life through the medium of our existing institutions, and thus to avoid the entry of the Government into competition with private business.

Federal Government Finance.

The first requirement of confidence and of economic recovery is financial stability of the United States Government. I shall deal with fiscal questions at greater length in the budget message. But I must at this time call attention to the magnitude of the deficits which have developed and the resulting necessity for determined and courageous policies. These deficits arise in the main from the heavy decrease in tax receipts due to the depression and to the increase in expenditure on construction in aid to unemployment, aids to agriculture and upon services to veterans.

During the fiscal year ended June 30 last, we incurred a deficit of about $903,000,000, which included the statutory reduction of the debt and represented an increase of the national debt by $616,000,000. Of this, however, $133,000,000 is offset by increased cash balances.

In comparison with the fiscal year 1928 there is indicated a fall in Federal receipts for the present fiscal year amounting to $1,683,000,000, of which $1,034,000,000 is in individual and corporate income taxes alone. During this fiscal year there will be an increased expenditure, as compared to 1928, on veterans of $255,000,000, and an increased expenditure on construction work which may reach $520,000,000. Despite large economies in other directions, we have an indicated deficit, including the statutory retirement of the debt of $2,123,000,000, and an indicated net debt increase of about $1,711,000,000.

The budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 next, after allowing for some increase of taxes under the present laws and after allowing for drastic reduction in expenditures, still indicates a deficit of $1,417,000,000. After offsetting the statutory debt retirements this would indicate an increase in the national debt for the fiscal year 1933 of about $921,000,000.

Several conclusions are inevitable. We must have insistent and determined reduction in Government expenses. We must face a temporary increase in taxes. Such increase should not cover the whole of these deficits or it will retard recovery. We must partially finance the deficit by borrowing. It is my view that the amount of taxation should be fixed so as to balance the budget for 1933 except for the statutory debt retirement. Such Government receipts would assure the balance of the following year's budget, including debt retirement.

It is my further view that the additional taxation should be imposed solely as an emergency measure, terminating definitely two years from July 1 next. Such a basis will give confidence in the determination of the Government to stabilize its finance and will assure taxpayers of its temporary character. Even with increased taxation, the Government will reach the utmost safe limit of its borrowing capacity by the expenditures for which we are already obligated and the recommendations here proposed. To go further than these limits in either expenditures, taxes or borrowing will destroy confidence, denude commerce and industry of its resources, jeopardize the financial system and actually extend unemployment and demoralize agriculture, rather than relieve it.

Federal Land Banks.

I recommend that the Congress authorize the subscription by the Treasury of further capital to the Federal Land Banks, to be retired as provided in the original act, or when funds are available, and that repayments of such capital be treated as a fund available for further subscriptions in the same manner. It is urgent that the banks be supported so as to stabilize the market values of their bonds and thus secure capital for the farmers at low rates, that they may continue their services to agriculture and that they may meet the present situation with consideration to the farmers.

Deposits in Closed Banks.

A method should be devised to make available quickly to depositors some portion of their deposits in closed banks as the assets of such banks may warrant. Such provision would go far to relieve distress in a multitude of families, would stabilize values in many communities, and would liberate working capital to thousands of concerns. I recommend that measures be enacted promptly to accomplish these results, and I suggest that the Congress should consider the development of such a plan through the Federal Reserve banks.

Home-Loan Discount Banks.

I recommend the establishment of a system of home-loan discount banks as the necessary companion in our financial structure of the Federal Reserve banks and our Federal Land banks. Such action will relieve present distressing pressures against home and farm property owners. It will relieve pressures upon and give added strength to building and loan associations, savings banks and deposit banks, engaged in extending such credits. Such action would further decentralize our credit structure. It would revive residential construction and employment. It would enable such loaning institutions more effectually to promote home ownership. I discussed this plan at some length in a statement made public November 14 last. This plan has been warmly indorsed by the recent national conference upon home ownership and housing, whose members were designated by the governors of the States and the groups interested.

Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

In order that the public may be absolutely assured and that the Government may be in position to meet any public necessity, I recommend that an emergency reconstruction corporation of the nature of the former War Finance Corporation should be established. It may not be necessary to use such an instrumentality very extensively. The very existence of such a bulwark will strengthen confidence. The Treasury should be authorized to subscribe a reasonable capital to it, and it should be given authority to issue its own debentures. It should be placed in liquidation at the end of two years.

Its purpose is that by strengthening the weak spots to thus liberate the full strength of the Nation's resources. It should be in position to facilitate exports by American agencies; make advances to agricultural credit agencies where necessary to protect and aid the agricultural industry; to make temporary advances upon proper securities to established industries, railways, and financial institutions which can not otherwise secure credit, and where such advances will protect the credit structure and stimulate employment. Its functions would not overlap those of the National Credit Corporation.

Federal Reserve Eligibility.

On October 6 I issued a statement that I should recommend to the Congress an extension during emergencies of the eligibility provisions in the Federal Reserve act. This statement was approved by a representative gathering of the members of both houses of the Congress, including members of the appropriate committees. It was approved by the officials of the Treasury Department, and I understand such an extension has been approved by a majority of the governors of the Federal Reserve Banks. Nothing should be done which would lower the safeguards of the system.

The establishment of the mortgage-discount banks herein referred to will also contribute to further reserve strength in the banks without inflation.

Banking Laws.

Our people have a right to a banking system in which their deposits shall be safeguarded and the flavor of credit less subject to storms. The need of a sounder system is plainly shown by the extent of bank failures. I recommend the prompt improvement of the banking laws. Changed financial conditions and commercial practices must be met. The Congress should investigate the need for separation between different kinds of banking; an enlargement of branch banking under proper restriction; and the methods by which enlarged membership in the Federal Reserve System may be brought about.

Postal Savings Banks.

The postal savings deposits have increased from about $200,000,000 to about $550,000,000 during the past year. This experience has raised important practical questions in relation to deposits and investments which should receive the attention of Congress.

Railways.

The railways present one of our immediate and pressing problems. They are and must remain the backbone of our transportation system. Their prosperity is interrelated with the prosperity of all industries. Their fundamental service in transportation, the volume of their employment, their buying power for supplies from other industries, the enormous investment in their securities, particularly their bonds, by insurance companies, savings banks, benevolent and other trusts, all reflect their partnership in the whole economic fabric. Through these institutions the railway bonds are in a large sense the investment of every family. The well-maintained and successful operation and the stability of railway financies are of primary importance to economic recovery. They should have more effective opportunity to reduce operating costs by proper consolidation. As their rates must be regulated in public interest, so also approximate regulation should be applied to competing services by some authority. The methods of their regulation should be revised. The Interstate Commerce Commission has made important and far-reaching recommendations upon the whole subject, which I commend to the early consideration of the Congress.

Antitrust Laws.

In my message of a year ago I commented on the necessity of Congressional inquiry into the economic action of the antitrust laws. There is wide conviction that some change should be made especially in the procedure under these laws. I do not favor their repeal. Such action would open wide the door to price fixing, monopoly, and destruction of healthy competition. Particular attention should be given to the industries founded upon natural resources, expecially where destructive competition produces great wastes of these resources and brings great hardships upon operators, employees, and the public. In recent years there has been continued demoralization in the bituminous coal, oil, and lumber industries. I again commend the matter to the consideration of the Congress.

Unemployment.

As an aid to unemployment the Federal Government is engaged in the greatest program of public-building, harbor, flood-control, highway, waterway, aviation, merchant and naval ship construction in all history. Our expenditures on these works during this calendar year will reach about $780,000,000 compared with $260,000,000 in 1928. Through this increased construction, through the maintenance of a full complement of federal employees, and through services to veterans it is estimated that the federal taxpayer is now directly contributing to the livelihood of 10,000,000 of our citizens.

We must avoid burdens upon the Government which will create more unemployment in private industry than can be gained by further expansion of employment by the Federal Government. We can now stimulate employment and agriculture more effectually and speedily through the voluntary measures in progress, through the thawing out of credit, through the building up of stability abroad, through the home loan discount banks, through an emergency finance corporation, and the rehabilitation of the railways and other such directions.

I am opposed to any direct or indirect Government dole. The breakdown and increased unemployment in Europe is due in part to such practices. Our people are providing against distress from unemployment in true American fashion by a magnificent response to public appeal and by action of the local governments.

There are many other subjects requiring legislative action at this session of the Congress. I may list the following among them:

Veterans' Services.

The law enacted last March authorizing loans of 50 per cent upon adjusted-service certificates has, together with the loans made under previous laws, resulted in payments of about $1,260,000,000. Appropriations have been exhausted. The administrators of veterans' affairs advises that a further appropriation of $200,000,000 is required at once to meet the obligations made necessary by existing legislation.

There will be demands for further veterans' legislation; there are inequalities in our system of veterans' relief; it is our national duty to meet our obligations to those who have served the Nation. But our present expenditure upon these services now exceeds $1,000,000,000 per annum. I am opposed to any extension of these expenditures until the country has recovered from the present situation.

Electrical Power Regulation.

I have recommended in previous messages the effective regulation of interstate electrical power as the essential function of the reorganized Federal Power Commission. I renew the recommendation. It is urgently needed in public protection.

Muscle Shoals.

At my suggestion, the governors and legislatures of Alabama and Tennessee selected three members each for service on a committee to which I appointed a representative of the farm organizations and two representatives of the War Department for the purpose of recommending a plan for disposal of these properties which would be in the interest of the people of those States and the agriculture industry throughout the country. I shall transmit the recommendations to the Congress.

Reorganization of Departments.

I have referred in previous messages to the profound need of further reorganization and consolidation of Federal administrative functions to eliminate overlap and waste, and to enable coordination and definition of Government policies now wholly impossible in scattered and conflicting agencies which deal with parts of the same major function. I shall lay before the Congress further recommendations upon this subject, particularly in relation to the Department of the Interior. There are two directions of such reorganization, however, which have an important bearing upon the emergency problems with which we are confronted.

Shipping Board.

At present the Shipping Board exercises large administrative functions independent of the executive. These administrative functions should be transferred to the Department of Commerce, in keeping with that single responsibility which has been the basis of our governmental structure since its foundation. There should be created in that department a position of assistant secretary for merchant marine, under whom this work and the several bureaus having to do with merchant marine may be grouped.

The Shipping Board should be made a regulatory body acting also in advisory capacity on loans and policies, in keeping with its original conception. Its regulatory powers should be amended to include regulation of coastwise shipping so as to assure stability and better service. It is also worthy of consideration that the regulation of rates and services upon the inland waterways should be assigned to such a reorganized board.

Public Works Administration.

I recommend that all building and construction activities of the Government now carried on by many departments be consolidated into an independent establishment under the President, to be known as the "Public Works Administration," directed by a public works administrator. This agency should undertake all construction work in service to the different departments of the Government (except naval and military work). The services of the Corps of the Army Engineers should be delegated in rotation for military duty to this administration in continuation of their supervision of river and harbor work. Great economies, sounder policies, more effective coordination to employment, and expedition in all construction work would result from this consolidation.

Law Enforcement.

I shall present some recommendations in a special message looking to the strengthening of criminal-law enforcement and improvement in judicial procedure connected therewith.

Inland Waterway and Harbor Improvement.

These improvements are now proceeding upon an unprecedented scale. Some indication of the volume of work in progress is conveyed by the fact that during the current year over 380,000,000 cubic yards of material have been moved—an amount equal to the entire removal in the construction of the Panama Canal. The Mississippi waterway system, connecting Chicago, Kansas City, Pittsburgh and New Orleans, will be in full operation during 1933. Substantial progress is being made upon the projects of the upper Missouri, upper Mississippi, &c.

Negotiations are now in progress with Canada for the construction of the St. Lawrence waterway.

The Tariff.

Wages and standards of living abroad have been materially lowered during the past year. The temporary abandonment of the gold standard by certain countries has also reduced their production costs compared to ours. Fortunately, an increase in the tariff which may be necessary to protect agriculture and industry from these lowered foreign costs or decreases in items which may prove to be excessive, may be undertaken in any time by the Tariff Commission, under authority which it possesses by virtue of the tariff act of 1930. The commission during the past year has reviewed the rates upon over 254 items subject to tariff. As a result of vigorous and industrious action, it is up to date in the consideration of pending references and is prepared to give prompt attention to any further applications. This procedure presents an orderly method for correcting inequalities. I am opposed to any general congressional revision of the tariff. Such action would disturb industry, business and agriculture, and would prolong the depression.

Immigration and Deportation.

I recommend that immigration restriction now in force under administrative action be placed upon a more definite basis by law. The deportation laws should be strengthened. Aliens lawfully in the country should be protected by the issuance of a certificate of residence.

Public Health.

I again call attention to my previous recommendations upon this subject, particularly in its relation to children. The moral results are of the utmost importance.

Conclusion.

It is inevitable that in these times much of the legislation proposed to the Congress and many of the recommendations of the Executive must be designed to meet emergencies. In reaching solutions we must not jeopardize those principles which we have found to be the basis of the growth of the Nation. The Federal Government must not encroach upon nor permit local communities to abandon that precious possession of local initiative and responsibility.

Again, just as the largest measure of responsibility in the Government of the Nation rests upon local self-government, so does the largest measure of social responsibility in our country rest upon the individual. In the individual surrenders his own initiative and responsibilities, he is surrendering his own freedom and his own liberty. It is the duty of the National Government to insist that both the local governments and the individual shall assume and bear these responsibilities as a fundamental of preserving the very basis of our freedom.

Many vital changes and movements of vast proportions are taking place in the economic world. The effect of these changes upon the future can not be seen clearly as yet. Of this, however, we are sure: Our system, based upon the ideals of individual initiative and of equality of opportunity, is not an artificial thing. Rather it is the outgrowth of the experience of America, and expresses the faith and spirit of our people. It has carried us in a century and a half to leadership of the economic world.

If our economic system does not match our highest expectations at all times, it does not require revolutionary action to bring it into accord with any necessity that experience may prove. It has successfully adjusted itself to changing conditions in the past. It will do so again. The mobility of our institutions, the richness of our resources, and the abilities of our people enable us to meet them unafraid. It is a distressful time for many of our people, but they have shown qualities high in fortitude, courage, and resourcefulness as ever in our history.

With that spirit, I have faith that out of it will come a saupder life, truer standard of values, a greater recognition of the results of honest effort, and a healthier atmosphere in which to rear our children. Our must be a country of such stability and security as can [illegible] all to go forward and enlarge, among all the people that abundant life of material and spiritual opportunity which it has represented among the nations since its beginning.

HERBERT HOOVER.

Striking Observations In President's Message

(Associated Press.)

High spots in President Hoover's message:

"A strong America is the highest contribution to world stability."

"We must put some steel beams in the foundations of our credit structure."

"The first requirement of confidence and of economic recovery is financial stability of the United States Government."

"We must have insistent and determined reduction in Government expenses."

"We must face a temporary increase in taxes."

"I am opposed to any direct or indirect Government dole."

"The emergencies of unemployment have been met by action in many directions."

"I am opposed to any general congressional revision of the tariff."

"The country is richer in physical property, in newly discovered resources, and in productive capacity than ever before."

"We are at peace with the world. We have cooperated with other nations to preserve peace. The rights of our citizens abroad have been protected."

"We do not require more money or working capital—we need to put what we have to work."

"If the world is to regain its standards of life, it must further decrease both naval and other arms."

"Our system, based on ideals of individual initiative and of equal opportunity, is not an artificial thing. It has successfully adjusted itself to changing conditions in the past. It will do so again."

"Business depressions * * * are but transitory. The Nation has emerged from each of them with increased strength and virility."

Hoover Working on Special Message to Transmit Later in Week.

he will be ready to consider it whenever the President desires.

Since the Hoover moratorium was put into effect the tempo of American participation in international affairs has been raised to a higher beat by the visits of French Premier Laval and Italian Foreign Minister Dino Grandi. The Laval visit created in French political circles the persistent impression that all had not been revealed of the real nature of the White House conversations.

The communique which followed the final talk between the President and the premier was designedly vague. It is believed that the President will reveal other phases of the Laval conversations in his message now in preparation.

Imminence of the general disarmament conference, which is scheduled for February in Geneva, will also provoke some comments from the President with regard to American participation in it. The full complement of the American delegation to the conference will probably be announced simultaneously with the text of the President's foreign relations address.

At the present time the announcement that Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald will head the British delegation is taken to insure the presence of Secretary of State Stimson as head of the American delegation. Undersecretary of State William R. Castle, jr., has been spoken of as vice chairman in the event the conference is prolonged beyond expectation of Secretary Stimson.

The interrelation between armaments and national economy will probably be mentioned also in the President's address, as in frequent references in the past he has stressed the necessity if reducing costs for military equipment if there is to be any maintenance of tax rates at present levels.

Necessity of solving the financial difficulties of German national economy not only in the interest of Germany herself, but also on behalf of Americans, who have invested almost two billion dollars in long and short-term credits to Germany will probably be developed by President Hoover.

The situation with regard to Germany is further complicated by the plight of British bankers, who are in precisely the same boat as the Americans.

Great Britain has gone off the gold standard and with the value of the pound steadily dropping to the accompaniment of the mark, necessity for decisive action to save the financial situation will be emphasized by the President.

The President will not however put forward any panaceas for relief as he believes that the matter of reparations, which is thought by some to be the cause of most of the uneasiness in international money markets should be settled exclusively by European agreements in which the United States has no interest.

JACOBY TAKES $1,000 CULBERTSON WAGER

Bridge Players Congenial in Second Round; Lead of Lenz Is Extended.

New York, N. Y., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Ely Culbertson wagered another $1,000 tonight on the outcome of his contract bridge match with Sidney S. Lenz.

He made the bet with Oswald Jacoby, Lenz's partner, at the start of the second session of the play. Culbertson already has $5,000 up to be given to charity in the event he loses, against $1,000 from Lenz, also designated for charity.

"Want more?" he asked Jacoby, after the bet was accepted.

"Let's play," the other answered.

"I'll go up to $25,000," said Culbertson.

"Cut the cards," ordered Chief Referee Alfred M. Gruenther.

Culbertson won the cut, dealt, and the real grind of the 150-rubber match was under way.

The spectacle was considerably different than the night before, when bridge enthusiasts and well-wishers kept the tenth floor of the hotel, in which the Culbertsons have their apartment, in constant turmoil. The players were congenial. They joked with each other, posed for more pictures, and waited patiently while the ever-flying Culbertson skirted from one room to another to make last-minute arrangements for the recording of plays.

Absence of dinner clothes and lack of well wishers marked a contrast from the opening night.

There was no less activity on the tenth floor of the Culbertson's hotel, however, for plenty of experts were on hand to puzzle over the intricacies of the hands and broadcast the details to a waiting world of bridge fans.

The principals decided to change their last session of each week to Friday nights instead of Saturdays, as provided in the original agreement. The play will be on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

Illustrates Jump Forcing.

The first hand of tonight's play gave a good illustration of the jump forcing common to both Culbertson's system and the "official" system of Lenz. The contract was four no trump. Six was made through the lay of the cards. The hand:

Mr. Lenz (North).
S—Q 10 8 6 5
H—8 3
D—10 5 4
C—J 10 8

Mr. Culbertson (West—Dealer)	Mrs. Culbertson (East)
S—A 9 4	S—K 7 2
H—Q 10 7 6 4	H—K 9
D—7	D—A K Q 9 6 3
C—A Q 9 3	C—K 5

Mr. Jacoby (South)
S—J 3
D—J 8
C—7 6 4 2

Bidding—West 1H, North pass, East 2D, South pass, West 3NT, North pass, East 4NT. The contract. Score made 6 conceded at 7th trick—not vulnerable.

Lenz Scores Four Hearts.

Lenz (North).
S—9 6
H—A K 9 6 3
D—K J 9
C—J 10 2

Culbertson (W).	Mrs. Culbertson (E)
S—8 4 3
H—8 5 4	S—K 10 7 2
D—10 8 2	H—10
C—Q 7 5 4	D—Q 7 6 5 4
	C—A K 3

Jacoby (South, Dealer).
S—A Q J 5
D—A 3
C—9 8 6

Neither side vulnerable.

Bidding:

South, 1 spade; West, pass; North, 2 hearts; East, pass.

South, 4 hearts, which became contract.

Jacoby Makes Four No Trump.

The thirty-fourth hand involved a failure of the Culbertsons to set a contract of three no trump by Jacoby. He made four but could have gone down. The hands follow:

Lenz (North, Dealer)
S—A Q 8
H—7
D—A J 10 7 6 3
C—K Q 10

Mr. C. (West)	Mrs. C. (East)
S—6 5 4 2	S—K 7
H—K 10 5 3 2	H—A Q 9 6 4
D—Q 2	D—9 5
C—7 4	C—J 9 8 6

Jacoby (South)
S—J 10 9 3
H—J 8
D—K 8 4
C—A 5 3 2

Bidding—North D2; East pass; South 2NT; West pass, North 3NT, the final bid and contract.

Culbertson led the three of hearts, the fourth best of his longest suit. Mrs. Culbertson played the ace, but failed to lead back her queen, instead leading the six.

Culbertson failed to cover Jacoby's jack with his king, much to Jacoby's surprise, and Jacoby gleefully went to game, whereas the Culbertsons could have taken five heart tricks right off the reel.

Lenz Makes Six Hearts.

The first successful little slam bid of the series was made by Lenz on the fiftieth hand of the match. It was a laydown. The hand follows.

Lenz (North):
S.—A K J.
H.—K Q 7 6 5 4 2.
D.—K Q 7.
C.—Blank.

Culbertson (West) dealer:
S.—8 6.
H.—10 9 8.
D.—A J 6 3.
C.—Q J 7 3.

Mrs. Culbertson (East):
S.—Q 10 9 4 2.
H.—3.
D.—4 2.
C.—10 9 6 5 2.

Jacoby (South):
S.—7 5 3.
H.—A J.
D.—10 9 8 5.
C.—A K 8 4.

The bidding:

West pass; North 3 H; East pass; South 4 C.

West pass; North 4 H; East pass; South 6 H, the contract.

The four of spades was led by Mrs. Culbertson and the little slam was made easily, Lenz the player, losing only the ace of diamonds.

Senator and Mrs. Nye At School-Wing Opening

Senator and Mrs. Gerald P. Nye, of North Dakota, were guests last night of the Ben W. Murch Home and School Association at a house warming for the new wing of the school.

Miss Bertie Backus, principal of the Alice Deal Junior High School, spoke on "Character Training in the Schools." Other speakers included Mrs. Henry Grattan Doyle, vice president of the Board of Education; Henry Draper, supervising principal of the First School Division, and Mrs. Elizabeth K. Peeples, director of the Community Center Department. The Columbia Junior High School quartet was included on the entertainment program.

LENZ AND CULBERTSON IN BRIDGE BATTLE

12 OF G. O. P. PROGRESSIVES BOLT MOSES IN BALLOTING

The third ballot was identical except that one of McNary's votes went to Jones.

If, under the rules, the office went to the candidate polling the most votes, Key Pittman, the Democrat, would now be president pro tem. The rules require, however, that a candidate must poll a majority of the votes in order to win. Inasmuch as the progressives threw all their votes to Republicans, it was impossible for Pittman to win. A majority yesterday was 45, and Pittman could muster only 42.

Voting Against Moses.

The Republican Progressives who voted against Moses were Norris and Howell, of Nebraska; Borah and Thomas, of Idaho; Blaine and La Follette, of Wisconsin; Nye and Frazier, of North Dakota; Cutting, of New Mexico, and Couzens, of Michigan.

The two regular Republicans who joined with them were Jones, of Washington, and Capper, of Kansas. The lone Farmer-Laborite, Shipstead, also turned on Moses, bringing the total anti-Moses vote to 12.

The balloting was marked by several surprises. One was the action of Jones and Capper in turning against Moses. The Washington senator is known to feel none to cordially toward Moses, but it was not thought that he would vote against him.

Another surprise was sprung by Senator Smith Wildman Brookhart, of Iowa, when he voted for Moses. Brookhart has been regarded as one of the most rampant of all Progressives.

Those Giving Him Support.

For Pittman: Ashurst, Bailey, Bankhead, Black, Bratten, Broussard, Bulkley, Bulow, Byrne, Mrs. Caraway, Connolly, Coolidge, Copeland, Costigan, Dill, Fletcher, George, Glass, Gore, Harris, Harrison, Hawes, Hayden, Hull, Kendrick, King, Logan, McGill, McKellar, Morrison, Neely, Robinson, of Arkansas; Sheppard, Smith, Swanson, Thomas, of Oklahoma; Trammell, Tydings, Wagner, Walsh, Massachusetts; Walsh, of Montana; Wheeler.

For Norris: Blaine, Cutting, Frazier, Howell, La Follette, Nye, all Republican Progressives, and Shipstead, Farmer-Labor.

For McNary: Borah, Capper, Couzens, Jones, Thomas, of Idaho.

For Jones: Norris.

Metcalf and Barkley.

Senator Metcalf (Republican), of Rhode Island, who is reported to be cool toward Moses, was paired with Senator Barkley, of Rhode Island; Senator Moses was paired with Senator Pittman, and Senator Waterman (Republican), of Colorado, was paired with Senator Stephens (Democrat), of Mississippi.

When McNary announced that he did not want the office, Borah switched from him to Jones, and so did Couzens. Norris voted for Jones on all three ballots.

Youth, 19, on Trial In Student Killing

Illinois Hitch-Hiker Held to Have Slain Man Who Gave Him Ride.

Holyoke, Colo., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Handcuffed to Sheriff Frank Berger, John Markham, 19-year-old Granite City, Ill., youth, who came West seeking adventure, was brought into Phillips County Court today to face charges of slaying Stanley M. Moore, Michigan College of Mines student.

Markham walked quickly into the small white-walled courtroom, being used for a murder trial for the first time in a decade, and sat down within speaking distance of his father, Norman Markham. "Don't worry, dad, I'll get out of this all right," Markham said, as he adjusted himself to a hard-backed chair.

District Attorney Roy T. Johnson indicated at the opening of the trial he would ask for the death penalty when he excused four prospective jurors who said they were against capital punishment.

Markham is charged with killing Moore after he had picked the hitch-hiking youth up near Lincoln, Nebr., early in September.

Detroit Professor Wins Officers' Training Fight

Detroit, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—A request for disciplinary action against a City College of Detroit professor, who also is an American Legion post commander, for opposing establishment of a Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit at City College, was voted down by the board of education today.

Instead, the board adopted a resolution upholding the right of free speech, and Dr. Burt R. Shurly, who had announced he would demand the discharge of Dr. Walter G. Bergman for "seditious utterances," voted for the resolution.

Dr. Bird to Speak at Alta Vista.

Dr. J. W. Bird, director of the Montgomery County Social Service League, will address a meeting of the Alta Vista Community League, tomorow night at 8 o'clock, in the Bethesda Women's Club House at Alta Vista, Md. Dr. Bird will talk on welfare work in the county. Members have been asked to bring their friends to the meeting, which is open to the public.

THE PATH TO PROSPERITY.

The tone and temper of President Hoover's message to Congress is admirable. With his usual skill in unraveling complex situations and condensing into brief sentences the pith of his unwearied studies, he presents to Congress and the people an understandable picture of the world depression, and offers relief recommendations which are so obviously sound and workable that Congress can not fail to approve them.

The aims of the President are the aims of the people. It is inconceivable that the national welfare will be sacrificed by politicians after the pathway to prosperity has been so clearly outlined and the desire to take this path is held by all the people.

Mr. Hoover's recommendations are not offhand "panaceas" concocted by an officeholder whose sole object is to be reelected. They are the composite result of hundreds of conferences and studies by the most competent men in the country, belonging to all parties, and molded for the single purpose of releasing the powers that already exist—powers not imagined or invented for this emergency, but inherent in the people and resources of the United States. These plans look to the removal of economic paralysis, so that Americans can themselves go forward in the work of restoration of good times. No outside power can help them; their salvation is in themselves. No power can stop them when they once unleash their energies.

The several plans proposed by Mr. Hoover will be found in his message and need not be discussed in detail at this time. These plans are subject to alteration and amendment by Congress. Doubtless valuable suggestions will be forthcoming in committees and on the floor. What is desired above all other things by the public is that Congress shall resolve to cooperate with the President. With cooperation will come legislation that will expedite prosperity. Without cooperation there will be confusion and failure, with prolonged hardship to the people.

Moderation in appropriations and in levying taxes is necessary as a corollary of legislation designed to release credit and stimulate agriculture, commerce and industry. No net good will be accomplished if Congress, while enacting emergency reconstruction legislation, should also make extravagant appropriations or impose crushing taxes. The Government must be made and kept sound and solvent, while steps are taken to help private enterprise.

If President Hoover had been playing politics with the economic situation he would have dodged the duty of recommending additional taxation at this time. He faces the music, and risks the unpopularity that is supposed to follow a proposal to add to the tax burden. He relies upon the common sense and moral courage of the people to support him when he discloses the facts concerning Federal finances. It is the people's Government, not his. He gives an account of his stewardship and offers well-considered plans for bettering the situation. Contrary to the assumption of timorous politicians, the people will not find fault with President Hoover for advocating increased taxation. They do not blame him for conditions that were not made by him nor made worse by him. They would blame him if he concealed the truth.

A glimpse of the appalling conditions outside the United States is given by the President, with the promise that he will discuss foreign affairs more fully in a later message. This resume of [illegible] extraordinary interest, tinged with anxiety; but for the present the people have before them the domestic situation, accurately stated, with definite plans for the improvement of conditions. The first duty of economics, as of charity, is to begin at home. The recuperation of the United States is comparatively easy, provided the Government and people join hands in putting definite plans into effect. With the United States going forward in full vigor, every country in the world will take heart and work toward recovery.

Patriotism requires every man in Congress to support the President's recommendations unless, with pure conscience and with a will to cooperate, the legislator can propose alterations or improvements. Obstacles placed in the path of this proposed legislation for partisan reasons would be nothing less than an attempt to prolong the public misery.

LAW AND ORDER PRESERVED.

Brig. Gen. Pelham D. Glassford, Superintendent of Police, is entitled to high commendation for the manner in which he preserved peace and order while 1,500 Communists were invading the Capital with the intention of creating trouble. The so-called hunger marchers have departed without carrying out the purpose of their visit, because the police gave them no opportunity. Wherever they went they perceived that the strong arm of the law was ready to descend upon any who disturbed the peace. Consequently there were no disorders.

All Communists are devoted to the destruction of government by violence, by fomenting unrest, labor troubles and riots. The caravans that came to Washington were engaged in that mission. Leaders boasted that they would defy the police and present their petitions on the floors of Congress. With characteristic effrontery they sought to intimidate Congress and the President. But Washington was prepared for them. When they realized that any attempt to violate the law would bring police clubs down on their heads they deemed it prudent to abandon the real purpose of their crusade.

Preparedness always discourages agitators. If the police had been poorly handled or had shown a disposition to compromise with this clique of troublemakers riots might have ensued, resulting in injuries and bloodshed. But the police, under the personal direction of Gen. Glassford, applied preventive measures. Hence, the so-called "march on the Capital" became nothing more than a hot-air fiasco.

Gen. Glassford's record in handling this case gives him the confidence of the people. He has shown that he knows how to deal with problems of preserving order under difficult circumstances. Under his direction the Police Department should acquire a new dignity and effectiveness.

MOTORING COSTS.

The average driver of an automobile may not be interested in knowing that it costs him about twice as much per mile to drive his car as it would to ride on the railroad. Most drivers know how many miles they get to a gallon, but the wear and tear, insurance, interests, &c., reduced to the fraction of a cent per mile cost, offers too much of a mathematical problem. Yet it has all been figured out by experts, and they will assure you, also, that it costs 2 cents a mile less to drive on modern improved roads than on old-fashioned dirt roads.

This sounds somewhat like propaganda for good roads and, in fact, the estimate comes from the American Road Builders Association. It is the result, however, of observation of the operation of upward of 1,000 automobiles tested in various parts of the United States. Detailed cost records were kept. The average cost of operation of all types over all kinds of surfaces ranged from 6.02 cents per mile for light fours to 9.45 cents for heavy sixes.

The division of cost for an imaginary "average" automobile, based on an annual mileage of 11,000, is figured out in this way, expressed in cents per mile: Gasoline, 1.31; oil, 0.22; tires and tubes, 0.64; maintenance, 1.72; depreciation, 1.39; license, 0.14; garage ($4 per month), 0.44; interest, 0.36; insurance, 0.21. This makes a total of 6.43 cents per mile, being about a cent a mile less than the estimate for operating light sixes.

The road builders make a telling plea in dollars and cents for good roads by quoting statistics on the total automobile mileage of the United States. Allowing 15 miles travel on a gallon of gasoline for the 15,000,000,000 gallons consumed last year, motor vehicles covered 225,000,000,000 miles. If half of this travel was on the 700,000 miles of surfaced roads, the saving at 2 cents a mile amounts to $2,500,000,000, a sum that is greater than the total amount expended on highway maintenance and capital investment in better roads.

WESTERN TRAFFIC WAR.

The greatest traffic war since the advent of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the affairs of railroads is imminent in the West, and is expected to break out before the end of the year. The contest is between the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific roads against the Western Pacific, Denver & Rio Grande Western, Burlington and Great Northern lines, recently consolidated under Arthur C. James. In the past the fruit and vegetable trade from California has been a virtual monopoly in the hands of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, whose routes to the North and East were shorter and, therefore, saved time in transporting perishable products.

A new link has now been built between the Great Northern and Western Pacific roads, which makes it possible to transport California products up to Oregon and then East. This route is only slightly longer than that of the competing lines. The idea of constructing the "golden spike," according to Mr. James, was the intention of "going [illegible] the important fruit and vegetable crop of California, the great lumber traffic from Puget Sound and the surrounding territory, the rich silk commerce from China and Japan and other trade with the Orient, the 10,000,000 bushels of grain from the Middle West to California and the usual variety of interstate commerce.

Another weapon in the hands of the James lines, with which they expect to capture trade from the rival companies, is the addition of autorefrigerated cars. The new cars make it possible to transport perishable products without regard to distances. Last season 25,000 car loads of head lettuce were shipped from California over the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific system. Next year the James lines expect to share a large portion of this business, as well as a part of the orange, lemon and other fresh fruit crops and the canned goods trade.

Another link is now under construction by the James lines in the heart of the Colorado Rockies. This piece of road, known as the Dostero cut-off, will shorten the route over the Pacific-Rio Grande lines by 170 miles, making the line from San Francisco to Chicago by this route very little longer than that of the Southern Pacific-Union Pacific lines. These changes will create so formidable a combination against the established system that the resulting rivalry will lead to the greatest traffic struggle this country has witnessed in the last quarter of a century.

THE COURSE OF STERLING

From the Christian Science Monitor.

Finance in France has a habit of acting in conformity with foreign policy. This knowledge has led several commentators on the latest descent in the exchange value of the pound sterling to a strange explanation. The French are at the bottom of it! The charge is casting suspicion over the approaching reparation conference.

Of course, the charge is not justified. Nowadays French "political" selling of sterling would harm the French more than the British. They still have millions of francs tied up in sterling accounts with the London banks. Every point sheared off the value of sterling in francs means that these balances are correspondingly reduced.

The new strain on sterling was caused in great part by the increased British calls to pay for foreign goods. In the fall Great Britain always buys great quantities of wheat, cotton and other foodstuffs and raw materials. This year British importers have been buying a much larger volume of goods in anticipation of the new tariff, the imposition of which is making imports more expensive.

When Great Britain was on the gold standard exports of gold would have come to the rescue of the British sterling in relieving this pressure upon it. But gold is no longer available for this service. Like any commodity, the currency must find its own "price" in accordance with supply and demand. Seasonal and other extraordinary purchases are thus showing the strain on sterling by making it cheaper in terms of other currencies, which means that foreign goods are costing the British more.

At present this aspect of the drop in sterling is not engaging most attention in Great Britain. The British trouble has been that in recent years they have imported too much and exported too little. If foreign goods cost them more, that will automatically cut down their normal purchases. By the same token, however, it will make British goods cheap in foreign money. An English book priced in London at £1 which a year ago cost an American $4.85 would now cost him $3.30.

In the long run, of course, exchange stability is preferable to any temporary exporting advantage. But the British do not seem to be in any hurry to link their currency to gold, which would give them stability. Apparently they wish to provide their industry with a much-needed fillip. Any speculative selling of sterling, far from alarming them, as it did when it caused a draft on London's gold supply, would therefore not be unwelcome to the manufacturers, for a gradual diminution in unemployment has occurred as a result of the impetus to British exports already observable since the country left the gold standard.

Any speculative selling of sterling on the off chance that inflationary measures by the Bank of England are destined to lower the pound sterling abnormally in terms of foreign currencies loses sight of the fact that debts to the value of some 5,000,000,000 of these same pounds are owed to Britain by foreigners. Any British attempt to knock the bottom out of the pound would knock the bottom out of those debts. British bondholders have thus an interest in the future gold parity of the pound quite opposite to that of the British manufacturer. They will strive to secure stabilization at a high figure, so that their interest payments from abroad will be received in valuable pounds.

The French are just as much aware of the power of the British bondholder in this matter as they are that unnecessary sales of sterling at present would both depreciate their own holdings and accomplish no political purpose whatsoever.

POST HASTE.

It's not a depressing War Finance Corporation this time, but a Reconstruction Corporation to make war on depression.

With all their effrontery, the hunger marchers didn't have Giff Pinchot's nerve to touch Uncle Andy Mellon for a loan.

To see European countries raving against some other nation's tariffs is amusing; when the fury is directed against British customs it is hilarious.

Five thousand bills presented in the House the first day, but we fear members will find this Congress is not as good a collection agency as the last one.

Novel suggestion to editors: When topics for discussion are scarce why not scold the politicians?

Poor Prince Nicholas is becoming confused. The mayor who married him, the Roumanian army, the supreme court and the king have all combined to convince him he wasn't married.

We trust there were no cases of heart failure from surprise at the Basel conference when Germany announced that she could not continue reparation payments under the Young plan.

It was a relief to have Mr. Garner actually elected Speaker, and a matter of congratulation that our marching visitors didn't capture either the Capitol or the White House; but wasn't it real satisfaction to know that even the Culbertson family could be set four on a five diamond bid?

But it was hard luck for Jack Garner that the very first day of his Speakership he had to stand up and be photographed beside the Tammany boss.

A crowd of Chicago plutocrats in evening dress, trying to ruin our Maryland governor with the common people, started a campaign cry of "Get rich with Ritchie!"

Railway employes are meeting in Chicago to consider accepting as gracefully as possible a 10 per cent cut. With as many men looking for jobs as are working, there ain't goin' to be no strike.

The Government's new financing program receives a cheerful welcome and that billion and a fraction will be quickly absorbed to make way for the organization of the new Reconstruction Corporation.

Like the prudent joy-ride girls, the hunger marchers brought along their mad money so they wouldn't have to walk home. They will do anything but march or work.

JUST FOLKS

CHRISTMAS TIPS.

Christmas shopper, if for me
You are storeward bound today,
And a handkerchief you see
Made of silk and very gay,
Though admire it others might
All my handkerchiefs are white.

Should some hosiery in a box,
Gaudy colored, catch your eye,
Though I am in need of socks,
Pass the reds and purples by.
I shall have to take 'em back
If you do not pick 'em black.

If within a necktie store
You discover something grand,
Let me tell you just once more
I don't wear a four-in-hand.
If the gift is meant for me,
Just a bow-tie let it be.

If suspenders catch your eye,
As no doubt the bright ones will,
In all safety you may buy.
I am one who wears 'em still!
To your color choice I'll bow.
No one sees 'em, anyhow!

One Artery Gives the Blood for Transfusion, But Every Fiber of the Body Feels the Loss.

By ROBERT QUILLEN

Do you know why Europeans dislike America?

Because they have been told, by their political leaders and their newspapers, that their tax burdens and their economic difficulties are the result of paying war debts to America.

They have been tricked by vicious propaganda in which there is no word of truth.

Not one cent of European money has been paid to America since the war.

Every dollar paid by the former allies came from Germany, and every dollar paid to them by Germany was borrowed money—most of it borrowed from America.

In short, Europe has discharged a portion of her war debt by persuading Americans to pay themselves.

Nor is that the whole of the story.

Europe is determined never to pay her war debts.

Do you think the allies will pay from their own pockets when they can no longer collect from Germany? Not one red cent.

Do you think Germany will pay the allies from her own pocket when she can no longer borrow the money to pay with? Not a penny.

If they have dodged payment for thirteen years, why expect them to do better now?

They can't do better. Dishonest propaganda has served its purpose so well that not one of the governments concerned could survive overnight if it threatened to pay America by taxing its own people.

But if vicious propaganda has thus enabled the people of Europe to escape war debts, it has done them an ill turn also.

Because they think all of their troubles caused by the payment of war debts, they believe the cancellation of debts would solve their problems. In that belief they clamor for cancellation and make no other effort to save themselves.

Europe has lived since the war by borrowing. American money has paid reparations, supported armaments, provided a dole, built factories, roads and towns.

Shall America continue to lend money—to absorb bond issues?

She dare not. It is sending good money after bad. Governments and private concerns have learned to repudiate debts without shame.

What will happen if America refuses to lend more? Disaster?

What always happens when a spendthrift can borrow no more from foolish friends? He gets hungry, and then he goes to work and lives on what he can earn. If that is disaster, let it come quickly.

PRO AND CON

Problems Before Congress.

Kansas City Star.

The growing importance and complexity of modern industrial problems is indicated by the great variety of matters that will come before Congress at the session beginning December 7. Twenty-five years ago the questions brought up for legislation were comparatively simple. There was the perennial tariff, and, under Roosevelt, railroad and pure food policies. The list was limited.

The Congress that will meet next Monday will plunge at once into revenue and budget discussions that will profoundly affect the economic life of the Nation. In the face of what the Treasury Department calls "an amazing decrease" in the number of incomes above $100,000 a year, shall the Government boost the upper brackets of the income tax from 20 per cent to 40 per cent, as suggested by Senator Smoot? Or shall it take Senator Robinson's view that such an increase would cripple industry and prolong the depression? Shall the exemptions of single and married persons be lowered, to broaden the base of collections? Shall there be increased inheritance taxes? Shall there be sales taxes on luxuries?

Republicans Must Hustle.

Worcester Telegram.

Indications are that there can be no justification for the Republican organization to take things easy from now until the first Tuesday after the first Monday of next November. The requirement is work and more work, hard and unremitting. It would seem obvious that the national committee as organized at present is woefully ineffective. Common sense counsels that it be shaken up and set going without undue delay.

Another Election Upset.

Kansas City Times.

If there were a few more special congressional elections, the Democrats would have a very comfortable majority in the House. At least the returns from special elections thus far would so indicate. As it is, the Democrats have 219 and the Republicans 214, with one Farmer-Labor member. The last addition to the Democratic membership comes from a normally strong Republican district in New Jersey, with the fight made on the Hoover administration. The Democratic candidate won by about 1,500 votes, overturning a Republican plurality of 35,000 recorded in the last previous election.

No "howevers" can seriously discount such a party victory and such a party defeat as here shown. It was a real wallop. As in other similar elections held recently, the results indicate that, as always happens, dissatisfaction with economic conditions is visited on the party in power.

Democratic Tide Grows.

Atlanta Constitution.

The election of a Democrat to Congress in a former Republican stronghold in New Jersey makes doubly sure Democratic organization of the House gives the party a better working majority and is a handwriting on the wall warning to the Republicans of what is going to happen in the general elections next fall.

With a total of 219 votes the Democrats now have a clear majority of four and a plurality of five over the Republicans. Since the single Farmer-Labor representative has consistently lined up with the Democrats on important issues, they are assured of a working majority of five.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Mr. Johnson Believes in Sound Money and the Tariff, but Somehow a Little Silver Inflation Looks Good to Him.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: I am aware that The Post is an outstanding champion of the gold standard and a firm believer that silver is merely a commodity, and must take its course, like eggs or wheat. Nevertheless it is a matter of astonishment to me that our captains of industry have not waked up to the fact that things are getting away from them in the business of foreign exports by reason of the cheapness of silver and the paper currencies of England and other countries.

Cheap silver dollars are giving cities like Shanghai a building boom; furthermore, factories are going up to manufacture cigarettes, textiles, and no doubt automobiles and trucks. The dumping of silver by India and Indo-China three years ago sent silver from 64 cents an ounce down to 25, upsetting the exchange rate which had prevailed in China for more than 20 years at about two Mexican dollars for one gold dollar. Now they are four to one. This, of course, reduced the purchasing power of the vasts hoards of silver in China and India.

As our goods are sold to China on a gold basis it takes lots of silver dollars to buy an automobile or American truck. Furthermore, out in China they are learning the art of using shinplasters, just as we used them after the Civil War. I have in my possession specimens of these, beautifully engraved by the American Banknote Co., calling for 10 and 20 cents from the Central Bank of China.

My personal feelings are for the gold standard, because we have gold enough to almost cover our entire issue of paper money; also, because I believe in a protective tariff for our great home market in 48 great States; but if I were a mass-production-manufacturer and dependent on exports to keep the wheels going round I would be shouting myself hoarse for something to be done about silver. Some day the captains will wake up and find they have been again misled by the college theorists about tariffs and economics. JEREMIAH JOHNSON.

It Is All Right to Spend Your Money, But Be Careful What You Buy. Don't Hoard, Yet Save a Little.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: There is a great deal of talk nowadays about hard times being caused by people hoarding their money and refusing to spend it. "If you have any money, spend it," seems to be the great panacea. But is it that simple? I don't think so. We must change our attitude toward life in general.

Go back to 1927, '28, '29, "good times." Every one was working who wanted to work. Practically all business men were making money. Most corporations were expanding their plants and it was loosely predicted that prosperity was here to stay. And, mark you, everybody was spending; they were spending. A new car—the old one wasn't good enough. Or two cars—one wasn't enough. A new and larger house—the old one wasn't in a classy enough section. A new country club—the old one wasn't good enough. New clothes every year. More trips abroad, more vacations, more shows, more night clubs, and golf clubs. More pleasure and less work. Something for nothing, or next to nothing. People wanted a good time without working for it.

Eliminate the nonessentials, the luxuries, and prosperity will return. Don't misunderstand me—I don't say to eliminate all pleasure, but don't expect to live a life of ease. A little cake is fine, but we don't want the whole meal to be cake.

Spending? Yes, spending is O. K., but be careful what you buy. Buy essentials, and when good times return, as they surely will, save a little money for a rainy day. Don't "hoard" it, but save a little. Spend, but spend wisely, and when we eliminate the idea that we can get something for nothing, we will eliminate depressions. CITIZEN.

Statistics Can Be Misused to "Prove" Anything—Horrible Example Furnished by Communists.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: The more I think the more I sour on statistics. Straight statistics are all right, but the way in which they are generally dished up in argument is what gets my goat. Nearly all of us who have a natural-born urge to argufy, political spellbinders, college professors, lawyers, preachers, as well as the man in the street, quote statistics for our purpose. High tariff or low tariff, Government ownership or private ownership, wet or dry, whatever the question happens to be, the king-pin of statistical hocuspocus will be introduced to clinch the argument for or against.

As a horrible example let me quote a paragraph from advice to the "hunger marchers," printed in the Daily Worker, official organ of the Communist party of the United States:

"Make your demands heard in Washington with such force and determination that they will shake the dome of Wall street's capital over the heads of its servants who today condemn 12,000,000 workers and their families to starvation."

Allowing husband and wife and three children to the family of each of these workers we have here 60,000,000 Americans condemned to starvation—half of our population. As a kind of crazy weed to be devoured by the proletariat such statistics are to be expected from anarchistic radicals. But, strange as it seems, examples of an abuse of statistics similar to this, if not quite so raw, are likely to be noted by any one who is interested enough to look for them in the proceedings of Congress this winter.

MORE TARIFF SEEN NEEDED BY FRANCE

Deputies Vote Down Laval Plan of New Duties on Certain Materials.

Paris, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The commerce ministry predicted today that France may need more tariff protection than she now enjoys from her 15 per cent superduties.

At the same time the Chamber of Deputies defeated the Laval government, 325 to 261, on a proposal to levy an import tax of 2 per cent on raw materials, 4 per cent on partially manufactured goods, and 6 per cent on manufactured products.

This measure, which was not made a question of confidence, and so does not affect the life of the government, was turned down apparently because the deputies feared it would send up the cost of living.

Following much newspaper comment during the last few days about "tariff war" with Great Britain, the commerce ministry declared the British government had "made a mistake" in establishing high duties.

"English Exports Small."

"We regard England as a friend," a ministry spokesman said, "but even friends sometimes make mistakes."

France, it was said, intends to find other markets so far as possible and to increase her own consumption of certain products hit by the new English duties.

"After all," the ministry spokesman said, "English exports to France are small, and high French tariffs would affect only a few items and so would not help the French producers who are momentarily hurt."

It was implied that France has received information to the effect that England is dissatisfied with present conditions and may voluntarily reduce her rates, thus eradicating the threat of tariff war.

Held Thrust at Britain.

The French 15 per cent superduties were established after England went off the gold standard and before the recent 50 per cent antidumping measures in Britain became effective.

The radical Socialists were among the principal opponents of the tariff measure defeated in the Chamber today. Its chief supporter was Francois Pietri, minister of the budget.

"A fear of reprisals has been expressed," M. Pietri said, "but it is my impression that the reprisals took place beforehand."

Although the budget minister had said the measure was not aimed at any particular country, some deputies interpreted it as a thrust against England.

Barbour's Senate Status Challenged

Judiciary Committee Will Decide Legality of His Appointment.

(Associated Press.)

To the Senate judiciary committee was tossed the problem yesterday of deciding when a senator becomes a senator. Finding the highly technical tangle too complicated for an off-hand opinion, the Senate adopted this procedure.

Upon the decision hangs the legality of the appointment of Warren Barbour as Republican senator from New Jersey.

The status of Huey Long who prefers to continue presently as Governor of Louisiana instead of becoming United States senator, also is involved.

Senator Pittman, legal-minded Democrat from Nevada, raised the question when Barbour presented himself yesterday to take the oath of office. He asked if Barbour's predecessor, the late Dwight Morrow, was actually a senator when he died.

Senator Morrow was elected for a term beginning last March 4, but died before he was sworn in. Senator Pittman contended that he was a senator, but said if he was not then the Governor of New Jersey had no right to appoint Barbour, and Morrow's successor should have been elected. Senator Pittman pointed to two court decisions, including one in the Long case, that a senator is not a senator until sworn in.

Former Head of Veterans Dies.

Los Angeles, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—William Murphy, 45, national commander of the Disabled War Veterans in 1929 and owner of a Carlsbad (Calif.) hotel, died here today of pneumonia. He was a native of Boston and is survived by his widow and 5-year-old son.

Engineer Rejects Channel Projects

House Receives 4 Reports Condemning Virginia and Maryland Plans.

Unfavorable recommendations on four rivers and harbors projects in nearby Virginia and Maryland were contained yesterday in reports submitted to the House of Representatives by the chief of Army engineers. All were ferefred to the House rivers and harbors committee.

Improvement of Dickerson's Bay, in Gloucester County, Va., by deepening the channel, was declared "wholly unjustifiable," because the commercial benefits would be "entirely speculative." On similar grounds another report disapproved proposed deepening of the channel of Broad Creek, from Annemessex River to Pocomoke Sound, Somerset County, Md.

Establishment of a harbor of refuge in Chincoteague Bay, Accomac County, Va., was declared "impractical" because of shifting sands, while improvement of Blackwater Creek, Va., through construction of a deeper and broader channel, was declared not justified because of lack of local commerce.

Burleith Citizens Plan Yuletide Entertainment

Plans for the annual Christmas entertainment for the children of the Burleith section were made last night at a meeting of the Burleith Citizens Association. The entertainment will be held at the Gordon Junior High School December 19. A committee was also named to prepare the Christmas lighting of houses and lawns in the community.

Miss Mary L. Radford, of the Georgetown section of the Associated Charities, was a speaker at the meeting. The association voted to appropriate $10 from the treasury for the upkeep of the automobile used by the Georgetown section, and indorsed the elective school board plan for the District.

Court Building Worker Hurt.

A falling steam shovel bucket, loosed when a cable parted, yesterday seriously injured David Baker, colored, 28 years old, 223 Massachusetts avenue northwest, working in the excavation for the new Supreme Court Building on East Capitol street between First and Second streets. The man was taken to Casualty Hospital with a fractured right leg and hip.

RITCHIE SEES TRADE RISE IN COOPERATION

Presidential Candidate Tells Chicagoans Nation Needs Self-Reliance Aid.

Chicago, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—the key to better economic times was described by Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, tonight as "sincere and nonpolitical cooperation between business and Government."

In an address studded with homespun phrases, the Maryland executive, advanced as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President, sketched a picture of the "appalling extension of governmental actions in the field of private business" before the annual dinner of the Illinois Manufacturers Association. His subjace was "Public Business—Private Business."

"Here is the gist of all I am trying to say," Gov. Ritchie said. "Do not look to Government to do what it can not do. Do not look to politics to solve problems that it can not solve. It is not a larger measure of governmental regulation and control that is needed, so much as that really simple human agency that goes under the name of cooperation.

Cooperation Is Key.

"Sincere and nonpolitical cooperation between business and Government and Government and business, between business and the public, between the different units of business in their relation to field, factory and home.

"There is too much faith in Government as such, and too little in those self-operating social forces and ideals which among a free people can produce more progressive results than can any government.

"The movement toward government in almost every emergency or to cure almost every ill rests on a misconception of the nature of government."

The major political issue of the day was described by Gov. Ritchie as "this question of more power or less power in the central government, and its political and economic implications."

Gov. Murray Quoted.

"There is a deal of truth in the statement of Gov. Murray of Oklahoma, that 'civilization begins and ends with the plow, and that no government can stand without freedom for the farmer, both from physical and financial slavery,'" said the Maryland executive.

"Business, it seems to me, has always looked on movements like Populism, Bryanism and Murrayism, with too unsympathetic and fishy an eye. These sorts of movements spring from the soil, and have the strength of the soil. They reflect genuine grievances and aspirations, however fallacious may be their proposed remedies.

"There is a deal of symbolic meaning even in so homely a slogan as "Butter and bread, bacon and beans.'"

Car Loadings Decrease 94,696 During Week

(Associated Press.)

Revenue freight loadings for the week ended November 28 were announced yesterday by the American Railway Association as totaling 558,807 cars. This was a decrease of 94,696 cars below the preceding week and 142,243 below the corresponding week in 1930.

Miscellaneous freight totaled 195,389 cars, a decrease of 60,050 cars from the same week last year; merchandise, 177,033, a decrease of 17,726; grain and grain products, 29,592, decrease of 4,041; forest products, 19,840, decrease 12,255; ore, 4,190, decrease 1,583; coal, 104,451, decrease 43,366; coke, 4,741, decreaase 3,033; live stock, 23,571, decrease 189.

Padlock Is Sought After Liquor Raid

House at 2958 Northampton Street Would Be Closed One Year.

The Government moved yesterday to close for one year the premises at 2958 Northampton street northwest, where two weeks ago a large amount of liquor, some bearing the insignia of importation, was seized by police.

In a petition to close the house, Capt. Harold W. Orcutt, assistant United States attorney, said the place was a nuisance within the meaning of the prohibition law. The defendants are Max Cosman, Edwin H. Hertz and Van Rensselaer Jones, alleged occupants, and Fulton R. Gordon, owner.

The petition said that on November 24, police raided the house and took 5 kegs, 13 jugs, 7 half-gallon jars, 1,263 bottles, 2 five-gallon cases and 32 single gallon cases of liquor. Affidavits of Charles C. Brown and Miller K. Reading, policemen, were attached to the petition.

Farmers and Villagers Shopping in Washington

Farmers and residents of the smaller towns and villages within a radius of 35 miles of Washington have taken a greater advantage of the early Christmas opportunities offered by Washington merchants than ever before, Edward D. Shaw, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association, said yesterday.

A survey of the downtown stores shows a great increase in the number of holiday purchases made by out-of-town shoppers, Mr. Shaw announced. Local stores are being patronized by many residents of villages and farming communities which ordinarily do not make Washington their shopping center, due to the new hard-surface roads in Maryland and Virginia, Mr. Shaw said.

John Snure, of the Washington bureau of the New York Herald-Tribune, yesterday was elected chairman of the new standing committee of correspondents in charge of the Capitol press gallery, at an organization meeting of the committee.

John T. Suter, of the Associated Press, was elected secretary. A. W. Tracy, formerly a member of the press gallery, was appointed to fill a vacancy in the Senate press gallery superintendent's staff.

POST WILL SPONSOR TOY FUND THIS YEAR

Last year the Christmas Toy Fund started by The Washington Post reached the not inconsiderable proportions of $2,610.42. This fund was distributed through these agencies:

Associated Charities	$910.00
Christ Child Society	500.00
Salvation Army	148.00
Child Welfare Division	492.00
Neighborhood House	50.00
Noel House	50.00
Mother-Child Center	25.00
Washington Welfare Ass'n	25.00
American Legion	62.00
Boys Club	25.00
District Training School	185.00
Council of Social Agencies	88.42
Total	$2,610.42

Grateful letters came from these agencies telling of the joy that flooded hundreds of childish hearts when Santa Claus arrived, after all, last Christmas morning.

The faith of childhood in its patron saint is one of the few precious things left in the world. A surprising feature of the Christmas toy fund is how little it takes to make a child happy at Christmas time. By careful buying at wholesale rates, the agencies take care of each child's Christmas at a very reasonable price. The price of a theater ticket, a motion picture show or a ride down town in a taxi will bring Santa Claus to some poor little believer in him. Give in your own name, or give anonymously, just as you please. But put your own Merry Christmas and best wishes for some child into your gift. For, as the old saying goes, "The gift without the giver is bare."

Address all contributions to "The Christmas Toy Fund, The Washington Post, Washington, D. C." Each and every contribution, no matter what size it may be, will be acknowledged in the columns of this newspaper in a list printed from day to day.

There is no minimum amount in the Christmas toy fund. A nickel from every citizen would mean $24,000. "Many nickels make a muckle." Nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars have the same good habit of rolling up into dollars.

Unless you come to the rescue, all those dreams of dolls, skates, games and other toys which fill the children's hours of sleep just now are going to be just "dreams, after all," with tears on Christmas morning.

Children, no matter how poor, have worked hard on their scrawls to "Santa Claus," setting forth the wishes of childish hearts. These letters should be answered. Let there be no heartbreaks. Think of your own child, and give in his name.

The Christmas Toy Fund of The Washington Post is an appeal made simply to augment the relief work which the regularly organized charities have been doing. It is not a Community Chest proposition. If the Community Ghest and its affiliated organizations can take care of the material wants of those in distress it has done its full share, but children need happiness as well as food and clothing. No one in Washington can really enjoy the holiday season if he or she feels that somewhere in the National Capital a child is crying in disappointment on Christmas morning.

SONS OF REVOLUTION REELECT DR. GREEN

Patriotic Body Hears Talk on Changing Aspects of American Life.

Dr. Thomas Edward Green was reelected president of the Sons of the Revolution for the third consecutive time and the entire slate of last year's officers was chosen for another term at a meeting last night.

Other officers who were reelected are former Chief Justice Walter I. McCoy, first vice president; Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, second vice president; Edward K. Campbell, third vice president; Charles F. R. Ogilby, chancellor; Dr. James R. Mood, secretary for the third consecutive time; Maj. Edward F. Riggs, treasurer; Capt. Victor V. Martin, registrar, and the Rev. G. Freeland Peter, chaplain.

Newly elected members of the board of managers are Charles F. Diggs, Col. Frank S. Hight and Dwight Clark. Dr. Mood was named representative on the general council for the second time. The new marshal is Landra Beach Platt, while Benjamin Harlan was chosen associate marshal.

Capt. Robert Bennett was appointed chairman of the committee of stewards and Laurence Leonard historian. New members accepted were C. Adams Newcomb, jr., George Herbert Shaw, Walter Stanley DeLany, Edwin P. S. Newman and Grahame H. Powell.

Speaker at the meeting was Houston Thompson, former chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, who spoke on "The Road From Revolution." After pointing out change in many aspects of American life, he called attentton to the revolution in economic life and the dangers of economic concentration. This results in price-fixing, he said, but further legislation and public opinion are needed to stop it.

Examinations Are Set For Teacher Aspirants

Examinations for licenses to teach in the public white schools of the District will be held on Monday and Tuesday, December 21 and 22, and on Monday and Tuesday, March 28 and 29, at the Franklin Building.

On the first two days, examinations will be held in special subjects, and on the last two days on academic and scientific subjects. Examinations in the first subjects will be held for colored persons on Tuesday and Wednesday, December 22 and 23, and in the second class on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 29 and 30.

Corporation Income Tax Cut Asked in Aid Gifts

(Associated Press.)

To encourage corporations to contribute to unemployment relief funds, the Government asked Congress yesterday to permit the deduction of such gifts from income tax returns.

Secretary Mellon recommended deductions up to 15 per cent of the gross income tax of the corporation on donations made between July 1, 1931, and June 30, 1932. The Secretary pointed out that such a deduction is allowed individuals.

HINDENBURG SEES WAGES AND PRICES

of saving Germany from economic collapse, Bruening said it was necessary because (1) of the world economic crisis, (2) the enormous burden (reparations) imposed on Germany, and (3) the failure of the German people to recognize the nation's distress.

In issuing the decree the president appointed Mayor Karl Goebler of Leipzig as a "price dictator," empowered to regulate prices.

The president's measure, entitled "the fourth emergency decree to safeguard the economic life, finances, and internal peace," provided for:

1. Reduction of wages and salaries not to exceed 10 per cent, unless the wages have not been reduced since July 1, in which case it may be 15 per cent.
2. Reduction of prices of coal, iron, public utilities.
3. Reduction of rents by 10 to 12 per cent.
4. Reduction of rates of interest on public and private loans.
5. Heavy penalties for persons sending capital out of Germany.
6. Heavy penalties for political disturbances.

Interest Rates Cut.

Bruening's explanation to the people was made by radio. The Communist party in the Reichstag presented a motion in the steering committee to convene the Reichstag on December 15 in an effort to annul the emergency decree, but it was expected to fail.

The decree lowered prices of the so-called cartels, such as coal and iron, by 10 per cent as compared to July; lowered public utilities, railway and freight rates by 25 per cent; reduced rents 10 to 15 per cent and provided that Goebler should have power to lower any other prices.

The rates of interest will be cut 2 per cent to 6. If the rates are above 8 per cent they will be reduced one-quarter, unless they are above 12 per cent which requires a reduction of one-half.

Suppression of Disorders.

The "turnover tax" was increased 1.15 per cent to 2 per cent but will not apply to the handling of grain.

Punishment for causing "the flight of capital" from Germany will be a tax of 25 per cent on property. German citizens living abroad for the purpose of dodging taxes and who refuse to return within four months will be heavily taxed and subject to imprisonment when they do return.

The decree made definite provisions for suppression of political disorders. The government will have drastic powers to suppress secret handling of arms or munitions and to prohibit use of uniforms—such as the Fascist black shirts and the steel helmets—and to prevent mass meetings or slanderous attacks on public officials.

Rail Heads to Consider New Rate Ruling Friday

(Associated Press.)

Railroad executives will meet here Friday to consider the Interstate Commerce Commission's decision to permit an increase in rates without pooling returns for the benefit of weaker lines.

Several of the major roads had opposed the pooling provisions and advanced counter-proposals. The commission's action probably will meet with their approval. R. H. Aishton, general counsel of the Association of Railway Executives, announced yesterday that the meeting had been called.

PERU INAUGURATES OUSTED PRESIDENT

Lima, Peru, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Lieut. Col. Luis M. Sanchez Cerro, former provisional president, was inaugurated constitutional president of Peru today.

He returned to power amid the acclaim of a crowd that filled the streets, after having been depcsed as provisional president last March. This time he took office by virtue of popular election, whereas before he gained it by a revolution against former President Leguia.

The president and his cabinet were sworn in before the assembly shortly after noon, while army planes flew over Lima and Peruvian battleships at Callao fired a 21-gun salute. Then he reviewed the Lima garrison and received an ovation from the people, while women watched from the balconies and flowers rained down upon his carriage.

There were boos for the junta, headed by David Samanez Ocampo, which resigned the executive office just before the new president's inauguration. But there was no evidence of disturbances such as those which occurred recently in various parts of Peru, including a clash at Paijan, in which ten were reported killed yesterday.

The president-elect sat alone on the left of the speaker's desk, in front of his political opponents, the Apristas and Socialists, during the inaugural ceremonies.

Grooms Escapes Hurts As Auto Is Overturned

Private William C. Grooms, reinstated Saturday after his acquittal on a charge of assaulting a prisoner at the First Precinct station, escaped injury last night when his automobile was overturned at Delaware avenue and I street southwest. Private John Birch, also of the First Precinct, who was riding with Grooms, was cut and bruised about the shoulder and arm and was treated at Emergency Hospital. He returned to duty, however.

William Justice, colored, 26 years old, of 722 Third street northwest, was taken to the First Precinct station by Grooms and Birch and charged with unauthorized use of an automobile, leaving after colliding, driving without a District permit, and driving while drunk. The car driven by Justice also was overturned.

Librarian's Wife Robbed Of $65 by Bold Footpad

Mrs. Lillie E. Nickles, of 3009 Rodman street northwest, wife of the assistant librarian of the Geological Survey, lost articles valued at $65.38 to a man who snatched her purse in broad daylight yesterday.

Mrs. Nickles told police she was walking along Connecticut avenue between Porter and Rodman streets northwest when a tall man approached her. He snatched the purse and leaped into an automobile, which she said was piled high with clothes, and driven by an accomplice, and escaped. Her loss included $1.39 in cash, a $60 wrist watch and a $4 purse.

PAY CUTS PROPOSED IN HOUSE MEASURE

The attack on the salary of Government employes, incidentally, finds the heretofore strong National Federation of Federal Employes under direct attack by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, who has announced that his organization will launch a new Government employes' union inasmuch as the National Federation of Federal Employes has voted to sever its affiliation from the American Federation of Labor.

The beginning of the salary fight pushed into the background the effort of Mr. Green to unseat Luther C. Steward, president, and Miss Gertrude McNally, secretary-treasurer, of the National Federation of Federal Employes, because of their leadership in the separation movement. That fight was the subject of a conference between federation officers held last night at the Y. W. C. A., in the course of which Mr. Steward declared that the officers of the A. F. of L. had "ruthlessly sacrificed the best interests" of the Government workers.

Even the most optimistic of the leaders of the organized Government employes, however, recognize the warm battle which was begun with the introduction of the Rich bill. Members of both parties in both House and Senate have confessed privately that they are fearful that they shall be compelled to vote for measures which would reduce Government salaries if such measures included a provision for reduction of their own salaries.

The Rich bill to reduce Government pay, however, was only one of scores introduced in the House concerning Government employes. These ranged from the proposal of Mr. Rich to a bill proposed by Representative Anthony Griffin (Democrat), of New York, providing for medals of honor for Government employes in the scientific service who risked their lives beyond the ordinary call of duty.

Representative Clyde Kelly (Republican), of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill providing for leave with pay for substitute postal employes, and Representative Addison T. Smith (Republican), of Idaho, introduced a bill dealing with leave of absence for executives and employes in the Government employ. Representative James M. Fitzpatrick (Democrat), of New York, introduced bills providing for a 44-hour-work week for Federal employes and for a weekly pay day for postal employes. Representative Milton C. Garber (Republican), of Oklahoma, introduced a bill helpfully defining the work year of substitute watchmen, laborers and other minor Government employes. Representative Clark Burdick (Republican), of Rhode Island, introduced a bill providing for compensation of Government employes injured in the performance of duties. Representative John J. Cochran (Democrat), of Missouri, introduced a bill providing for retirement of officers and employes of the legislative branch of the Government. Representative Tom D. McKeown (Democrat), of Oklahoma, introduced a bill providing for old-age and disability pensions.

Representative Fiorella H. LaGuardia (Republican), of New York, who was the victorious champion of the Government employes in the closing session of the last Congress, introduced a bill amending the retirement law, as did Representative Smith, of Idaho, and others. Representative Frank Oliver (Democrat), of New York, introduced a bill providing for a board to try charges against employes in first-class postoffices.

All of the measures were referred to committees from which most will never be reported, but out of the many undoubtedly will come several which will be enacted into law before the close of the current Congress.

DEATH BAFFLES

INQUEST TO BE TODAY IN STUDENT'S DEATH

who was aroused by the noise, visited Callahan's room and he was missing. All other students in the building were in their rooms and were asleep, Father Cassidy said.

"The voice I heard was very declarative and sounded like a drunken man. I thought some drunk from the streets had entered the building," Father Cassidy said. He was certain that he heard only one voice.

Father Cassidy aroused Joseph O'Leary, a lay prefect, and together they searched the building. Callahan was missing and they concluded that he had gone to the city for the night.

In Callahan's room, Detective Sergts. Truscott and Murphy found a bottle which had apparently contained gin. They learned that the bottle had been in Callahan's room for almost 48 hours before his death.

An autopsy performed on the body by Deputy Coroner C. J. Murphy revealed that death was caused by a fracture of the skull, four broken ribs, a ruptured liver and a pierced right lung. Dr. Murphy expressed the opinion that the injuries were caused by a fall "from some height."

Other than a bruise over his right eye, a dislocated left thumb and a slight laceration on the left shin, there was no external evidence of his injuries, Dr. Murphy said. With the exception of the leg and thumb injuries, all his injuries were on his right side.

The opinion of members of the Homicide Squad is that Callahan, while running to the steps, tripped and fell. His head was resting on the upper steps in a pool of blood, which had poured from his nose, ears and mouth, as a result of the head and internal injuries.

He was fully clothed when found at 6:40 yesterday morning by John Davis, of Norfolk, Va., a student at the university. His clothes were not disarranged. His right eye, near the point of the skull fracture, was slightly discolored.

Callahan's room fronts on the Michigan avenue side of the sleeping quarters. The body was found on the campus side of the hall.

The student was seen at 11 o'clock when Dr. O'Leary made his nightly check of the students. E. J. Keating, another student of the university, through Father Cassidy, denied he heard Callahan talking with another student about midnight.

Callahan's right shoe was found 20 feet from his body. It is thought that the shoe, which was loosely laced or may have been forced from his foot by the impact of a fall from above.

Callahan's home was in Little Falls, N. Y. He was the son of Humphrey Callahan, an employe of the American Railway Express Co. He was graduated from St. Mary's High School. In addition to his father, he is survived by a brother and three sisters.

Mary Roach Rites To Be Held Today

Nephew to Say Mass and Six Grandnephews to Be Pallbearers.

Miss Mary R. Roach, who died Sunday, will be buried today in Mount Olivet Cemetery after a solemn requiem mass at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at 10 a. m. Miss Roach was born in Washington in 1844 and was the daughter of Edward and Katherine Roach. Her father was the last register of wills to hold that position for life. She was the niece of Thomas Carbery, sixth Mayor of Washington, and the sister of Senator W. A. Roach, of North Dakota.

Miss Roach was a clerk in the Treasury Department 57 years, being one of the first women to be employed there. She was vice president at the Trinity College board. Her death was at the home of her nephew, Charles T. Roach, in Friendship Heights.

The mass today will be celebrated by her nephew, the Rev. Edward Roach, of St. Mathew's Church. Six grandnephews will be pallbearers.

MISS ANNA FRENCH DIES.

Funeral of Former Massachusetts Resident to Be Tomorrow.

Miss Anna Tapley French, 73 years old, died yesterday after a brief illness at her home, 1401 Fairmont street northwest. She lived with a sister, Mrs. Sarah N. Gray.

Funeral services for Miss French, who came here from Massachusetts about five years ago, will be held tomorrow at the W. W. Chambers funeral parlors, 1400 Chapin street northwest, at 11 a. m. Interment will be private. Miss French is survived locally by a niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harrison Hickman, of 2877 Audobon Terrace northwest, and by Mrs. Gray.

SALVATORE MONACO RITES.

Funeral of Retired Grocer Will Be Held Tomorrow Morning.

Funeral services for Salvatore Monaco, retired grocer, who died Monday, will be held tomorrow from his home at 123 D street southeast, beginning at 8:30 a. m. A requiem mass will be said at Holy Rosary Church, Third and F streets northwest, at 9 a. m., and interment will follow in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mr. Monaco was 73 years old and had been a resident of this city for many years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Angelina Monaco; six daughters, Mrs. Mary V. Soper, Mrs. Joseph Costantino, Mrs. L. D. Lietz and Patsy, Anna and Antoinette Monaco; five sons, Joseph, John, Laurence, Francis and Salvatore, jr., all of this city.

VETERANS ARE HERE TO PLEAD FOR CASH

After a "blind baggage" trek across the continent from Seattle, Wash., eighteen World War veterans strode into the southern environs of Washington late yesterday afternoon bearing a petition with 45,000 signatures indorsing their plea to Congress for full payment of the soldier's bonus.

The grim but orderly file of veterans came in from Alexandria, Va., after receiving suspended sentences in police court there on convictions of trespassing on railroad property. They were arrested in the Southern railway yards there early in the afternoon and given a hearing before Police Judge John Brookfield, who sentenced them to 30 days' imprisonment and then suspended the penalty after hearing the veterans' story of their mission.

Jeered on Departure.

Several hours before the 1,500 hunger marchers left in their caravans of trucks, and as they crossed the District line on the silence which had prevailed between police and the marchers broke. Jeers were hurled at the escorting policemen as the hunger demonstrators passed out of the District and answering shouts went back from the policemen. Regular policeman on duty at the bridge directed the former service men to the Salvation Army, where arrangements had been made for caring for them.

Only 45 trucks carried the "hunger marchers" out of the city, drivers of the other 26 having left in disgust because of nonpayment of their fees. Public opinion in Washington generally was that the visit of the marchers had been handled in an especially satisfatcory manner by Brig. Gen. Pelham D. Glassford, who has been chief of police but three weeks.

Plan Conference Today.

The eighteen veterans arriving yesterday planned a conference this morning with another group of 33 veterans which arrived here last week from Portland, Oreg., on a similar mission.

All of the former service men arriving yesterday were from Seattle, Wash., and started out for the Capitol on November 13. Their petition originally carried the signatures of 25,000 persons in Seattle, Tacoma, Everett and other Washington State towns. On the way here 20,000 more names were added, it was said. The spokesman for this group is James L. Weir, of Seattle.

Sunday afternoon those from Portland group plan to visit Arlington National Cemetery, where a wreath will be laid on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. They will be accompanied by the Drum and Bugle Corps of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Civic Association Installs Officers

Havenner Conducts Rites at Bloomingdale and Makes Address.

Officers of the Bloomingdale Civic Association, meeting last night in the auditorium of the Tabor Presbyterian Church, were installed by Dr. George C. Havenner, president of the Federation of Citizens Associations, who was introduced by Dr. George H. Richardson, president of the Federation of Civic Associations. Woolsey W. Hall, member of the newly reorganized advisory council, was master of ceremonies.

Dr. Havenner advised members of the association to look beyond the boundaries of their community at the larger problems confronting citizens of the District, not only as they affect colored citizens, but also as they affect the betterment of white citizens.

M. O. Eldridge, assistant traffic director, gave a history of the traffic department and its methods in arriving at the best methods for prevention of accidents.

Officers installed were Mrs. Jacqueline Cuney, president; E. T. Hawkins, first vice president; Joseph G. Logan, second vice president; Samuel D. Matthews, third vice president; Edith M. Matthews, recording secretary; Edward F. Harris, corresponding secretary; Edward W. Crump, treasurer; the Rev. R. A. Fairley, chaplain; N. T. Weddington, sergeant at arms.

Ingalls Calls Firemen For Blaze in His Home

Firemen early yesterday morning were called to the home of David S. Ingalls, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, at 3225 Woodley road northwest, to extinguish a fire which had started in the cellar.

Assistant Secretary Ingalls discovered the fire and put in a call for assistance. Firemen found the fire had started in some boxes in the basement. The fire was quickly smothered with the aid of hand extinguishers. The damage was slight.

MRS. JOSEPH PHOEBUS DIES

Funeral Will Be Conducted in Gaithersburg Tomorrow.

Mrs. Joseph Phoebus died yesterday in Sibley Hospital after a long illness resulting from complications, which set in after a fall. Her death came just a week after the death of her brother, Frank Ebbitt, who made his home with her in Gaithersburg, Md.

Mrs. Phoebus is survived by her husband. She was an active worker in the Methodist Church at Gaithersburg. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home in Gaithersburg.

WOMAN TO ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY GUNMAN

Roadhouse Shooting Victim Released to Make Trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Verne Edwards, one of the wounded in the Bladensburg roadhouse shooting November 23, will go to Philadelphia today to try to identify Peter Abbott as a member of the gang which first held up and then shot up the Colonial Tea House.

Mrs. Edwards will be accompanied by Detective William Feehley, of Baltimore, who has been investigating the case. She was released from the District Jail yeaterday and returned to Baltimore with the detective. Norman Garrey, another of the injured, was also released and was taken to Hyattsville Jail to await questioning. Detective Cornelius Roche, Detective Feehley's partner, is expected to quiz the man today.

Mrs. Edwards was released on her personal bond by Needham C. Turnage, United States commissioner, after approval by the Department of Justice. She is wanted by Federal agents as a witness against several men arrested for violation of the Mann act. Both she and Garrey were moved to the jail from Casualty Hospital several days ago when they began to recover from their injuries.

Garrey was held at the jail as a fugitive from Maryland justice. He waived extradition and accompanied Prince Georges County policemen to Hyattsville. His escorts were Sergt. H. G. Machen and Constable Howard Slater.

Abbott was arrested by Philadelphia police after the Maryland authorities had investigated activities of Thomas Simone, another of the injured, who is supposed to be a member of the bandit gang. A picture of Abbott has already been identified as one of the five men whose barrage of bullets killed one and wounded five.

The other injured are still in Washington, one of them at the District Jail, and the other two in Gallinger Municipal Hospital under police guard. Charles Leavitt, manager of the place, is at the jail, while Simone and Felix Bocchicchio, alias "Man o' War," are at Gallinger.

Georgetown Woodmen Elect Rhodes Consul

New officers of Georgetown Camp No. 12560, Modern Woodmen of America, were elected Monday night at a meeting held in the American Legion hall, 3265½ M street northwest.

Those elected were W. G. Rhodes, consul; John S. Greens, advisor; S. E. Upperman, banker; James H. McIntyre, clerk; W. Roy Heft, escort; John D. Pope, watchman; Carroll V. Payne, sentry, and John A. Trunnell, Edward W. Howard and H. B. Pope, trustees. Thomas J. Carroll was the retiring consul.

Bicentennial Body Indorses Stamps

Stickers Inviting Visitors to Capital May Be Sold on Conditions.

Under certain conditions, the sale of bicentennial stamps has been approved by the District Bicentennial Commission, which at first approved, later disapproved, and now again indorses the stickers.

The conditions are that the stamps be sold for not more than $5 per 1,000, and that it be made clear that the commission does not benefit by their sale. The stickers are for the purpose of inviting visitors to Washington during the celebration next year. Similar stamps advertising Norfolk, Roanoke, and Richmond have been printed and placed on sale.

The stamps were originated by Soterios Nicholson, Washington patent attorney, and were sold for $10 a thousand at first. At this time the commission was to receive 20 per cent of their sale price. This agreement to share in the proceeds has been terminated, however.

U. S. Gets Postponement In 'White Slave' Case

Philadelphia, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The hearing of Cisberto Renzulli, one of four men accused of violation of the Mann act in connection with the operations of a ring believed to spread over three States, was postponed today until December 29.

The Government asked a three weeks' postponement pending the recovery of several of its principal witnesses from wounds received in a shooting affray in a roadhouse at Bladensburg, Md., near Washington, in which one man was killed and five persons wounded.

Renzulli was arrested here in connection with that case and later released. He was rearrested, however, on the Mann act charge and held in $5,000 bail.

Powell School Group to Meet.

A demonstration by teachers of the eighth grade section will be presented at a meeting of the Powell Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association tonight at 8 o'clock. Lester T. Walter, principal, will speak. Mrs. E. B. Fristoe, chairman of the eighth grade section, will preside.

Garner's Mother, 80, Tells Of Early Life in Log Cabin

Detroit, Tex., Dec. 8 (U.P.).—John Garner, bluff, white-haired Texan, elected to speakership of the House of Representatives, always was a "good boy," his 80-year-old mother, Mrs. Sarah Garner, recalled today as she received congratulations on his latest honor.

"He always will be just John to me," she said. She sat before an open fireplace in the home of her married daughter and talked of the days when she was young and John was born in a little log cabin halfway between here and Blossom Prairie.

The log cabin is gone now. Blossom Prairie is criss-crossed with fences. The Garner children and the seven orphans she adopted and reared are all grown. Her husband, Jack Garner, Red River County pioneer, has been dead for ten years.

"I would have liked to have been in Washington yesterday when Congress started with my John in the Speaker's chair, but I believe I prefer to be here," she said. She pointed to the log fire before her.

"It made me happy to realize it was all true when I heard it over the radio. But it won't change John one bit. He always was a good boy."

Mrs. [illegible] makes her home with Mrs. Maude Blair, one of her children. The others are Jesse and Jolly Garner, her sons, and Mrs. John R. Wright, another married daughter.

Mrs. Garner believes she would rather live in her first home, the little log cabin once located ten miles south of here, if everything could be like it was when John was a vigorous youngster and the others children were growing up.

John Garner's fondness for baseball was recalled by R. J. Easley, business man and boyhood friend of the Democratic leader. He told of a game in which Garner aided Blossom and Coon Soup Hollow players against the Possum Trout team.

Mrs. Garner laughed at that.

"Yes, I remember Coon Soup Hollow and some of the baseball games John liked so well as a boy," Mrs. Garner said. "I remember the games frequently ended in big fights.

"John left home 45 years ago after he had practiced law in Clarksville for a while. He went to Uvalde, where he thought his chances for success would be better, but I kept the other children near where I could look after them."

Jail Guard, 69, Injured Trying to Balk Escape

A guard at the District Jail yesterday suffered a fractured shoulder and abrasions about the legs when he halted an attempt of a prisoner, working at the Occoquan Wharf, 645 I street southwest, to escape. The guard, John A. Francis, 69 years old, of Cherrydale, Va., was thrown down when he got in the man's way.

Jail authorities said the guard was injured by James Blay, 17 years old, colored, who had fifteen more days to serve on an attempted larceny sentence. Blay was among a group of prisoners who were sent under command of Mr. Francis to work on the wharf. The guard was taken to Emergency Hospital.

Auto of Judge's Wife Stolen; Found in Hour

The automobile of Mrs. Church Terrell, wife of Judge Church Terrell, colored, Municipal Court judge, was recovered by Detective Sergt. Frank M. Alligood yesterday morning less than an hour after it was stolen from the garage in the rear of the Terrell home at 1615 S street northwest. James Long, 18 years old, colored, of 441 M street northwest, was driving the machine when Alligood espied it on Georgia avenue northwest, near Euclid street.

Long was charged with unauthorized use of an automobile and later with carrying a concealed weapon, when a long-blade pocket knife was found in his possession.

Wallace Twinchell On WASHINGTON'S Broadway

With Profuse Apologies to Walter Winchell

HEH, HEH, just heard tell the yarn about four naturalized blondies who are out shadowing four pompous Wall Street misfits. It seems that in these days of D. P. (depression) that one good Uncle is not eough to keep Mother Hubbard's cupboard replenished.

There's one Broadway satellite that has turned out to be a "Good Sport" in these days of the rise and fall of the Roman Empire. Besides keeping one blonde wife on a Long Island estate, he is keeping one of Park Avenue's most luscious blondes well supplied with new furniture, cars and apartments. The joke is that the Good Samaritan has been married for five years and the pretty battleaxe still trusts him.

'TWAS at a party "tother" night when a Park Avenue highbrow, out for a bit of "relaxation" tipped a glass of wine on his sweetie's dress. Said friend began yelling for five hundred smackers for a new gown and when turned down cold became impossible and went "raw" in front of everyone. Did her "Good Sport" boy friend come across quick. Just get an eyefull of that new piece of chiffon when she "ankles" in on the party.

How much does a gold digger dig, and what kind of tools does she use? Just ask that great big, husky, he man Long Island importer (of beautiful women) whose "Good Sport" habits and distribution of "handouts" to the fairer sex have made him the "greatest sucker" in the fast and furious fifties.

The wife of one of the most liked (and sought after) men about town ankled into a swellelegant "speaky" the other night, "gargled" too much "giggle soup" and impolitely worked up a "laughing jag." The millstone about her neck happened to be in Paris (with his girl friend) so her new boy friend dragged her home and put her to bed, leaving immediately. And they "stew" prunes.

WHAT HAPPENS when a beautiful wife wakes up to find her "trustie" out playing around with the lilies of the field? And you ask me, just a struggling columnist trying to eke out a living. Find out for yourself—that's what I had to do.

Diversion seekers. "Good Sport" at the Fox starting Friday. A swell elegant "pitcher" with some of the most beautiful (and sensuous) blondies the "flickers" have ever brought together. And look out for John (High C) Boles, Linda (Baby Face) Watkins and that wise cracking kidder of them all, Minna Gombell

The rush for the "gold canyon" is on. The wife of the "Good Sport" finding her bread and board fooling around, stepped out while he was in Paris (with his femme de monde) and gave the Parkway "gold diggers" a lesson on how to "dig a little deeper." The joke's on her though, for she fell for the "boy friend" like a ton of soft coal sliding down the chute into the furnace room.

THE "railbirds" have put in reservation for reserved seats along Washington's "main stem" and will be giving Earl (come on) Sande plenty of two dollar bets when he "pulls" his horse (my error, his Four Horsemen) up in front of the Fox Theatre on December 18—A. D. 1931. Odds are even that he "knocks" them off the cushions. Lady I've played him too often and know that he's good—H . . ., I mean perfect.

Here's a wise one straight from the shoulder. Les Stevens, who is holding forth between the "pit" and the stage of the Fox was recently playing in a "swellelegant" hotenhell when a big shot from up state ankled over and offered him a job . . . going so far as to plank down the cash. They arrived there, were met by a "gold braided" chauffeur, "totted" to a hotel and relaxed. Twenty-four hours and three seconds later they started on their new job. Forty-eight hours and five seconds later they found they were working in an exclusive "gamblin" joint. Was Les and The Diplomats scared. Ask them what the "payoff" was.

THINGS I never knew till now. That Linda Watkins is a close relative of many noted men, including Professor Michelson of "cosmic ray" fame, and Major Dugmore, the explorer. John Boles taught French in a girls' academy while studying to become a singer. Tee Hee. Allan Dinehart received his boyhood education in what at that time was known as the toughest town in the country—Butte, Montana. No wonder he can play the villainous lover on the screen. Greta Nissen is a friend and protege of the Queen of Denmark. That makes me a step son to the King of Siam. That "Good Sport" at the Fox Theatre beginning Friday is the best "red hot" picture seen on the "chinema" screen since the Santa Claus decorations have been put up and the annual bargain sales have started. That Hedda Hopper, in addition to her dramatic ability is rated as one of the most successful realty operators in "Hollywood." Sure wish I could unload my "underwater" lots to her. That Minna Gombell owned her own stock companies in half a dozen cities in this grand old country of prohibition and speakeasies before she entered "pitchers." That Claire Maynard is frequently mistaken for Joan Bennett and Greta (Tank Youse) Garbo. That Weldon Heyburn is one of the most expert divers in the country (as a matter of fact the cities too). That Kenneth McKenna, who directed "Good Sport" started life in the banking business and was once private secretary to Otto (Metropolitan Opera) Kahn.

An affluential citizen (wealthy guy to youse) is having "girl trouble," a pretty blonde with a Danish lingo. And is she taking him for a "bus ride." Did I say Allan Dinehart and Greta Nissen?

Dorothy Dix, Beatrice Fairfax, Mrs. Ferguson and all the others never told a wife how to go out and learn how gold diggers dig. For the ways and means of keeping the "gold standard" up to par just send a self addressed envelope (and don't forget the stamp) to Minna Gombell, Claire Maynard, Ethel Kenyon, Sally Blane, Betty Francisco, Joyce Compton and Greta Nissen, care of Fox Theatre. Frends and citizens, these "Good Sports" know more about gold than the Honorable Andrew (Treasury) Mellon.

BED TIME stories. Once upon a time there was an engineer (who started out to be a singer) who fell for a kind wife out "playing around." She fell for him, in a big way. When her domesticated "butter and egg" man returned from abroad he got sore. His sweetie got sore . . . and in fact the whole d . . n family got sore. She (the millstone) told him a few things about "home loving atmosphere" and now she is wearing a four carat sparkler, an unimportant gift from the engineer . . . the husband has his sweetie and apartment back and "everybody's happy." And they talk about "Good Sports" in these here trying days.

If it's music you want to lend your ear to, run over to the corner music store and hear George (Rhapsody in Blue) Gershwin's newest "brain child." He calls it "A Rhapsody in Rivets" and I can pass the word down to my friendly aunts and uncles (who would disinherit me if they had four dollars and ninety-nine cents) that here is a musical score that will sit on the king's throne for a long time.

Fox "pitchers" just sent in a panting (out of breath) messenger with the glad tidings that "Delicious" at the Fox Theatre Xmas week is "gwine" to be a gala one. It's a sure bet that this flicker is going to stand them in the aisles. There's Janet Gaynor and Charlie (Virginia Valli) Farrell in the cast. There's El (1 bane from Visconsin) Brendel, Manya Roberti and Lord knows who else. Georgie Gershwin tuned the melodies . . . Guy Bolton the story . . . and you should hear the music. Ah Ha, and by the way (whichever direction it may be) Gaynor sings, Brandel sings, a few others sing and here's betting that you'll go out singing yourself.

A LOVE missive from the "male" man. Dear Walter Winchell: Only the words of a maestro like yourself could describe "Good Sport" to patrons of the Fox Theatre. You coined them and how the folks are "taking it on the chin." Man they love it and how. Will you pardon us for trespassing on your private property. You started . . . we took a stab at it . . . but boy you'll surely finish it.

BRADEN TO MANAGE ARLINGTON COUNTY

Hopewell Official Is Selected by Board From Total of 50 Applicants.

ARLINGTON COUNTY BUREAU OF THE POST.
Tel. Clar. 509. Clarendon, Va.

Roy Braden, city manager of Hopewell, Va., since 1924, will become county manager of Arlington County on January 1, 1932, it was announced yesterday after an executive session of the county board-elect.

Mr. Braden, whose salary will be $7,000 a year, will be the first county manager in the country. He was the unanimous choice of the board after it had personally interviewed more than 30 of the 50 applicants.

The following statement was issued after the executive meeting yesterday, which was held at the home of Member-elect Mrs. Elizabeth B. Magruder:

"In selecting Mr. Braden as our first county manager, we feel that we have placed Arlington County in the best possible position to go forward, and are initiating the new form of government under the most favorable auspices available. Mr. Braden combines all the desirable elements we had hoped to secure in a county manager. With a remarkable background as an engineer and administrator, many years of successful city management, and fortified by a high degree of resourcefulness and tact, he brings to us experience and personality which may well be the envy of larger jurisdictions."

Selection of a county manager to run its affairs is the second major political experiment in Arlington County in the last three years. In 1927 the county tried the plan of owning and operating its own water system. The present venture, however, is considered far more radical. In the recent election the change to a manager form of government received the largest majority ever cast in the county.

The man who will head the executive and administrative branches of the county machinery after January 1 was born in Cooksburg, Pa., in 1885. When 23 years old he wa graduated from college, and was at once appointed superintendent of schools in Barnett Township, Pa. He was appointed county engineer shortly afterward.

Later he held an executive position in the government of Kane, Pa., but left this post in 1918 to become division engineer of construction for the United States Steel Corporation. In 1924 he became first city manager of Hopewell. In the last seven years, under his management, the city's valuation has increased from $15,000,000 to more than $60,000,000, while the tax rate has declined from $2.25 to $1.47.

A. F. Jackson Elected By Hillsdale Citizens

Allen F. Jackson was elected president of the Hillsdale Citizens Association last night at a meeting in Birney School, Nichols avenue and Howard road southeast.

Others elected were Miss E. V. Smith, vice president; J. H. Dale, jr., secretary; William Wills, treasurer; the Rev. William Tripp, chaplain, and the Rev. J. B. Ashton, Mr. Jackson, Robert Mason, Miss Smith and Mrs. Helen Wills, delegates to the Federation of Citizens Associations.

4 Policemen Guard Anti-Red Speaker

Sixteenth Street Citizens Hear Attack Upon Communism.

Four policemen, two in uniform and two in plain clothes, were assigned to protect Maj. Alex M. Lochwitzky, former Russian count, when he addressed the Sixteenth Street Heights Citizens Association last night at the Northminister Chapel, Alaska avenue and Kalmia road northwest, on "The Menace of Communism."

John H. Wilson, president of the association, said that he knew nothing of this action of the police until he approached one of the policemen at the meeting place. The policeman told him, he said, that he had heard "the hunger marchers' side of the argument at the Washington Auditorium and now wanted to hear the other side." The men finally admitted that they had been sent "to guard" the speaker, Mr. Wilson said.

The association adopted a resolution asking that poles on Georgia avenue beyond Brightwood be removed. Winner of second place in the Christmas lighting contest last year, the association voted to make every effort to win first place this year.

POLLARD ORDERS AID IN BUS LICENSE ROW

THE WASHINGTON POST BUREAU.
907 Prince St., Alexandria, Va.
Phone Alexandria 523.

Attempt of the Alexandria-Washington Buses, Inc., to procure a permanent injunction restraining the Virginia motor vehicle division from interfering with interstate operation will be fought by the State of Virginia, it was announced last night at Richmond.

Gov. Pollard presented the papers in the case to Attorney General Saunders, who will represent the State at the hearing in the United States District Court of the Eastern District of Virginia here Friday.

The bus line, together with other interstate carriers, is now operating without a State license or certificate of authority, under a temporary injunction.

In the United States Court yesterday Judge Luther B. Way presiding, Charles Howard was fined $350 on one count and $250 on another for violations of the prohibition law. Willie Nelson was given 60 days in jail on a liquor charge but James Sillex, Irving Hicks and Sidney B. Smith, indicted in similar cases, were acquitted and George Elliott's case was dismissed.

In the civil case of the United States against Ella Myers judgment for $8.55 was given by the court.

Court was adjourned in the early afternoon and will convene at 10 o'clock this morning when seven naturalization cases will be heard.

Annual ladies' night of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, No. 22, A. F. and A. M., will be this evening at the George Mason Hotel, with a dinner followed by a program of entertainment and dancing.

Arlington Club Offers Prize in Seals Contest

The Business and Professional Woman's Club of Arlington County announced yesterday that it is offering a prize of $2.50 to the boy or girl in the county public schools up to the sixth grade for the most attractive package using Christmas seals.

Judges will be selected from the Creative Arts Club of Arlington County.

Federal Detective School Projected

Romjue Asks Congress to Establish Course of Training Here.

Washington would have a policemen's training school, maintained by the Government and patronized by aspiring sleuths from all over the country, under a bill introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Milton A. Romjue (Democrat), Missouri.

Mr. Romjue wants to establish the school in one of the local Government buildings, and create a faculty of men trained in combatting crime, under a director, drawing a salary of $7,500 a year. A certificate or diploma would be conferred on graduation.

"If physicians and surgeons must go to school, certainly these other men whom we entrust with our lives should receive equivalent training," he commented last night. "It would not be compulsory that the District draw its policemen from the school."

SACKS IS INDORSED FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Financier to Be Successor to Mrs. Walter Perry in Montgomery.

Montgomery County Bureau of The Post, 9103 Conn. Ave., North Chevy Chase, Md. Telephone Wisconsin 4206.

George P. Sacks, Washington and Bethesda financier, has been indorsed by Democratic leaders of Bethesda, Md., for appointment to the vacancy on the Montgomery County, Md., school board caused by the recent death of Mrs. Walter Perry. The announcement was made last night by Dr. Benjamin C. Perry, president of the Montgomery Government Club of Bethesda.

It is understood the decision to support Mr. Sacks was reached some time ago, but was not announced until Mr. Sacks decided he could devote the necessary time to the school board duties.

In addition to his activities in the civic and business life of Montgomery County since he took up residence here in 1915, Mr. Sacks has been active in Washington business. Until 1924 he was chairman of the board of directors of the Chapin-Sacks Corporation, one of the pioneer ice cream businesses, which grew to an institution with resources of approximately $10,000,000 and operated in eight different States. He retired from this business in 1924, although he has continued his active participation in the affairs of the Bank of Washington, of which he is a director and vice president, and as president of the Bank of Bethesda, Md. He has been active in the Bethesda Chamber of Commerce and in the Montgomery County Civic Federation, of which he is a member of the executive committee. He also is a member of the board of zoning appeals for Montgomery County and is vice chairman of the Bethesda Montgomery Government Club. He has been active in real estate development in Bethesda.

His recommendation by the organization group is considered tantamount to his appointment by Gov. Albert C. Ritchie.

Yuletide Program Featured by Club

Rev. Ernest W. Aaron Talks to Women's Group in Alexandria.

The Rev. Ernest W. Aaron, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, of Alexandria, spoke at the December meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club last night at the George Mason Hotel when a Christmas program was featured. Violin selections were given by Miss Grace Powell, accompanied by Miss Anne Smith. Mrs. Albert M. Briggs led in singing Christmas carols, and Miss Elizabeth Ramey was in charge of the Christmas program.

Mrs. Mary W. Troth, public relations chairman of the club, said the Red Cross roll call sponsored by the club had obtained $915.25. She thanked the members of her committee, Miss Alice Gronau, Mrs. Helen V. Reed, Miss Catherine Johnson, Miss Bertha Allison, Mrs. Lily Cunningham, Miss Alice Whitton, Mrs. Ashby Elmore and Miss Eleanor Watkins and also Mrs. L. C. Tull, who is not a club member, for her work in Potomac, and members of the American Legion Auxiliary who assisted in the campaign.

Sidewalk Job Is Let At Chevy Chase Club

Contract for construction of a sidewalk on the west side of Connecticut avenue between Melrose street and Bradley lane was awarded to John J. Grolig, by the citizens committee of Section 2, Chevy Chase, Md. The Grolig firm's bid of $2,163 was lowest of five offered. The work is to begin next week and be completed within two weeks.

The sidewalk, in front of the Chevy Chase Club, is to be of hard surfaced brick. Ralph W. Berry, 7005 Meadow lane, was selected to make a survey of cost of reconstructing sidewalks in Section 2 and parts of Section 1. The survey is to be completed in February and will be studied by counsel to the committee, Paul Sleman, for presentation at annual meeting of Section 2 in April.

Man Jailed for Striking His Mother-in-Law

Arch Pearson, resident of Poolesville, Md., was sentenced to serve three months in the Maryland House of Correction yesterday by Judge Robert B. Peter, in Montgomery County Circuit Court, at Rockville, Md. A jury upheld a previous conviction in County Police Court on charges of assaulting his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. Beall.

Pearson is alleged to have struck Mrs. Beall while intoxicated. He and his wife had lived with Mrs. Beall for some time following the burning down of the Pearson home.

FIREMEN HELPLESS AS OLD INN BURNS

Water Lack Leads to End of House Owned by Former Senator.

"Ye Olde Homestead Inn," a 73-year-old house, owned by former Senator Furnifold M. Simmons, of North Carolina, on the Baltimore boulevard near Muirkirk, was destroyed by fire yesterday when five fire companies were unable to fight the flames because of lack of water.

Mr. Simmons has not occupied the building for several years. The occupants, Mrs. M. K. Coates and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Holland, have operated it as a tourist home. They were not at home yesterday when the fire broke out, having come to Washington.

The fire was discovered by William Conway, colored, a tenant on the place, who saw flames leaping from the roof near one of the chimneys. After searching the house to warn the occupants he thought still there, Conway notified the fire department.

Engines from Laurel, Berwyn Heights, Branchville, Hyattsville and Company No. 26 from Washington answered the call, but could find no water nearby. The firemen managed to remove most of the furniture, however. The house contained 14 rooms and was surrounded by elaborately landscaped grounds.

Gaithersburg Span Plaint Is Presented

Citizens Ask County Board to Investigate Hazard of Poor Lighting.

Mayor William McBain and Otho C. Trundle headed a delegation of Gaithersburg, Md., residents before Montgomery County commissioners at Rockville yesterday to petition better lighting for the overhead bridge and its approaches at Gaithersburg.

The bridge spans tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and recently was constructed by the Maryland State Roads Commission to eliminate a grade crossing. Residents said approaches and the bridge itself are so insufficiently lighted as to constitute a hazard. The commissioners promised to investigate.

The commissioners authorized expenditure of $10,000 from the sinking fund by the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission to liquidate outstanding debts. Prince Georges County also must approve the expenditure. Berry E. Clark, clerk to the county commissioners, was instructed to inform physicians of the county that they should be more careful in preparing bills for care of indigent sick. Bills for county police are to be approved by the chief of police before contracted, the board ordered.

Engineering Women Dine Tonight.

A joint meeting and banquet will be held tonight at the Hay-Adams House by the Engineering Woman's Club, officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Mechanical Engineers, the Washington Branch of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Mining Engineers and officers of the woman's branch of the Hoover-for-President engineers' committee, during the last campaign. Mrs. George D. Barron, of Rye, N. Y., will preside.

Miss Emery Presented To Capital Society.

Mrs. Frederick H. Payne, wife of the Assistant Secretary of War, assisted yesterday at the tea given by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Emery at their residence in Chevy Chase, when they presented their daughter, Miss Alice Suzanne Emery, to society. Others assisting the hostess were Mrs. Levi Cooke, Mrs. William Holloway, Mrs. Stanton Peelle, Mrs. Arthur Tirrell, Mrs. Neil Burkinshaw, Mrs. Brainard H. Warner, jr., Mrs. John I. Haas, Mrs. George A. Weaver, Miss Laura Cooke, Mrs. D. C. Shea, Mrs. Frederick J. Haas and Mrs. Vincent Engels.

Mrs. Emery and her daughter stood together to receive the guests, the former wearing a gown of brown lace, made on long lines. The debutante wore a frock of peach color net, made with a high waistline, which was marked in back with a bow of chartreuse satin. The skirt was trimmed with appliqued flowers of the net. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of violets and gardenias.

Miss Emery was assisted by a group of debutantes, including Miss Evelyn Walker, Miss Isabel Perry, Miss Polly Foote, Miss Marion Dunlop, Miss Betty Peelle, Miss Virginia Healy, of Chicago, who is visiting Miss Emery; Miss Ruth Reilly, Miss Betty McNally, Miss Peggy Walsh and Miss Peggy Post, of California.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Hutchison, widow of Rear Admiral Benjamin F. Hutchison, is spending a month at the Shoreham before leaving for Europe.

Mr. Micheal H. Huxley, Second Secretary of the British Embassy, will be guest of honor at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club at the Willard today. Mr. Huxley will speak on international affairs.

Mrs. Lloyd Entertains Company at Luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Demarest Lloyd entertained a company of 24 at dinner last evening at their residence in R street.

Mrs. Lloyd will have guests with her at luncheon today at the Mayflower following Mrs. Lawrence Townsend's morning concert at the hotel. Among other luncheon hostesses will be Mrs. John Allan Dougherty, Mrs. S. Wallace Dempsey and Miss Helen Lee Ames Doherty.

Mrs. Francis Nash and Miss Caroline Nash, of Paris, France, are guests at the Hamilton Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benning Spencer will entertain at dinner Tuesday evening, December 29, preceding the ball which Representative and Mrs. Richard S. Aldrich will give that evening for Mrs. Aldrich's daughter, Miss Janet White.

The Commissioner of the District and Mrs. Herbert Crosby will entertain at dinner Friday evening at the Willard preceding the first dance of the Friday Evening Dancing Class.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kauffmann and Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Gatley will also entertain at dinner at the Willard preceding the dance.

Mr. Winslow Potter, former Interstate Commerce Commissioner, and Mrs. Potter, of New York, are spending a short time in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Williamson entertained at dinner on Sunday evening in their honor.

Miss Dorothy Dodge went to Baltimore on Monday to attend the first of the Bachelors' cotillions.

Mrs. Horace P. Dodge and her daughter, Miss Alice Dodge, who have been spending the last few days at the Hamilton Hotel, will sail for Europe on the S. S. Berengaria on Friday.

Georgetown Observes Feast Day of Church

Students and clergy at Georgetown University joined yesterday morning in solemnizing the Feast of the Immaculate Conception with a high mass in Dahlgren Chapel, the observance being in accordance with a request made in the encyclical recently issued by Pope Pius XI.

The Rev. Dr. W. Coleman Nevils, S. J., rector of the university, preached the sermon, in which he stressed significance of this world-wide observance of the fifteenth centenary of the Council of Ephesus. It was at this council, in which the Pope sat as the official representative of the church, that the dogmatic definition of the divine maternity of the Blessed Virgin Mary was promulgated.

Wives of Tomorrow

—FRANCES M'DONALD—

THEY HATE OLD MAIDS!

REMEMBER the two college girls who told us they were "old maids and proud of it?" Well, they have the handsome heroes simply seething! A few of the sizzles are offered herewith just to show that the men not only read our column, but that they are as sensitive as ever on the subject of their shortcomings. Incidentally, there is just a grain or two of truth in a few of these ravings—so read them thoughtfully, all you girls who are inclined to break tennis racquets over offending male craniums. One of those girls had done just that, you recall. And they teach them to think it college technique when tempted to hurl things or break heads. Read and marvel.

Dear Frances McDonald: So the college girl had to break a tennis racquet over her escort's head. And they teach them to think at college. Have you, Miss McDonald, ever had to club a man? That girl may be an old maid and welcome so far as I am concerned. But do you think you should let her get away with that? A great many young girls devour every word you write. They read that. And they read no comment from you on the situation. Are they to infer that you consider that the proper technique of such a situation? And above all, do you feel young women should refrain from marriage because a few raw youths behave in the fashion of raw youths since the world began?

Nature impels certain people to certain acts. Are college women too dense to understand that such is a part of what the world contains? Are these young women to retire from that world, beaten, and become old maids simply because they can not stand life? All men regard old maids with a certain vague repulsion. And justly so, for most old maids are censorious, prudish and hypocritical. They are people as a rule who were more than usually interested in men, and began their old-maidishness in their hypocritical effort to camouflage that interest. They broke tennis racquets, and told teacher, and became the pests of their circle. And they ended up crabby old maids, sour with disappointment.

Nature can not be circumvented. Men will make advances as long as they are men. It is for woman to learn her stuff and decide in advance what the nature of those advances shall be. You know that, Miss McDonald, as every experienced woman of the world does. Why then do you not tell them? Being old maids may make them proud for the first 20 years. But most old maids live quite a while, and their lot is just as miserable as that of any abandoned woman. Tell them the truth.

MEDICO.

My dears! Is that telling them? But no man tells the whole truth when he is seeing red. Somehow we suspect someone somewhere some time hit poor Medico, and hit him pretty hard. May even have been a baseball bat. 'Taint fair! It leaves a man groggy, and if you doubt that Medico is groggy, ask any up-to-the-minute old maid whether she is as "miserable as an abandoned woman"—whatever that is! However, Medico means well. He just naturally hates strongminded women — especially when they are strong-armed as well! Now read Campus:

Just read that load of sour grapes from the two "proud" old maids. Proud of what? I have dated plenty of girls and I never found one that I could not dope out within the first half hour. Do you know the truth? Women like a man to be a devil. But they are ashamed of the fact that they do. So they lead him along and then to justify themselves, jump on him when he does the thing they expect and wish him to do. Females are the sneakingest hypocrites alive and these old maid types are the worst. They crave thrills and go after them and then bust heads to prove they did not. I hate the whole crew.

Fifth Avenue Fashions

She'll Love It For Christmas.

You'll like the flat slimness through the hips and the full flaring pantie legs. The bandeau closes at the center back.

And to make this attractive set takes but 1⅛ yards of 39-inch material, with 5¾ yards of binding for the 16-year size.

And it's so entirely simple it could almost be run up on the sewing machine before breakfast.

Style No. 124 may be had in sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20 years, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust.

It is interesting "pick-up" sewing if made by hand; gives a French accent.

Price of pattern, 15 cents. Address Fashion Department, The Washington Post, Fifth avenue and Twenty-ninth street, New York City.

Jane Engle INTERPRETS the MODE

Dark red wool in a light weight makes this smart frock from Maggy Rouff, Paris. A deep red leather belt with silver buckle and button trimmings add to its chic.

New York, December 8.

IT seems as though the couturiers of Paris have agreed to disagree about the evening silhouette question, my deahs! For though just about all the couturiers admit cheerfully that you may buy any evening silhouette you want and still be smart, most of them have some little pet trick to which they cling, and which they develop in lovely fabrics, with loving care.

Let's just for the fun of it, take four couturiers and analyze their favorite evening things. Vionnet, for instance, just loves ruffles, and the things accomplished with them aren't only quaint and demure, but have a certain classic air. On one Vionnet evening gown, five tiers of ruffles formed the skirt, but stopping at the side and leaving a smooth, unbroken front line. The cross-strap decolletage is extremely low in the front, which is rather unusual at this season.

Next, Poiret likes to combine a smooth, long front line with a panniered or bustle or trained back line. One of his models, of old-fashioned flowered taffeta, has an adorable little bustle, which is outlined in little taffeta roses.

Goupy, on the other hand, prefers velvet for the fabric, and slender, straight, flowing lines for the silhouette and always inserts some surprising modern note. A frock in the Goupy collection which illustrated all three of these principles was of dark green velvet, with a leopard skin belt. And Chantal loves variations and modifications of the harem-trouser and hobble-skirt theme.

• • • •

This ensemble business seems to be here to stay, this winter, as never before. Possibly this is because one can always use a smart frock and a stunning coat, 'n' when they can be used either separately or in combination it's just that much better. At any rate, Maggy Rouff has made the trimmest sort of an ensemble, the frock of which I've sketched today. It's of dark, raspberry red wool crepe, light weight, of course, with a dark red leather belt and a silver buckle and buttons. Doesn't that cross-over incrustation give a becoming line?

• • • •

'N' who wouldn't take a jaunty brimmed and feathered hat like the one sketched today, straight to her heart? That quili-and-leaf idea is the very latest murmur!

• • • •

A brassiere, chemise and panties, all in one, form fitting, grace giving and not the least bit bulky, seem too good to be true, dont they?—'N' when I tell you that you can't buy them ENNYwhere in the world except one little shop in Paris where the less there is to a garment, the higher the prices seem to be, you'll think they sound even better and more desirable, now won't you? And when I tell you that they can be made, quite easily, from very little material, by simply sending your stamped, self-addressed envelope off to the Dare Department of The Washington Post for this week's illustrated directions, that sounds best of all, doesn't it?

Au revoir!

Indoor—Outdoor Gardens

—By JANE LESLIE KIFT—

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS.

IN preparing for Christmas, do not forget to add a plant or box of flowers to your list. Plants, you know, are "gifts that grow." They are not a fad whose popularity will wane with the burning of the yule log. With care they may be just as beautiful at the advent of another Christmas.

And they have more than sheer beauty to recommend them. They are inexpensive. For a dollar, in any part of this broad land of ours, you can buy a number of worthwhile plants. The growers never lose sight of the apartment dwellers, and on their account are specializing more and more in the growing of low plants which take up little room and can therefore be set on even a narrow window ledge.

It is wise when purchasing a plant to ascertain from the florist the name of the variety and the care that it should be given to keep it in a state of perfect health. This information can be passed along to the recipient of your gift. She will be grateful for it.

Should you be choosing a plant to send to a friend who is ill, choose one that has little, or, better still, no odor. Sick people are sometimes quite suceptible to odors. So, why send a paper white narcissus when a primrose will be just as desirable.

A pot of red geraniums is very Christmasy and costs little. Primroses, potted pansies or begonias are always desirable. Then small ferns in scarlet pot-covers are decorative and durable.

Think of the pleasure it will be on Christmas morning to the friend who, because of illness, has been far removed from the bustle attending Christmas, to be greeted with a pot of nodding pansies. These joyous little blossoms never tire of sending forth fresh blossoms, if we make way for them by removing all flowers as soon as they show signs of fading. Remember that pansies do better in a warm than a cool room.

And a plant is not the only way to extend a Christmas greeting with flowers. We can send a box of native green. Of course, we must select a variety that is in keeping with the rules of conversation. (Never send holly, ground pine or laurel.) Such a gift will be laden with memories of home for the friend who once lived close by, but may now be far away. In this day, when Uncle Sam has made parcel post so easy, greens carry beautifully, even if they have been on the way a week.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

—By DR. W. A. EVANS—

COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENTS.

IN spite of the hard times people who live in the rural districts are getting, in increasing proportions, the type of health protection that the city people have.

According to a report of the United States Public Health Service, the number of county health departments with full-time health officers in 1931 is 557. The number in recent years is: 1927, 337; 1928, 416; 1929, 467; 1930, 505, steady increase, not influenced particularly by depression or panics.

The State having the honor of leading is Delaware. In that State every county has a full-time health officer, and 100 per cent of the people who live in the rural districts have the kind of health protection that the United States Public Health Service approves of.

In Illinois only 2 per cent of rural populaton is receiving any health protection except such as can be given them by the State health department, and such service is necessarily imperfect and expensive. When they get an epidemic of any kind the central office does not hear of it until the contagion is pretty well scattered around and the service the State can give them when it finally gets to the field of operation is largely advisory.

The epidemic of smallpox that the country has been having for the last two years or more has been most widespread in a group of States where they are but poorly provided with county health departments. The disease has had to burn itself out and more than two years was required for that.

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

By ELY CULBERTSON

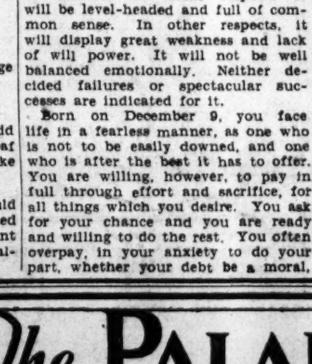
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

176.

FINDING THE SETTING TRICK.

IT is a simple matter in Contract to win the obvious tricks, but players often preen themselves on the fact that they have taken their Aces and Kings and when the Declarer chalks up a game, console each other with the statement, "We could do nothing about it, partner." If the statement is correct, it is well not to rail at fate, nor lament your ill luck, or decry your opponents', good luck. Luck, good or bad, is the common inheritance of all Bridge players; so the good player takes luck as he finds it and accepts it on that basis, but frequently we are prone to charge to bad luck matters chargeable instead to poor play. You should not lament your fate until you have used to the best advantage the opportunities presented to you. Today's hand illustrates that principle.

East and West vulnerable.
North and South not vulnerable.
South—Dealer.



The Bidding.

(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

South	West	North	East
1♠	2◇	3♣(1)	Pass
4♣(2)	Pass	4♠(3)	Pass
Pass	Pass

1—North's hand does not measure up to a double raise for the spade bid. He, therefore, bids his own suit as possibly indicative of greater strength than a single Raise for the spade would show.

2—South has sufficient rebid values to raise his partner's Takeout.

3—North feels that the hand will play equally well in spades or clubs and that the prospect of making game in spades is brighter than of making five clubs.

In the play, the diamonds were opened and South ruffed the third round of that suit. South now led a trump and West jumped up with the Ace. This was the only trick remaining for East and West.

"Hard luck, partner," West remarked as the score was jotted down. But it wasn't. West should have refused to play the Ace until the third round of spades. Had he waited until that trick to take his trump, he would have reaped a rich dividend, as the lead of his last diamond would have taken South's last trump and established another trump trick for him and thus defeated the contract.

TODAY'S POINTER.

Question: What is needed to raise one in a suit to four in a suit?

Answer: Six supporting-tricks (4 plus 6 equals 10). This applies in general to majors only, as three no-trumps may be easier to make than five of a minor.

(Copyright, 1931.)

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Mr. Culbertson will be glad to answer questions on bidding and play of hands sent in by readers. Address him in care of The Washington Post, inclosing a 2-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Meat Loaf, Serving Six.

1 pound ground beef round
1 cup cracker crumbs
2 tablespoons chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped onions
2 tablespoons chili sauce
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg or 2 yolks
¼ teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon nutmeg
2-3 cup milk

Christmas Fruit Cake.

1 cup butter
2 cups dark brown sugar
½ cup grape juice
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon vanilla
6 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup chopped candied pineapple
1 cup chopped raisins
1 cup chopped dates
1 cup shredded almonds
½ cup chopped citron
½ cup chopped candied orange peel
4½ cups flour
½ teaspoon soda

Cream the butter and sugar. Add rest of ingredients. Pour into two loaf pans fitted with waxed papers. Bake 2 hours in very slow oven.

Remember that cold things should be served cold and hot things served hot. This is especially important when it comes to serving soups, salads and vegetables.

What Today Means to You

"SAGITTARIUS"

IF December 9 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:45 a. m. to 11 a. m., from 5 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. and from 10 p. m. to 11:40 p. m. The danger periods are from noon to 2 p. m. and from 7:35 to 9 p. m.

Those whose interests lie in the out of doors—i. e., the sportsman, the craftsman, the motorman, and the engineer, will benefit most by the planetary conditions in force on December 9. This anniversary is not fortunate for the business, professional and financial sides of life.

The child born on this December 9 will have a varied character, hard to decline. In some respects it will be level-headed and full of common sense. In other respects, it will display great weakness and lack of will power. It will not be well balanced emotionally. Neither decided failures or spectacular successes are indicated for it.

Born on December 9, you face life in a fearless manner, as one who is not to be easily downed, and one who is after the best it has to offer. You are willing, however, to pay in full through effort and sacrifice, for all things which you desire. You ask for your chance and you are ready and willing to do the rest. You often overpay, in your anxiety to do your part, whether your debt be a moral, social or business obligation. You never worry about sparing yourself.

It can be said to your credit that you do any job to the best of your ability, and that you refuse any compromise. Life will disillusion you, people will disappoint you and failures sadden you, but through thick and thin you will doggedly stick to your own high ideals. You believe, and always will believe, in the good of humanity. All classes of people take to you because of your absolute lack of snobbery and your naturalness. You are manifestly interested in other people, and you show it in a sympathetic manner. You are not class conscious, and you enjoy social intercourse with any one who is intelligent—you refuse to be bored by prince or pauper.

Your heart will never become too hardened, or your life become too matter-of-fact to kill sentiment or romance. A December 9 man will have very debonair manners and will attract those of the opposite sex.

Successful people born December 9:

Jobless Receive Free Jackrabbit.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Thousands of long-legged Western jack rabbits provided food for the unemployed of Denver today. The "jacks" were distributed by a Denver newspaper. A long line of persons waited with sacks, market baskets and even small wagons to carry home the frozen animals, which were killed in a hunt on the eastern Colorado prairies.

POTOMAC BANK ADDS F. A. KERR TO BOARD

Savings Institution Reelects Other Directors; Holds Alexandria Meeting.

By THOMAS M. CAHILL.

Frank A. Kerr, master plumber, head of an establishment at 1361 Wisconsin avenue northwest, who has been engaged in the plumbing industry practically his entire business life, was elected a director of Potomac Savings Bank, of Georgetown, yesterday at the annual meeting of stockholders held at Alexandria, Va., the institution being incorporated under the laws of that State.

Mr. Kerr, who succeeded his father in business approximately 25 years ago and who represents the plumbing industry in the Rotary Club of Washingotn, succeeds the late M. Willson Offutt on the bank's directorate. All other directors were reelected as follows: William P. Ames, William W. Anderson, Alphonse M. Baer, Emory H. Bogley, B. Agee Bowles, William H. Clarke, Davenport B. Elgin, Harry K. Hobart, James C. Hoyle, Dr. Malcolm W. Morgan, George W. Offutt, Henry W. Offutt, C. Wendel Shoemaker, J. William Stohlman, Henry A. Storm, J. Clinton Tribby and Joseph M. Wise.

Action of the RKO stockholders Protective League, in announcing their approval of the RKO refinancing plan, has had a most beneficial effect locally in assisting Hardie Meakin, manager of RKO-Keith's Theater, in his quest for proxies covering the meeting to be held in Baltimore tomorrow.

Debenture Plan Indorsed.

The protective committee in a statement released from its New York headquarters not only indorsed the debenture plan of refinancing, but also agreed with the management of the corporation that it was the only means possible, at this time, to raise the needed additional funds.

Indications are, states Mr. Meakin, that the required two-thirds of the outstanding RKO stock will be proxied to Hiram Brown, president, for tomorrow's meeting. Locally that amount has been received. In actual shares this amounts to above 40,000 in number.

At the recent regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors of Emerson's Bromo-Seltzer, Inc., the regular dividend of 50 cents per share, plus an extra dividend of 50 cents, making a total of $1, was declared payable on the Class A and Class B common stock of the corporation, January 1, 1932, to stockholders of record December 15, 1931. John P. Brawner, of Waggaman, Brawner & Co., Inc., was elected a director of the corporation.

Regular Dividend Declared.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Carpel Corporation the regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents per share was declared payable on the stock of the corporation January 1, 1932, to stockholders of record December 21, 1931. G. F. Cramer, of Waggaman, Brawner & Co., Inc., was recently elected to the board of directors of this corporation.

The total number of General Motors common and preferred stockholders for the fourth quarter of 1931 was 313,117, compared with 293,714 for the third quarter of 1931 and with 263,528 for the fourth quarter of 1930.

There were 295,961 holders of common stock and the balance of 17,156 represents holders of preferred stock. These figures compare with 276,476 common stockholders and 17,238 preferred for the third quarter of 1931.

National Shirt Shops, Inc., for November, reported total sales of $208,537, against $286,565 for November, 1930, a decrease of $78,028, or 27.23 per cent. Sales for the eleven months ended November 30, totaled $3,056,570, against $3,707,606 for the same period last year, a decrease of $651,036, or

Children of Mrs. Frick To Divide $5,000,000

Salem, Mass., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Helen C. Frick and Childs Frick, heirs to the vast estate of their father, the late Henry Clay Frick, Pittsburgh steel magnate, were each left trust funds of $2,500,000 in the will of their mother, filed today for probate. The mother, Mrs. Adelaide H. C. Frick, died a month ago at her Beverly Farms estate.

New York Brokers Suspended.

New York, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The New York Stock Exchange today announced the suspension of Palmer & Co. for insolvency. The firm was one of the smaller stock exchange houses, maintaining three offices in New York and one in Boston. The firm was a fairly active commission house during the bull market, but has done little in the past two years.

ABOUT THE SHOWSHOPS

With NELSON B. BELL

IT seems to me that the most naive bit of confession concerning itself with the production of "Mr. Whistler," current at the National, is to be found in the program note which says:: "The play is based upon certain incidents in the life of the famous American artist. The authors make no pretense of being historically or chronologically exact."

Quite so. And historically and chronologically exact is precisely what they should have been in approaching a task of this nature. It is not enough, if a brilliant and brittle comedy of the life of the noted etcher is the end in view, that many of his wittiest sayings should be written verbatim into the play, stripped of the circumstances which gave them being. The aim, or so it impresses me, should be to recreate the combination of circumstances and events which made Whistler what he was—a caustic egocentric, not averse to a fight, no matter what the weapon; wit, epigrammatist and sworn enemy of the ubiquitous Victorian Philstine, whom he pilloried upon every occasion and mostly with huge success.

A large number of vivacious utterances of this master of the brush and palette have lost their point in modern times by reason of the fact that the people and practices at which they were aimed have departed this earth, probably never to return. But the spirit of Whistler bears no date, the nimble wit, the eager vituperation, and mercurial nature of the man, appropriately environed, should make a lively and a delightful evening in the theater.

That, in my humble view, however, can hardly be achieved by making no pretense of being historically or chronologically exact.

If you do not mind leaping across the continent to the Puget Sound country, it may be of interest to know that Tom Olsen, not so long ago director of advertising and publicity at the Fox Theater in this city, has been appointed to the by no means trivial post of assistant division manager of the Fox West Coast theaters in the States of Washington and Oregon. This is a merited promotion. Tom is a good boy.

Speaking of the Fox, yesterday at high noon Marjorie White and Eddie Tierney, Frankie Jenks, master of ceremonies with the Fanchon & Marco "Five Races" Idea, and Barr & Davis, singers, all from the bill now occupying the stage at the F street cathedral, put on a special program for the boys confined at the Naval Hospital. And di dthey have fun! I mean both the boys and the players. Well, what would you guess—if you had to guess?

And over at the Earle at about the same time, Alice White was hostess to 175 blondes who filed past the ticket chopper in celebration of "Blonde Week." I am informed that the visiting blondes ranged in age from 3 to 83 and that there was not a platinum thatch in the entire assemblage.

This was probably in defence to Alice White's slightly golden frizzes, Jean Harlow being present only on shadow form as the screen star of Columbia's "Platinum Blonde," named after her and her silver locks.

Here comes another premiere!

Pauline Lord returns to the stage in Guthrie McClintic's production of Dan Totheroh's new play, "Distant Drums," and will be seen for the first time anywhere in this drama in the Shubert-Belasco Theater on Monday, January 4, as the fourth attraction of the Professional Players subscription season.

McClintic's production, "Brief Moment," starring Francine Larrimore, was the second of the Professional Players' offerings this season and is now running in New York.

Miss Lord has not been seen on the stage since she acted Nina Leeds in Eugene O'Neill's "Strange Interlude." Outstanding in her career are her appearances in O'Neill's "Anna Christie" and "They Knew What They Wanted." Totheroh is a Western playwright whose "Wild Birds" attracted much attention in New York a few years ago.

Following her Washington engagement, Miss Lord will be seen in the new play in New York, at a theater still to be determined.

Personal nomination for the most helpful associate when la grippe, to be flossy about it—or maybe it's my old tropical friend, the dangue fever—is sneaking up on you and cracking all the bones in your body and head, one at a time: Mr. Steven E. Cochran, of the National Theater, who carries lemons around in his pockets, but no sugar!

And it would be just my luck to crack up on the evening when Mr. Jim Lundy, chief cymbal whanger for the Loew interests in Washington, is tossing a house warming out at The Westchester and "Headline Ham" Beall is sending out frenzied S O S's from suite 831 in the Willard!

As has been here numerously remarked before, life is like that!

On Friday, December 18, the Columbia Players will present three one-act plays, each authored by a member of the players, at Wilson Teachers' College, Eleventh and Harvard streets northwest.

They are "What's in That House?" by Mrs. Edith Armstrong, "The Scarlet Shawl," by Miss Dorothea Lewis, of this department's reviewing staff, and an untitled drama from the pen of H. R. Baukhage. For the last mentioned the group will offer a prize for the best title submitted. Anyone attending the performance will be privileged to submit as many titles as can conveniently be thought up.

This seems to be giving Mr. Baukhage all the best of it, in the matter of spotlight. So I suggest that to put everybody on an equal footing and eliminate all of the authorial jealousy that I understand is cropping up since this nefarious business was put in motion, the titles be deleted from Mrs. Armstrong's and Miss Lewis' plays and that they be included in the contest.

In the expectation that this will be done, I have already mailed in "What's in That House?" and "The Scarlet Shawl" as likely names to cop at least a part of the prize money—or is it to be money?

As I come to think of it, I believe the prizes and the committee of judges are still to be announced.

And then again, perhaps it will turn out to be neither la grippe nor la dangue fever, but merely a mild return of my old Bubonic Plague, or possibly just a dash of Asiatic leprosy.

Goody-goody for our side!

Drive Will Fight Outside Builders

Buy-in-Washington Council to Conduct Campaign by Advertising.

Preliminary plans for a campaign to militate against out-of-town competition in home building in Washington was planned yesterday by the Buy in Washington Council at a luncheon meeting at Willard Hotel.

E. J. Murphy, president of the council, announced that the campaign would be conducted through the medium of advertising, beginning early next year. Members of the council pointed out that operators here can construct as good, if not better, homes with Washington labor and material and at lower financial terms than those offered by out-of-town interests.

The council also decided to stress the advantages offered by Capital merchants over mail-order houses. Appreciation was expressed for the use of the Buy in Washington Council slogan by the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. in the directory and for its use by other public utility companies.

Mrs. Hoover to Inspect Lee Antiques Exhibit

Mrs. Herbert Hoover yesterday accepted the invitation of the Robert E. Lee committee of the District of Columbia to attend an exhibit of early American antiques at 2330 S street northwest.

Mrs. William Hard announced that the President's wife would attend. The exhibit will be open today and tomorrow.

HACK WILSON, EDDIE MORGAN UNWANTED IN DEALS

This Morning with Shirley L. Povich

A LONG step in the direction of safer and saner football is the proposal to temper the ferocity of the kick-off play by the resurrection of the tee and the elimination of the wedge formation that makes a phalanx of the receiving team.

The direct result of the restoration of the mud tee at the kick-off would be higher and lazier kicks which would enable the offensive team to get down under the play before the receivers had time to form the wedge that has contributed so heavily to the mounting list of injuries and deaths.

That the wedge is a dangerous play is undeniable. Its very nature pits as many as a half dozen onrushing interferers against a lone tackler oftentimes, usually no more than two, and the task of breaking up this interference for the ball carrier requires nothing less than a headlong plunge at the solid mass with a great risk of injury no matter how well equipped the tackler may be.

◆

The elimination of the flying wedge would be a comparatively simple matter for the rules committee to bring about.

The wedge is an effective play on the kick-off and unless drastic restrictions are placed against it, teams may find a way to beat the rule. One method, however, of legislating the play out of the game would be to set down stipulated positions for the receiving team on the kick-off play.

A rule that would not permit more than three men of the receiving team to take up a position within its own 35-yard line would solve the problem. Thus, the other eight men of the receiving side would be no more than 15 yards from midfield and unable to drop back to the receiver in time to form the wedge. The kicking team would be down under the ball and skirmishing with the forward eight of the receiving eleven while the ball carrier would be afforded immediate interference only by his two teammates in the back field.

The elimination of the wedge would entail no great sacrifice of thrills for the spectator. The long runs for touchdowns from the kick-off would not necessarily be eliminated as was illustrated by the Maryland-Western Maryland game in Baltimore last Saturday.

In this contest, Coaches Byrd and Harlow agreed upon the abandonment of the wedge formation and warned their teams that only individual blocking and "picking-off" would be allowed on the kick-off. At the start of the second half, despite the elimination of his mass interference, Berger, of Maryland, galloped 85 yards to a touchdown by threading his way through the entire Western Maryland team on a dash that was fully as thrilling as any touchdown run ever made behind a wedge formation.

With the restoration of the mud tee on the kick-off, the long runback for touchdowns would be considerably fewer however. There are certain place kicking specialists like Jim Mooney, of the Georgetown team, of a few years ago, who seldom failed to boot the ball over the line for a touchback.

Football is not beholden to the kick-off play for its thrills, and the game is confronted with a duty to safeguard the health of college youths who are too prone to throw themselves into the thick of the battle for the glory of alma mater without regard to the risk of serious injury. The native recklessness of youth and the natural impulse to play the game for all that it is worth demands some sort of a sedative.

The colleges bear the brunt of the attacks against football for the simple reason that it is them upon which national attention is focused. But the total of four deaths recorded in collegiate ranks this year is not an abnormal number, albeit too many. But the colleges can take the first steps toward the prevention of greater casualty lists and in the legislation against the wedge they are provided with an excellent opportunity.

Fordham Tackle's Condition Critical

Physicians Express Grave Concern for Szymanski After Relapse.

New York, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The condition of John Szymanski, of New Britain, Conn., Fordham University football tackle, was regarded as "critical" by Fordham Hospital authorities tonight.

Injured in Fordham's closing game of the season with Bucknell, November 21, Szymanski suffered a paralysis of the left side. The exact nature of the injury has been unexplained.

His condition during the past week showed steady improvement but a relapse last night has caused physicians to express grave concern for him.

Cornelius Murphy, who was relieved by Szymanski in the Bucknell game, died last week of his injuries after he had been believed out of danger.

Reports that Fordham was contemplating the abolition of football should Szymanski's injuries prove fatal brought forth no official comments from university authorities.

Late tonight an official spokesman for Fordham declared that the possibility of Fordham abolishing football thus far has never been discussed. He declined to amplify this statement.

Kick-Off Tee Adopted for Game Here

Crimson Tide Due to Arrive Thursday for First Drill.

HEEDING the agitation for football reforms calculated to reduce the dangers of injury and death that have been forcefully brought to the public's attention this season, the committee in charge of Washington's triple-header charity benefit games at Griffith Stadium Saturday, has announced that the participants will use the artificial tee for kick-offs.

The use of the tee for kick-offs is conducive to long, high kicks, allowing players of the kicking team the maximum of time for running down the field to tackle the receiver and reducing to a minimum the possibility of their becoming victims of the wedge formation of interference that is hastily gathered for protection of the receiver to the detriment of the would-be tacklers.

Wedge Formation Dangerous.

The wedge formation throws up a famous Alabama University eleven of 1930, the team that defeated Washington State last New Year's Day in the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, Calif., to win general recognition as national champion.

Alabama will oppose each of the human wall before on-rushing tacklers who risk serious injury almost any time they attempt to pierce it. The execution of this play has resulted in a number of the football fatalities that have occurred this year.

The participating Washington teams George Washington, Catholic and Georgetown Universities—are hard at work preparing for the occasion. They will meet a common opponent in the local teams in a 20-minute game consisting of two 10-minute halves and, therefore, will line up for a kick-off no less than six times even if no touchdowns are scored. In all probability the kick-off will be more in evidence, as the contestants are polishing up their attacks with the idea of "shooting the works."

Alabama's squad of 24 players and two coaches departs from Tuscaloosa this morning at 9 o'clock and is due here tomorrow morning at 11:30. Immediately upon arrival the Southerners will go to the Harrington Hotel, headquarters during their visit, where they will be the guests at a reception and luncheon.

Public Practice Tomorrow.

At 2:30 tomorrow afternoon, the Alabamans will hold a practice in Griffith Stadium, to which the committee has invited the general public. This will afford the curious of the fans a chance to look over Big Fred Sington, All-American tackle last year, and other luminaries among the Dixie invaders. On Friday they will hold a secret drill following formal visits at the House of Representatives and the White House, where they will be greeted, respectively, by representatives and President Hoover.

In order that they may be on equal terms physically with the three local teams, the Alabamans have been permitted the right of free use of substitutes. Another courteous concession made by the committee will allow them the right to select officials for the games.

Members of the District of Columbia Football Officials Association will furnish their services free of charge. This is in keeping with the spirit of cooperation met by the committee at every turn in its effort to do something substantial for Washington's unemployed. Clark Griffith has contributed the use of the stadium.

Special Rates for Youngsters.

The ticket sale is being conducted in the city's high schools and junior high schools as well as at the stadium and Spalding's, 1338 G street northwest. The committee offers children under 16 years of age seats in the center field bleachers at 50 cents each. This offer will hold good until Thursday night. Established prices are as follows: General admission, $1.50; reserved seats, $2, and box seats, $2.50. Five hundred choice sideline seats priced at $1.50 each are still available, as are many others in the grand stand and boxes.

John "The Spinner" Campbell (left) and "Flash" Suther will be in the Alabama line-up when the Crimson Tide meets Georgetown, Catholic University and George Washington here Saturday. They were powerful factors in Alabama's nine consecutive victories last year including the 24-0 victory over Washington State in the Rose Bowl. Both were named All-Southern backs.

Campus Editors in All Sections Take Issue With Columbia U. Attack Against Football

(Copyright, 1931, by the United Press.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Editors of campus publications representing colleges in other sections of the Nation are in disagreement with Reed Harris, the antifootball crusading editor of the Columbia University Spectator, who classifies football as "organized murder" and a semiprofessional racket.

The other comments:

GORDON P. MARTIN, EDITOR UNIVERSITY DAILY KANSAS, KANSAS UNIVERSITY—"Football is an American sport for real Americans. The fact that players work all season to play only a few minutes is evidence football is a sport and not a business."

LOUIS RIDENOUR, DAILY MAROON, UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO—"Football may be dangerous, but so is crossing the street. Fatal football accidents are regrettable, but so are automobile accidents, and I don't see what can be done to stotp either kind."

GEORGE W. SCHWENCK, BROWN DAILY HERALD, BROWN UNIVERSITY—"Calling football murder, is the most asinine thing I ever heard of. Webster defines murder as homicide with malice aforethought."

JOHN M'LANE CLARK, DAILY DARTMOUTH, DARTMOUTH UNIVERSITY—"It is obviously absurb to term football murder. The game is undoubtedly rough, but it is deplorable that any man should die under normal playing conditions."

H. O. COLGAN, AMHERST STUDENT, AMHERST UNIVERSITY—"The comparatively small number of college players killed during the past year is an indication of what good coaching and conditioning can do to eliminate injuries."

$400,000 Gate Certain For Army-Navy Game

New York, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Seventy-three thousand of the 83,000 tickets for the Army-Navy game at the Yankee Stadium Saturday have been sold it was announced today. The other 10,000 are on public sale with almost certain prospects of a complete sell-out by game-time.

In terms of the "gate," cash aggregating about $370,000 already is in hand with the total sure to pass $400,000 in the event of a sell-out.

Fatalities Deplored; Colleges Are Held Not to Blame.

JACK FISCHER, OKLAHOMA DAILY, UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA—"Thirty-one lives in one year is too high a price to pay for any game. The Oklahoma student daily stands opposed to such danger in sport."

JACK WITHERS, RED AND BLACK, UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA—"Football as it is being played in the South today is far from being a semiprofessional racket. It is being played for the sport of the game, and I think the South is fortunate in that it has had so few accidents this year. It is not the fault of the game, but lack of training on the part of the players that results in so many deaths."

ALFRED OGDEN, YALE NEWS, YALE UNIVERSITY—"To apply the term slaughter to football is to apply it with equal justice to any form of sport. If football is to be denied people who love the game, yet knowingly are willing to take risks inherent in playing it, then other athletics which have caused fatalities should be strictly prohibited. On the other hand, the revision of rules to avoid accidents while still keeping the essential characteristics of the game is imperative. It is quite possible the rules committe can do something to remedy the situation which is unduly flaunted before the public and inconsiderately treated by critics of the game."

Cougars Rate Tulane As Easy for Trojans

Seattle, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The University of Washington Cougar grid squad, still aching from the 44-to-7 defeat handed it by the University of Southern California, has come home predicting Southern California will master Tulane easily.

Willard Coghlan, publicity man, said the Trojan eleven is "the greatest football team the Coast has ever seen. It should defeat Tulane New Year's Day by at least four touchdowns."

OREGON COACH UNDER KNIFE

Portland, Oreg., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Dr. Clarence W. Spears, University of Oregon football coach, was operated on here today for Hernia. His physician said his condition was satisfactory.

Boy Chasing Football Runs Into Truck; Dies

Sioux City, Iowa, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Jack Gorchow, 14, North Junior High School pupil, who was seriously injured several weeks ago while playing footfall, died today in the Lutheran Hospital.

The boy was injured when he ran against a parked lumber truck, while he was chasing a football.

Bat Battalino Choice To Defeat Al Singer

New York, Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Bat Battalino, of Hartford, Conn., featherweight champion, is the betting favorite over Al Singer, former lightweight title holder, in their ten-round bout to be held at Madison Square Garden Friday night. Large bets at odds of 13 to 10 have been reported.

Mrs. Moody Beaten In Exhibition in China

Hongkong, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Helen Wills Moody, world's woman tennis champion, was beaten here today, 11—9, in an exhibition set against E. C. Fincher, the colony's outstanding man player.

Weather conditions were unfavorable, an almost continuous drizzle falling during the play. The match was exciting, however, the score being repeatedly deuced until it stood at 7—7. After that Mrs. Moody seemed to tire.

Mrs. Moody, who has been making a two-months tour of the Far East, contracted a severe cold shortly after her arrival in China.

Navy on Edge For Army Battle

Only Dummy Scrimmage on Practice Program.

Defense Against Army Style of Attack Is Given Attention.

Special to The Washington Post.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 8.—Continuing their drive for the supreme test with the West Point Cadets in the Yankee Stadium, New York, on Saturday, the football squad of Annapolis Midshipmen was carried through a long and extensive practice session this afternoon, although no heavy work was attempted.

Head Coach Edgar E. (Rip) Miller believes that his proteges are at the peak of form, as well as physical condition, just now, and he is endeavoring to keep them on razor edge. Hence scrimmaging has been completely tabooed, except that of the dummy variety and this phase of play dominated today's workout. The weather continued cold and snappy and the gridders went at their task with much zest.

Defense Against Army Attack Practiced.

Dummy defensive work against Army's style of attack featured today's program, the underlying idea being to break up the Cadet formations behind which Ray Stecker, back field ace, has scintillated in nearly every game played by Army this season, and whose brilliant running brought about the defeat of the powerful Notre Dame eleven. Defensive work against Army's passing game also was stressed. Navy mentors are counting heavily upon Capt. Magruder Tuttle, who has played a great game as a roving center all season, and Tom Hurley, who has been given the call for the full back post over "Soupy" Campbell, to handle the bulwark of work in the secondary defense.

Later on the big team engaged in some offensive work to further perfect timing of plays and blocking by the interferers. The slow-motion process was employed to further impress the players with the minor details of execution and then the various plays were reeled off at full timing.

Head Coach Miller and his backfield assistant, Christy Flanagan, are giving almost their undivided attention to polishing up the offense in the final round-up of work and Miller believes his pupils will be clicking on Saturday in a manner that has not been noted in any previous contest.

"Sammy" Moncure, the Virginia boy, continued to direct the work of the team. "Bert" Davis, regular quarter back, whom he relieved two weeks ago after the latter suffered an attack of bronchitis, was along the side lines watching his teammates at work. He was not in playing togs.

Davis May Not Be Able To Play.

Davis was discharged from the infirmary only yesterday and medical authorities of the academy have not definitely determined whether it will be advisable for him to resume play. Davis says he feels O. K. and is raring to go.

Enthusiasm among the midshipmen regiment increased by leaps and bounds today. As soon as they were discharged from drills, they rallied behind the full complement of the academy band and marched to Thompson Field, circled it and then resumed seats in the stands and sang their gridiron battle songs and gave the various yells just before the gridders called it a day and retired to the showers.

'Sink the Navy' Signs Appear on Army Campus

Already huge signs bearing such inscriptions as " Sink the Navy" have appeared in the central arena and the Army's practice session yesterday was witnessed by a large crowd of cadets who lined the sidelines while the team went through its paces. An athletic rally of the Cadet Corps is planned for later in the week.

Army's drill yesterday was a light one, consisting of calisthenics and work on the scrimmage machine, where two teams were polishing up plays to be used Saturday against the Tars.

Stecker, Summerfelt, Kilday and Carver all watched the heavy work from the sidelines yesterday, but they took their regular positions in a defensive drill today.

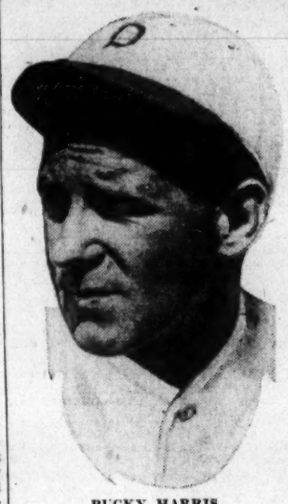
BUCKY HARRIS SIGNS AS TIGERS' 1932 PILOT



BUCKY HARRIS.

Chicago, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The 1932 managerial line-up for the major leagues was completed today when Stanley "Bucky" Harris signed a one-year contract to pilot the Detroit Tigers for the fourth season.

Owner Frank J. Navin said he was well satisfied with his progress with the young Tiger Club. At the same time it was revealed that Harris was approached for the Pittsburgh managership which George Gibson took over last week.

Jewel Ens, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates last season, tonight was signed by Detroit as a coach. Ens was connected with the Pirates for ten years as player, coach and manager.

Coast Football Hit By Harvard Daily

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Football is treated with an exaggerated seriousness on the Pacific Coast, the Harvard Crimson, undergraduate daily newspaper, said today.

In editorial comment on the recent suspicion that a Southern California football player had betrayed secret plays to Notre Dame, the Crimson attacked "the determination to win at all costs."

"In the present case," the Crimson said, "that determination has revealed itself in a ruthless professionalism which has not scrupled even to cast an implicit insult at its football rival." This implication, that Notre Dame might have made use of plays offered by a rival player, "considerably dulls the lustre of the Trojan victory," the Crimson declared.

"This is not the first indication that football is treated on the Pacific Coast with an exaggerated seriousness," the editorial added.

Paddock in Training For Eastern Invasion

Los Angeles, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—That perennial athlete, Charles Paddock, sprinter supreme of yesteryears, has donned the abbreviated attire and spikes again.

The former University of Southern California trackster, who held most of the world's records at 300 yards and less several years ago, is training for a possible indoor campaign in the East for the 50-yard dash.

It all hinges on whether the Los Angeles Athletic Club is able to send a team East after the new year to compete in the indoor meets.

Injured Tulane Star May Play Coast Game

New Orleans, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Physicians were encouraged today over the condition of Jerry Dalrymple, Tulane's star football player, after an X-ray examination.

Yesterday they feared he was suffering with a ruptured kidney, but in an official bulletin today the physicians said the X-ray "did not seem to indicate a ruptured kidney" and that Dalrymple might be out of the hospital within a few days and may be able to play in the Pasadena Rose Bown classic New Year's Day.

Georgia Eleven Drills In Rain in California

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Georgia's grid warriors came to "sunny" southern California where they took a workout in a heavy rainstorm today as they prepared for their football game in Los Angeles Saturday with the University of Southern California. Weather observers were unable to tell whether the storms would clear away before the game.

There were 36 players in the squad Coach Harry Mehre brought West to tackle the Trojans, champions of the Pacific Coast Conference.

Clubs Spurn 2 Sluggers On Block

Big League Magnates Table Radio Issue Until Next Year.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Two of the best known hitters under baseball's big top, Eddie Morgan, of the Cleveland Indians, and Hack Wilson, of the Cubs, blocked trading operations in the major leagues today.

It appeared that the two players were pivotal points in virtually every outstanding deal and that none of the clubs in the two major leagues, here for their annual winter meeting and market days, wanted them. The Cubs were trying to use Wilson, their fallen home-run king, in deals with Boston, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and St. Louis without success, while the Indians offered Morgan, a great batter but a mediocre fielding first baseman, without a definite nibble.

Evans Is Cold to Averill Offers.

Every time the Indians mentioned Morgan, a club owner or manager with whom they dealt would ask for Earl Averill, star Indian outfielder, but each time General Manager Bill Evans would toss up his hands and answer, "Not a chance for Averill."

Ralph Kress, star St. Louis Brown outfielder, was definitely on the trading block and Washington, Chicago and New York were after him ever since it was revealed the Browns had failed to make a deal with the Indians.

The Cubs offered Wilson and a large bundle of William Wrigley, jr.'s, gold to the St. Louis Cardinals for Outfielders George Watkins and Ernie Orsatti, but the trade fell flat as far as was known.

New York's Yankees were confronted with the sudden necessity of sending another player to St. Paul, of the American Association, today in the transaction that gave them Jack Saltzgaver, star St. Paul second baseman. The Yankees sent Pitcher Roy Sherid to the Saints as part of the deal, but Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis has ruled Sherid ineligible for violations of rules and the Yankees have to send another player in his place.

Defer Radio Question For Another Year.

Club owners of the American League held a long discussion on the radio problem and adopted a resolution by which no American League Club can contract for radio rights after the 1932 season, when a meeting will be held to decide definitely on the question. The question was postponed a year when it was revealed that one American League club signed 1932 radio rights last night. So, during 1932, radio will be a matter of local club option, each club deciding for itself whether broadcast shall be permitted from their respective parks.

The American League also voted to oppose "artificial double-headers" whereby clubs agree to move games up for double-header purposes. The movement to obtain sanction for intraleague exhibition games during spring training was voted down.

Frank J. Navin, Detroit, was reelected vice president of the American League while owners of the Chicago, Cleveland and Boston Clubs were elected to the board of directors.

National League owners also voted local option on the radio problem but refused to approve the American League proposal to stop unnecessary double-headers.

Hack Wilson Aiming For Comeback.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Hack Wilson, "Peck's Bad Boy" of baseball, is taking himself more seriously.

Friends of the burly Chicago Cubs' outfielder revealed today that Wilson, a native of Martinsburg, now has but a single thought in mind—to get himself in the proverbial pink. Wilson is keeping his own counsel as to the purpose of his changed manner of living, but associates are convinced he is trying to live down his reputation as a "trouble maker."

Haughty Sophs at G. U. Bow To Freshman Gridmen, 9-6

By JACK ESPEY.

JUST as promised, the annual Freshman-Sophomore "Battle of Caps" of Georgetown University developed thrills a-plenty yesterday afternoon in Griffith Stadium, and the fans who passed it up in fear of the raw weather (all but 300, including G. U. students) missed one of the best football games seen here this season.

Not only that, but they missed such entertaining sidelights as incipient fist fights that ended in handshaking and pardon-me's, egg tossing for distance and accuracy that lacked the latter quality except in one case, and the uprooting of the west goal posts, property of the nonparticipating stadium owners, who looked on benignly, by a gleeful band of freshmen who thusly celebrated the victory of their team by the score of 9 to 6.

With all its intensity, the game was cleanly played, the man-to-man clashes occurring between rushes because of overzealous tackling or blocking before the ball was downed. It was in a rush play, however, that Paul Kennedy, sophomore quarter back and a reserve on the varsity team, accidentally sustained a slight concussion of the brain. He lost consciousness for a few minutes, but revived rapidly before he reached Georgetown Hospital in the car of a classmate. His condition last night was reported not serious.

By virtue of their victory, the Freshmen gained campus equality with upper classmen of Georgetown, especially the right to discard the little blue and gray skull cap, the distinguishing mark of their "lowly" social status. And, in addition, from now on until they are Sophs themselves and acquire the right to haze, they will wear the traditional "dinks" of the Georgetown Freshmen.

Football Reporter Right Only When Opinions Are Favorable, Pegler Learns

By WESTBROOK PEGLER.

Special to The Washington Post.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 8.—As the aftermath of some little frivolity of mine, set to words a few days after the Notre Dame-Navy football game, I hear that some of the Navy people have been injured in their feelings, deeming their football team to have been unjustly belittled although the intent was merely to recognize that almost professional skill and poise of the Notre Dame Club at that time and make moderate merry over the sympathetic ties existing between the Navy coach, who is a Notre Dame alumnus, and Mr. Hunk Anderson, who coaches Notre Dame.

Here was an interesting problem in loyalties. The help-one-another spirit is strong among alumni and here was Mr Anderson confronted with a choice of beating a young old grad of Notre Dame, and, like himself, a new head coach, and beating him hard, or beating him only somewhat with credit to both.

Reporter Is Fair if He Is Favorable.

But so it goes in football season. A reporter has a right to his impressions only if they be favorable in which case he is a fair, shrewd and able critic in one batch of mail, but quite the reverse, multiplied by two or more, in another, compensating batch. Still, a reporter in a press-coop with sentimental leanings toward neither side is better qualified to record an impression than any student, alumnus or coach of either school for this game induces a kind of hysteria in interesting persons and renders their opinions incompetent.

Not distrusting my own impressions, but interested to hear those of others, I inquired of Mr. Benny Friedman, who, I think, must be acknowledged to be an expert, and who also saw the game from upstairs, whether he thought that Notre Dame had been trying their utmost that afternoon. Mr. Friedman thoughtt not.

Others Similarly Impressed.

Two other football reporters were similarly impressed and had so reported, and, finally, one who, in the present case, may be regarded as the spokesman for the administration, said that, frankly, Notre Dame did not bear down on the Navy because it hadn't been necessary.

The offense occurred in the reflection on the Navy's skill that day and yet the Navy had had temerity to challenge the team which was then the greatest in the country and (see papers of that period) one of the greatest in football history. They had come out to match skill with Notre Dame, for better or worse, in the presence of 50,000 persons and arrangements had been made to accommodate a lot of sport writers in the understanding, as I took it, that anything they observed or thought they observed should be theirs to put on paper.

If the Navy had beaten Notre Dame, as the Army was to do two weeks

Cornell Seeks to Repeat In Round Robin Tourney

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Having proved to their own satisfaction that they could lick Pennsylvania, Princeton and Columbia in the course of the regular playing season, Cornell's huskies will attempt to do it all over again tomorrow in the interest of charity.

The Big Red team from Ithaca, on the strength of its earlier triumphs, stands out as the favorite in the four-cornered pigskin circus that is expected to attract upward of 30,000 to Yankee Stadium and earn some $45,000 for the unemployed.

Unlike last week's round robin at New Haven, from which Yale emerged victorious, pairings for tomorrow's program will not be known until a half hour before the first tussle starts at 1 p. m. (E. S. T.). Then they will be decided by lot, so there may be no charge of favoritism.

All three games will be of 24 minutes' duration, divided into 12-minute halves. In the event of a tie either in the preliminaries or the final, a committee of judges will name the winner on the basis of yards gained and first downs.

One of the interesting possibilities attached to the program is that Pennsylvania and Princeton may find themselves paired off some time during the afternoon. The two schools severed football relations years ago and it is said that both elevens are primed in the hope they will come together.

Despite the abbreviated periods, Gil Doble's powerful Cornell team, beaten only by Dartmouth this season, is the choice of experts to dominate the play. The Ithacans, led by Bart Viviano and Joe Ferraro, two of the East's outstanding backs, trimmed Princeton, 33 to 0, Columbia, 13 to 0, and nosed out Penn, 7 to 0. None of the other three met during the regular season.

WIDENER'S BAN ON ENTRIES STARTS FLORIDA RACING WAR

Rival Course Asks State To Act

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Joseph E. Widener's plan to bar horses stabled at Hialeah Track this winter from races at the new Tropical Park plant of the Gables Racing Association swelled into a triangular affair today with two angles dissenting to fan the flame of differences between operators of the two Miami tracks.

One answer to Widener's statement of policy came from Frank J. Bruen, head of Tropical Park; the other was from L. D. Reagin, chairman of Florida's Racing Commission.

Bruen's statement said he and his associates would look to the State Racing Commission to decide on eligibility of horses to run on various tracks in the State. He flatly denied a statement by Widener that he broke an agreement as to racing dates, and said there had been no agreement in the first place.

License Holders May Choose.

Chairman Reagin, at Tampa, asserted "No discriminatory measures taken by any one which would mitigate against the interests of the sport in Florida would be permitted by the commission." He parenthesized that he knew nothing of reported attempts to control track entries.

Reagin's statement said the commission's duties are to license owners of horses, dogs, trainers and jockeys, and that each license gives each holder privilege of operating on any track in the State.

"Any ruling that might limit the number of animals brought to the State for racing purposes or entered in a race would injure the sport and endanger powers of the commission," the statement added.

Widener Declines to Alter Stand.

Widener was content to let his ruling stand unamended. He said he had no further comment to make and heard Reagin's statement read without visible reaction.

His friends, however, pointed out the Miami Jockey Club's rule that horses stabled at Hialeah track might not race at other tracks was adopted in 1925, several years before Widener and his associates bought the racing plant. They said his action in enforcing the rule this year would be fulfillment of the duties required of him as chairman of the Jockey Club's board.

Widener said last night he would enforce the stabling rule because Bruen and his associates broke faith with the Miami Jockey Club's racing schedule plans. He said Tropical Park interests "have some of our best dates; they can't hope to use our horses, too."

Tropical Park opens December 26 under a recent ruling of the racing commission, ending the first half of a split 37-day race meeting, January 9. Hialeah is to open January 11 for 36 consecutive days. The Tropical Park inauguration will see Florida's first legalized horse racing.

Differences Follow Dispute on Dates.

The differences between the rival racing interests follow a dispute that came into the open at Tallahassee some time ago when representatives of the two tracks appeared before the commission to ask assignment of dates.

Bruen, managing director of Hialeah Park the past two years, is still a member of the Miami Jockey Club's board of directors, but said some time ago he planned to resign.

"Racing by horses and dogs and operation of pari-mutuel machines were approved by the Florida Legislature this year.

Big Field Is Entered In Ambassador Swim

Unprecedented interest in an early season indoor swimming meet is being manifested in the meet scheduled Friday night at the Ambassador Hotel. More than 60 entries already have been filed and many are representatives of colleges and high schools, as well as various amateur organizations.

Bill Levy, manager of the Ambassador Pool, is in charge and will receive entries until tomorrow night.

BIG LEAGUES DEFER BROADCAST ACTION

Soon after Wilson returned home from Chicago in late summer he started indulging in intensive outdoor calisthenics. Hunting rabbit, squirrel and deer and refereeing football games has occupied his attention. This winter he plans to play and manage an independent basketball team.

Since coming back to Martinsburg, Wilson has kept close to the family hearth.

Wilson never confided in his friends the reason for his failure to maintain his hitting stride last season nor did he give an indication of what the future has in store for him. They see in his actions, however, signs that he has forsaken his indulgences which worked against his professional interests and is trying to get in condition for any eventuality.

The Cubs' management has indicated that Wilson will not wear a Bear uniform this coming season.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—VANQUISH, $7.20, $4.00, $3.00; NICK CULLOP, $4.00, $4.40; KLINGSTONE, $4.20.

VANQUISH raced as if best, taking the lead from SIGNOFF after half a mile and stood a drive to come away from NICK CULLOP. Latter, poorly ridden, was held far out of it, then rushed into contention and was weakly ridden. KLINGSTONE held on well and was going gamely at the end. SIGNOFF tired.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $900; claiming. The Amite. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 3:50½. Off at 3:51. Winner, Superior Stable's b. g. Two-dollar mutuels paid—ITSO, $6.80, $4.00, $3.00; CHRIS PASCHEN, $8.00, $4.00; MARABOU, $2.20.

ITSO, showing speed in the going, held a good lead until well in the stretch, when he began tiring, but scored a lucky victory. CHRIS PASCHEN, poorly handled, was rushing to the lead in the stretch, but his bunching rider let him stumble. MARABOU, away in a tangle, finished well. PRINCE PAT came from far out of it.

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles. Purse, $600; claiming. For 4-year-olds and upward. Start fair. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 4:44. Off at 4:45. Winner, R. Dohle's ch. g. INTERIOR, at home in the going, began moving up after half a mile and, taking the lead with a rush, won as he pleased. SPORTING BLUES had no chance with his poor ride. OLD BILL tired from racing with AURICA. Latter could not keep up.

Preakness Listed At Pimlico May 14

Race Classic Moved Back to Last Day of Meet; $195,000 in Purses.

Baltimore, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The $50,000 Preakness, richest stake in Maryland racing, will be run Saturday, May 14, the last day of the spring meet at Pimlico, directors of the Maryland Jockey Club have decided. The meet opens May 2.

The plan is a departure from custom that has prevailed for years. Last year the Preakness was run the first Saturday of the Pimlico meet, but prior to that the race was scheduled earlier in the opening week of the meet.

Directors of the track, meeting yesterday, reelected all officers and arranged the spring program, offering prize money totaling $195,000, virtually the same as at the 1931 spring meet. The $15,000 Dixie, the directors ruled, will be run May 7, the first Saturday of the meet.

Twelve steeplechases, one for every day of the meet, have been placed on the program. Besides the Billy Barton, to be run May 12, and the Green Spring Valley, scheduled for May 13, there will be a race for the hunters.

Dartmouth Players' Home Towns Benefit

Hanover, N. H., Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Dartmouth football players who participated in the charity "round robin" at the Yale bowl Saturday will receive $100 apiece for distribution to the unemployed in their home towns, President Ernest Martin Hopkins, of Dartmouth, announced tonight.

In a memorandum to the players President Hopkins said he would take enough from Dartmouth's share of the charity receipts to turn over $100 to each of the 30 players who made the trip and that they would be asked to name the welfare organizations in their home towns which they deemed most deserving of the money. The same will be done with the few players who were unable to go to New Haven because of injuries.

Navy Basketers In Opener Today

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 8.—The local basket ball season will get under way tomorrow afternoon. Navy entertaining Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. The Leopard Loopers are coming here for a two-day stand, as they are booked to meet St. John's College Thursday. The Middies will have one more game before the Christmas holiday recess, as they will take on Lehigh next Wednesday. Activities will not be resumed until January 6, when Franklin and Marshall College will furnish the opposition.

Irving-Vance Winner To Get Schwartz Bout

Henry Irving and Frank Vance will be throwing fists for the right to meet Billy Schwartz when they climb through the ropes to battle in the semiwindup to the Landers-McKenna brawl at the Portner Arena, Alexandria, Tuesday night. Both boys have repeatedly challenged Schwartz, but each time their offers have fallen upon deaf ears.

Billy faces the problem of building himself up with local fans as a result of the whipping he took from Bob Godwin, light-heavyweight champion of the South, recently.

Yesterday he announced to Frankie Mann that he was ready to meet the winner of the Vance-Irving go in the semiwindup of the next show.

Billy may find himself in for more trouble than he is bargaining for in this pair of young light-heavies. Both boys are in fine fettle and working diligently, Vance at the Terminal Gymnasium and Irving at Frankie Mann's emporium of swat.

WAR COLLEGE SCHEDULING.

The Army War College unlimited basket ball team wants games. Call Sergt. Clark at National 8772, Branch 19.

GRAYS PLAY FIREMEN.

The United Typewriter Grays will meet the D. C. Firemen Five tonight at Central High at 8 o'clock.

HYMAN, 11½-1, JEFFERSON WINNER

Outsider Scores by Four Lengths in Feature Race.

JEFFERSON PARK RACE TRACK, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—The worst weather and track conditions of the season prevailed here today and the crowd was decreased accordingly. A torrential rain which started falling last night continued through the early part of the program and left the course a sea of slop, with deep water extending some 20 feet into the infield.

The Amite Purse, at 6 furlongs, was the banner attraction, and it resulted in an upset when the Superior Stable's Hyman, paying $25.20 for $2, romped to an easy score over five shifty sprinters.

Hyman finished four lengths in advance of the heavily played Prometheus, while the latter took second money by two lengths from What Have You. Fervor was a nose away from the show position. The time was 1:18 1-5.

What Have You Uses Up Prometheus.

What Have You took a lot out of Prometheus by racing head and head with the favorite for nearly a half mile, while Hyman was in third position. Jockey J. Neel called on Hyman at the head of the stretch and the former Rancocas Stable gelding dashed to the front with an easy stride to draw away steadily through the final stages.

F. P. Letellier, local horseman, sent a good favorite to the post in the opening dash of six furlongs, in which maiden 2-year-olds competed. Polyp, well ridden by C. M. Colvin, came from off the pace to win by four lengths from Beggar Lady, the latter taking the place by a similar margin from Scandal Sheet, a rank outsider. Snooks and Doreen Princess vied for leadership in the early running, but when Colvin sent Polyp after them on the middle of the track in the stretch there was little opposition and the gelding romped home. Beggar Lady, always well up, held on well on the inside through the final furlong. The winner paid $6.60.

Overboard, flying the silks of Mrs. C. Gregory, kept the form players in a good humor by running away from his opposition in the second event, a sprint affair for members of the older ranks. There was very little to the running. Overboard which went to the front and coasted the rest of the way to register by four lengths.

Agapanthus up to Get Second.

Agapanthus broke first, but dropped back until around the bend when he showed sudden acceleration and passed all but the winner, taking the place by a half dozen lengths from Chianti. Overboard paid his backers $3.60 for $2.

Jockey Mel Lewis got into his stride in the third contest, kicking home J. Marsch's filly, Lady Marsch, with four lengths of daylight at the nice price of $12.20 for $2. Transgression beat Sis Esther by three lengths for the place. Transgression had an abundance of speed and led the field a merry chase for about six lengths, but Lewis had Lady Marsch right behind the leader and sent his mount to the front after reaching the stretch. The daily double again paid a big dividend, holders of the $2 combination on the winners of Overboard and Lady Marsch collected $60.20.

Vanquish ran a powerful race to take the purse in the fourth number over the mile and a sixteenth distance, beating Nick Cullop by two lengths while Klingstone was third another two lengths back. Vanquish followed Signoff's pace for a half mile and then was sent to the front as the pacemaker showed signs of weakening. Nick Cullop, after racing well back early, came through on the inside at the stretch turn and carried Vanquish and several others wide.

Vanquish Finishes Fast In Fourth.

He took a slight lead for a brief period. Vanquish, however, came again and regained the lead to draw clear in the final stages. Klingstone closed well to beat Signoff. The winner paid $7.20.

Melvin Lewis, by piloting Itso to a close victory in the sixth event completed a double. Itso beat Chris Paschen by a nose after the pair engaged in a spirited duel all through the stretch with Itso in the worst going on the inside. Marabou was well beaten in third position. Itso held an early advantage of several lengths, but Chris Paschen nabbed him in the stretch and apparently had the race won only to hang in the final strides. The winner paid $6.80.

Interior at $34.00 won the last race by six lengths. Sporting Blues was second by a half length with Old Bill third.

Circle T Club to Plan Tech's Grid Banquet

The Circle T Club of Tech will meet tomorrow night to complete plans for the annual football banquet to honor the District high school champions. Efforts are being made to secure the speaking services of Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, president of George Washington University, at the banquet, which will be held in Tech's dining hall December 17.

Winners of letters at Tech for football may be announced late this afternoon at a school assembly. The rules at Tech remove most of the actual awarding of letters from the athletic department, giving teachers, minor and major school officials the right to pass on the recommendations.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS —By John Hix

On May 22, 1928, four bandits looted the vaults of the First National Bank of Lamar, Colo., killing the president and two employes. They fled to Dighton, Kans., where they kidnaped a Dr. Wineinger and forced him to treat the wounds of one of their party. In reward the doctor was then brutally murdered, his body and his car being thrown over a cliff.

A latent print of one finger found on Dr. Wineinger's car was the only clew left by the desperadoes. Copies were sent to all police departments and

WESTERN AND BUSINESS FIVES OPEN SEASON WITH VICTORIES

Bethesda and Emerson Beaten

Latona and Buscher Heroes as Western Wins, 20 to 10.

Stenogs Run Wild in Downing Institute Tossers, 44-17.

THE schoolboy basket ball teams of Western and Business opened their seasons yesterday afternoon with decisive victories. Western downed Bethesda-Chevy Chase High, 20-10, and Business ran wild against Emerson Institute, winning by the count of 44-to-17.

The two games served to open the high school season for the year. Four more games are on tap during the week. Western comes back today, meeting the Wilson Teachers in Western's Gym at 3:30 o'clock. Tomorrow afternoon Eastern takes on St. John's, and Central will travel to Annapolis, there to meet the St. John's College Frosh in a preliminary game to the St. John's-Lafayette tussle. Business plays Washington-Lee High in Ballston Friday afternoon.

Slippery Floor Big Handicap.

Both Western and Bethesda-Chevy Chase were hampered in yesterday's game by the slippery condition of the Chevy Chase School's court. The uncertainty of the floor caused both teams to resort to defensive play throughout most of the game, and Western's high scoring propensities suffered measurably.

Anthony Latona and Everett Buscher, Western's shooting stars, amassed 16 of their team's points, sinking four field goals apiece. The work of Molyneaux and Stehman, two of Western's minor figures, was outstanding along defensive lines.

Business High got off to a good start in beating Emerson. Coach Woodworth used fourteen players of varying skill to enact the runaway. The game was played at the Boys Club, a last-minute shift from Business.

Sending a scrub combination on the floor for the first half of the game, Business had no trouble keeping ahead of Emerson's lop-sided team, which features Alton Rabbitt, a clever forward and the only veteran on the squad.

Business Secondaries Take Lead.

Business' secondaries managed to pile up a 15-6 lead at the half, mostly on the work of Tony Mastromarino, grid captain, who scored a quartet of field goals.

The Business No. 1 team, definitely fixed as Esenstad, Tipton, Sherman, Shore and Harris, entered the fray at the start of the third quarter and pulled the scoring skids out of the game. Led by Joe Sherman, who sent seven shots flicking through the cords, the team could not be stopped by any defense on the part of Emerson.

Palace Gridmen Call Practice Drill Tonight

Things are active in the workings of the Palace Athletic Club, whose 150-pound team has copped the Capital City League championship. A practice will be held tonight at Seventh and N streets pending Sunday's game against Silver Spring. The Palace outfit will clash with the equally well-known Fraters on December 20.

The annual banquet and dance for the football team will be held Friday night at Picardi's. Thirty monogrammed sweaters will be distributed to the regular gridmen.

BARBER FIVE CHALLENGES.

PIRATES ARE CHALLENGED.

CALVARY M. E. FIVE READY.

Calvary M. E. Five is looking for games, particularly one tomorrow night. Call Manager Gotwals, Georgia 1680-J.

MIRACLES OF SPORTS. —By Robert Edgren

Hitting the Head Pin

By LEWIS F. ATCHISON

WITH a chance at improving their lie in the National Capital League, the Rinaldi Tailors fell last night before the undeniable superiority of the Pale Dry Team, folding up badly in the third game, after a count of one game apiece had marked the first two endeavors. Complete scores were, Pale Drys, 579, 588, and 590, to Rinaldi's 552, 590, and 490.

Maxie Rosenberg had a 140 game and 367 set for the winners, while Ollie Pacini nicked 'em for a 139 and 349. At Lucky Strike.

Naval was the whole show in the Masonic League at Convention Hall. The team took high team game and set with marks of 586 and 1,685. Gray, of Naval, won high individual honors with a 138 game. Doleman, of Singleton, reserved some laurels for the rest of the boys with a 369 set, high for the night.

Nothing spectacular at King Pin, No. 2, last night. In the Ladies' Independent League the winners were Columbians and Tiptops. The former beat the Capitols, 2-1, and the latter administered the same sort of licking to Lansburgh's.

Similar decisions marked the King Pin's Business Men's League. Hecht Co. beat the Maccabees and Union Wall Paper beat Lansburgh's.

The Postoffice League demanded some spotlight at Arcadia last night and probably got it. Kirk, of the Wrens, started the ball rolling when he batted down 150 pins in one game, an all-time record for his league. He finished up with a 344 set, and his big game boosted the Wrens' team game to 565, another all-time league record, breaking the 543 held formerly by the Eels. The Wrens had a non-record-breaking 1,514 set.

At the same alleys, but in a little higher class of competition, Callan rolled a 151 game to top the bowlers of the Columbia Heights League. His team, Paramount Paint Co., had a 645 game and a 1,724 set. Bell and Smith, with the work of McPeady, shared in the honors, when McPeady rolled a 391 set.

In the Ladies Lutheran League, also at Arcadia, Trinity No. 2 and Trinity No. 1 won 3-0 victories over Christ Church and Zion. Incarnation won 2-1 over St. Matthews. Individual stars were Leona Berger, of Zion, with a 117 game, and Miss Menhorne, with a 292 set. She bowls for Trinity No. 2. Trinity No. 1 took team honors with a 467 game and 1,366 set.

The Shamrocks, Keenos, Hilltoppers and University Park were the winners in the Washington Ladies League. Keenos and University Park won 3-0 over Veterans Bureau and Cardinals. Hilltoppers and Shamrocks won 2-1 over Beeques and Columbians. All games at Columbia.

High game went to Alice Lauer, of the lowly Veterans Bureau, 132. High set honors, 331, were shared by Sarah Updike, Hilltoppers, Edna Johnson, Keenos, and Catherine Fortney, Columbians.

In the Internal Revenue League, at the same alleys, the results were: Records, 2, Clearing, 1; S. A. C., 2, A. R., 1; B. T. A., 1, A. D. M., 2. High set went to A. D. M., 1,468, and game, 506. Orpin's 122 game and 342 set were high individual efforts.

The North Washington Church League, at the same alleys, lined up like this: First Reformed, 2; Columbia Heights, 1; Francis Asbury, 2; Emory, 1; Central Presbyterian, 2; Petworth Baptists, 1; Gunter Temple, 2; Wallace Memorial, 1. Arnold, of Gunton Temple, and Yerkes, of Emory, with 138 and 347, were individual satellites. Gunton Temple took team honors, 571 and 1,626.

General Office, Nations and Research ran away with Files, Business and Membership in the Chamber of Commerce Ladies League, also at Columbia. All won 3-0 decisions. Nations' 450 game and 1,259 set were high.

In the Insurance League, at Lucky, Whittaker, of Peoples Life, won high game honors with 147, and Delaney, of Acacia, took high set laurels with 365. Peoples Life downed Acacia, 3-0, as did Massachusetts stow away New York Life. Aetna and Travellers won 2-1 decisions over Equitable and Eureka. Travellers' 552 game was high, as was People Life's 1,599 set.

Lucky Strike was the scene of one of the few record events of the night. Shanklin, of Aero, in the Commerce Interbueau League, rolled a 132 game to help his team, the Aeros, amass a 557 game and a 1,629 set, the season's record in this league. Walsh, of Engineers, was high-set man, with 364. His team lost, 0-3, to Aeros. Files beat Commercial Intelligence, 3-0, and Airways beat Supply, 2-1.

Miss Behimyer, of Milans, toppled the wooden bottles to the tune of 121 in the Eastern Star League. Her team beat the Mizpahs, 2-1. Ruth had high team set, 1,380, and Unity took team honors, with a 502 game. Miss Malcolm rolled a 313 set and Treaty Oak and Unity beat Lafayette and Columbia, 2-1.

The Marines were no slouches last night amid the high scoring. Barracks had a 549 game and a 1,483 set. Ramsburg, of Inspection, rolled a 135 game and Ross, of Paymasters, a 338 set. This was at Convention Hall.

Also at "the world's largest," in the Washington Church League, Bruton, of Douglas No. 1, rolled a 156 game and shared high set honors, of 369, with Snelling, of the same club. Their team had a 575 game and a 1,648 set.

The Odd Fellows were at it again last night, at the same place. Eastern stole the show, gaining high game and high team set honors, with 574 and 1,631, and offering, in Lund, the winner of high individual game and set, 149 and 377.

While the lowly Minions, of The Washington Post League, were rolling in unprecedented fashion to beat the league-leading Pearls, 2 to 1, the Agates stole surreptitiously into a first place tie by nosing out the Gothics by the same score. Other Post results were Picas, 2, Ionics, 1, and Rubies, 2, Quads, 1. Chesney, of the Ruby team, laid 'em low to the tune of 130, while his team took high game laurels, with 549.

Four From East Accept Charity Game Berths

New York, Dec. 8 (U.P.).—Four players today accepted invitations to play on Andy Kerr's all-East Football Team in the annual East vs. West charity game at San Francisco, New Year's Day. They were Jim McMurdo, Pittsburgh tackle; George Chalmers, N. Y. U. center; Arthur Schieber, Colgate tackle, and Paul Marsland, Colgate center.

McMurdo is one of three members of the squad who have been mentioned frequently for all-America honors. Others are Johnny Oral, Colgate end, and Bill Morton, Dartmouth quarter back.

PRINTERS OPEN SEASON.

The Union Printers, who will participate in the Federal League later in the season, open their year tonight at 8 o'clock at Eastern against the Phoenix five.

15% Attendance Drop In National for 1931

Chicago, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Attendance at National League baseball games during the 1931 season showed a decrease of 15 per cent as compared with the previous year.

The falling off in receipts, Heydler said, was due as much to the St. Louis Cardinals' domination of the race as to the economic depression.

COMMUNITY LEAGUE HAS 17 CLUBS

Two Court Circuits Decided Upon at Meet Last Night.

SEVENTEEN unlimited basket ball teams answered the call of the gavel last night at Franklin School Building when the Community Center Basket Ball League meeting was brought to order by Winfree Johnson, motivating figure of the fast amateur loop. Three more teams will enter within the next few days to bring the figure to 20.

The teams which had representatives at the meeting last night were Saks Clothiers, Shade Shop, Delaware & Hudson, Crescents, United Typewriter Grays, Potomac Boat Club, Monroe A. C., Moseans, Phi Delta Thetas, Capital Awning, Logan, Mount Vernon, Griffith Consumers, Drakes, Tremonts, Mercury and Petworth Mets.

Split League Planned.

It was decided at the meeting to divide the group into two leagues, with the winner of each playing in a special game or series of games to decide the league champion. The teams this year will be seeded, and an equal division of strength in each league is expected. Games will be played at Central, Eastern, Macfarland, Langley, and possibly Tech.

A committee, composed of Messrs. Coe, Wolowitz, Mothershead and Johnson, was appointed to draw up the bulky schedule. League play will open the latter part of next week, and games will go on every night of the week save Sunday.

The league attracted thirteen teams last year. It was won by the Clovers, who almost entirely are playing for the Griffith Consumers this year. Last year's Griffs are now the Shade Shop. New teams are Saks, Delaware & Hudson, Moseans and Phi Delta Theta. Among the three teams expected to apply for franchises are the Pontiacs and the Eastern Preps. All D. C. amateur teams are eligible for membership in the league. Entrance fee has been placed at $8, $3 of which is returned at the end of the season.

Greenleaf Sets Mark In Defeating Layton

Philadelphia, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Ralph Greenleaf, of New York, tied Erwin Rudolph, of Cleveland, defending champion, for first place in the world's championship pocket billiard tournament by defeating Johnny Layton, of Sedalia, Mo., 125 to 17 in tonight's second game.

The match ran only six innings and was featured by Greenleaf's high run of 117, a record for the tournament.

Bennie Allen, of Kansas City, defeated Robert Lindblom, of Seattle, 125 to 120, in the first of the afternoon games. The match consumed 3 hours and 10 minutes and ran 29 innings.

Spencer Livsey, of Los Angeles, defeated Marcel Camp, of Detroit, 125 to 105, in tonight's first game. Livsey won in 16 innings. Livsey, who has the use of only one eye, had a high run of 36 while that of Camp was 30.

TREMONTS WIN.

The Tremonts won a hard-played 27-23 encounter with the Rockville Five last night, at Rockville High School gym, mostly on the strength of the shooting of Galotta and Fisher. Lanier shone for the losers.

1932 St. John's Date For Gallaudet Eleven

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Nine football games have been scheduled for the St. Johns College team for 1932. The Johnnies last year played eight games, winning four and losing the other four to Yale, Lafayette, Western Maryland and Hopkins. There will be no change in the athletic personnal of the college for next year. M. Talbot Riggs will remain director of athletics and football coach.

Four newcomers were included in the 1932 grid schedule. Of the newcomers, however, only St. Joseph, of Philadelphia, will appear for the first time.

In addition to games definitely scheduled, contests also have been listed with Hampden-Sidney and Lynchburg, of Virginia, and Gallaudet, of Washington, but dates are tentative. There is a possibility a tenth game will be added.

October 8, Johns Hopkins, at Baltimore; 15, St. Joseph, at home; 22, University of Maryland, at College Park; 29, University of Virginia, at Charlottesville.

November 12, Lafayette, at Easton, Pa.; 24, Penn Military College, at Chester, Pa.

SAKS DOWN SOLDIERS.

The strong Saks amateur basketers last night romped to an easy victory over Fort Humphreys' team, 54 to 7. Noohan, Jones and Robey collected 30 of the winners' points among them. Allen scored all of the Soldiers' tallies.

Famed Minnesota Shift Modernized by Bierman

Tulane Version of "Doc" Williams' Old Methods to Be Brought Home to New Coach's Alma Mater.

By CLARK D. SHAUGHNESSY
(Written for the Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—That old "Minnesota shift," the pride and joy of Henry ("Doc") Williams in the Gophers' heyday, is being brought back to its old home attired in modern garb and attuned to the swift pace of 1932 football.

It goes back with Bernie Bierman, who returns to Minnesota as a sort of prodigal son, even though the cheers and acclaim of his playing days still ring in his ears. Bernie goes back to take up where "Doc" Williams left off and to put Minnesota back on the crest of the wave it rode in the early decades of this twentieth century.

I remember vividly the old doctor on his deathbed in a Minneapolis hospital last winter. With Dr. L. J. Cook, business manager, and E. B. Pierce, alumni secretary at Minnesota, I went to see him and we talked for two hours on football. It was then that he told me:

"Minnesota should get Bernie Bierman and put him in charge of football. Until they do, they will never win a championship."

Williams' Successors Unsuccessfull.

Minnesota lost faith in "Doc" Williams' football some years ago—although he had led the Gophers to their greatest triumphs. Since that Bill Spaulding and Clarence Spears and Fritz Crisler have tried their hands at the assignment with varying success. Now Minnesota has gratified the doctor's dying wish by bringing Bernie Bierman back home.

Bierman's Tulane teams have not lost a football game in the South since mid-October, 1928. They have been cochampions of the Southern Conference for two years, and this season have won an undisputed right to the Southern and, maybe, the national crown. Yet, I do not think that Tulane University, New Orleans, or the South fully appreciated the work that he did until his departure was imminent.

Shift Basically The Same.

Minnesota may not recognize the old "shift" that Bernie Bierman will reintroduce next year. Its appearance is as far removed from Dr. Williams' as the feminine clothes of today are from those of the hobble-skirt era. Yet, basically, it is the same. It has been the key to Tulane's success on the football field since I came South in 1915, and it will continue to be so. Ted Cox, another Minnesota man, and Lester Lautenschlaeger, former Tulane quarter back, who now coach the Green Wave, are well grounded in its workings.

Every Minnesota man throughout the land will welcome the return of "Doc" Williams' favorite. I do not think they could have found a finer or more loyal man than Bernie Bierman.

THE ONCE OVER

By H. I. PHILLIPS

THE Epic Bridge Tilt, Card Room Classic and Floor Lamp Battle of the Century is on. With millions of contract bridge addicts eagerly clutching for every fragment of news from the scene of battle, Ely Culbertson and Sidney Lenz are now engaged in a contest such as the world of hostile glares has never seen before.

* * * *

The two titans of contract will play 150 rubbers over a stretch of six weeks. This is the longest period over which any bridge players have ever been asked to sustain mutual contempt.

* * * *

If the contest goes the limit, with both men still on their feet, it will establish a new record for endurance but there will still be no proof that bridge costs fewer lives than football.

* * * *

Of course it takes four people to play a bridge game, and so the two champs have partners. The partner who is bearing the hard looks from Mr. Lenz is Mr. Oswald Jacoby, a young man of 28 who has never trumped a partner's ace, upset a cocktail glass, burned a cigarette hole in a bridge table or committed any other outstanding bridge error in his life.

* * * *

Mr. Culbertson's partner is his wife.

* * * *

This alone establishes his utter fearlessness. Imagine playing 150 rubbers of contract with your own wife! Up to this tournament, nobody had ever suggested it.

* * * *

* * * *

"Battling" Culbertson is so confident of a victory over "K. O." Lenz that he has put up $5,000 against his opponent's $1,000. Both boys make so much money through their books and newspaper writing that they won't miss the money. All they figure to lose is sleep and prestige.

MR. CULBERTSON was born in Russia. The Bolshevists seized his estates and properties, but left him a deck of cards after the revolution. He was thus forced to flee to America and get along on an income of $300,000 a year.

* * * *

But he had his early struggles. For the first few years in America he was compelled to sleep under bridge lamps and exist on chicken-liver sandwiches, stuffed olives, bronx cocktails and grand slams. In those days he knew what it was to wander from bridge party to bridge party, sighing for Russia, where the Volga Boatmen's song means two sure tricks, and a sudden lapse into a Cossack dance is a clear indication of a no-trump hand.

* * * *

But our hero knew no such word as "set," and in a few years he became one of the best bridge players in the land of the free and the home of too many conventions. And now he is in a fight for the championship.

* * * *

The battle is testing two systems. There are at least 200 systems of playing bridge, but two systems at a time are enough to fight over.

* * * *

MR. LENZ plays the system of one bid to denote minimum strength or slightly better, two to denote strength and indicate a desire for partner bidding and three to denote a very strong hand.

* * * *

The Culbertson system is too deep for this writer. All we can make of it is that bids of three, four and five denote, as in all systems, mental collapse, extreme preoccupation, drunkenness or bad gin.

* * * *

On with the battle, and may the best man get a good hand occasionally, unprecedented as it may be.

* * * *

STOCK PRICES DROP IN HEAVIER MARKET

Rail Issues Lead Early Rally; Close Is Near Recent New Low Levels.

New York, Dec. 8 (A.P.)—The stock market was heavy today, closing more than 2 points lower on the average at a level about equal to the previous bottom of the post-October reaction.

Except for a rally led by the rails in the first half hour, the market was heavy all day. It reached its lowest point after the presidential message had been distributed on financial news tickers, dipping rather sharply as renewed selling hit railroad equities, several of which made new lows. Bonds were irregular, but many rail liens strengthened in response to the Interstate Commerce Commission's rate decision.

Unfavorable action on several railroad dividends exerted a depressing influence. New Haven, Colorado & Southern, Boston & Maine, Texas & Pacific and Missouri Pacific were the systems added to the dividend casualty list, and with Wall Street feeling that New York Central's board would pass or cut tomorrow, speculative opinion was visibly affected.

Hoover's Recommendations Expected.

Mr. Hoover's recommendations were largely in line with expectations, for he himself had previously touched on many of the points that received attention. Some traders, brokers suggested, may have been influenced by the reminder that the country faced temporarily higher taxes and by the need for the suggested emergency reconstruction corporation it was probable, also, that selling orders were augmented by the suspension of a small stock exchange firm.

Although domestic problems were uppermost, the market was unable to forget foreign considerations. Reports of a new financial decree to be promulgated in Berlin seemed to increase uneasiness; perhaps market circles were disturbed by the thought that further regulations had been deemed necessary.

Cotton rallied moderately when the Government crop estimate was published, for the figure mentioned was smaller than had been anticipated. However, the advance was lost and futures closed with slight net declines. Trade news of the day was meager. American Metal Market said that aside from the usual year-end recession the steel industry "in all probability has left its low point behind just after the middle of October."

Small Increase Seen.

Seasonal increase after the first of the year is apt to be small, but the publication believed that rise might be continued indefinitely instead of reaching a peak in March or April. Efforts wil be made to firm shape and plate prices, it is expected.

The Standard Statistics-Associated Press average for railroad stocks closed at a new low. Selling was particularly active in New Haven and New York Central, both of which were down more than 4 points net. Pennsylvania, a large owner of New Haven common and also a holder of Boston & Maine preferreds, was steadier than most carrier shares, closing fractionally off. United States Steel made a new minimum at 80¼, but reduced its 3-point drop to 2¾. American Can, American Telephone, Case and Allied Chemical lost 2 to 3. Borden was weak, yielding nearly 4. Sales totaled 1,599,016 shares.

Foreign exchanges were steady to firm in the main, sterling holding a narrow range. Reichsmarks and French francs improved. In commodities, wheat was down 1 to 2 cents on reports of favorable rains and a bearish foreign crop estimate. Corn closed mostly easy in response to large contract deliveries and the weather outlook.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, Dec. 8 (A.P.)—Joined by an abrupt outlaunch of selling after President Hoover's message to Congress had been issued, wheat values underwent a decided setback here today and ended heavy, in hand with weakness of securities, as well as with the news of moisture relief in drought regions of domestic winter wheat territory, Southwest.

Corn was unchanged to ¾c down, oats a shade to ¾c off and provisions unchanged, @ lower.

For a brief interval after the contents of President Hoover's message became known, wheat prices showed no pronounced trend. A slight immediate decline took place, then a little rally, and later a small reaction. In the final moments of trading, however, quotations tumbled rapidly, and showed almost complete absence of power to recover. Earlier, the market had averaged somewhat under yesterday's finish, with trade relatively light while the pit awaited the President's message.

Contributing to bearish sentiment were Liverpool reports that Argentine shippers had been offering wheat freely. In addition, much notice was taken of existing uncertainty as to European finances. Germany's in particular. Meanwhile, overseas demand for North American wheat was confined to few scattered purchases, chiefly Canadian wheat at the Pacific Coast. It was asserted in some quarters that with Liverpool quotations about even with the Chicago market, wheat export business from this side of the Atlantic was next to impossible pending a readjustment.

There was no material selling pressure on corn or oats, but both the feed rains receded with wheat at the last. Country offerings of corn were scarce, and primary arrivals less than half those of a year ago.

Provisions reflected downturns of hog values.

UTILITY BONDS SAG TO NEW LOW LEVEL

Many Rail Loans Advance as Market Fluctuates in Light Trading.

New York, Dec. 8 (A.P.).—Although there were some indications of improvement, especially in the rails, the bond market zigged and zagged today in a most uncertain manner, and finally ended the session by marking down the average for twenty leading utilities to another new low for the year.

Many of the railway obligations were substantially up during most of the day and held some of their gains at the close. But most of the advances were diminished considerably during the last half hour, the trend apparently moving sympathetically with the downward stock list. The total sales were $9,955,000, or $253,000 under yesterday.

Encouragement for the transportation loans was furnished by yesterday's Interstate Commerce ruling, which granted freight rate increases to the carriers and permision to form their own pool, in their own way, to aid the weaker roads.

Among rail bonds closing with good gains were Atlantic Coast Line first 4s, Baltimore & Ohio first 4s, Chesapeake & Ohio 4½s, series A; Rock Island 4½s, series A; Denver & Rio Grande 5s, Great Northern 7s and 5½s, Illinois Central 4¾s, Kansas City Southern first 3s, New York Central 4½s, 2013, and Pennsylvania 4½s, series D. All the Wabash loans were up.

The utilities looked better at midday, but were generally sold for losses just before the close. The industrials just about held their own with yesterday's trading. Among the foreign issues, German 7s were up slightly. French, Italians, Central Europeans and South Americans were easy. Japanese government and Oriental development bonds improved.

Practically all United States Government loans were fractionally off, the decline being attributed in some quarters to an increase in taxation presaged by the President's message.

Adams Challenges Jobless Estimates

Asserts Committee Does Not Need $250,000 Chest Pledged.

George J. Adams, jr., former secretary of the District committee on employment, yesterday challenged the estimates of the committee as to the number of unemployed in Washington. The challenge was issued in connection with a statement assigning one reason for his resignation.

The estimate of 20,000 unemployed, upon the basis of which $250,000 has been promised the committee by the Community Chest if the latter's goal is reached, is about five times too great, according to Mr. Adams, who spent more than a year as director of the unemployment office. A budget of $50,000—the amount set for December alone—would be sufficient, he said, to carry the committee through the winter.

As an example of his contention of exaggeration in unemployment statistics, Mr. Adams recalled that he had sent cards recently to 100 persons whose names were submitted as unemployed by several relief agencies and offered them jobs. Only eighteen responded.

Woman Owner Seized After Dog Bites Two

A woman and a child were bitten by a dog yesterday and another woman was booked at the Second Precinct Station on a charge of allowing a vicious animal to run at large.

Miss Elizabeth Lewis, 64 years old, of 612 Third street northwest, was the first victim. She went to Sibley Hospital for treatment after the dog had nipped her while she was walking along North Capitol street between L and N. A short time later Norman Vigderhouse, 9 years old, of 1030 North Capitol street, was brought to the hospital. The dog had attacked him while he was playing in front of his home. Sarah Magnard, colored, 32 years old, of 68 Logan place northwest, is the woman booked. The dog was taken to the pound for observation.

Child's Prank Nearly Costs Life of Aunt

Little Lillian Smith, 2 years old, learned last night that the shiny objects on gas stoves are hardly things to be played with, but the lesson was nearly a costly one for her aunt, Mrs. W. G. Smith, of 1801 K street northwest.

Lillian and her mother, Mrs. W. T. Smith, had dropped in for a short visit, and Lillian's aunt was reading the paper in the kitchen. The child came out and paid her a short visit, pattering around the kitchen meanwhile. Suddenly Lillian's mother and uncle, sitting in the front room, smelled gas. They ran to the kitchen and found Mrs. W. G. Smith rapidly sinking into unconsciousness. She was revived by the Fire Rescue Squad, and a physician who was called said she would suffer no serious effects.

Mississippian Elected By Educational Council

W. H. Bond, State superintendent of education of Mississippi, was elected president of the National Council of State Superintendents and Commissioners yesterday, meeting at the Interior Department. The gathering unanimously agreed to ask the Washington Bicentennial Commission to withdraw its national essay and declamation contest, the resolution embodying this action contending that the national contests were disturbing factors in the conduct of local schools.

Charles A. Lee, superintendent of education for Missouri, was chosen vice president of the organization, and W. H. Pierce, of Michigan, was elected secretary.

Fight Against Gas Tank Joined by Takoma Park

The Takoma Park Citizens Association last night voted to join the Manor Park Citizens Association in its opposition to the proposed erection of a 10,000,000-cubic feet capacity gas booster tank at Riggs road and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. After hearing W. H. Seaquist, president of the Manor Park Association, a committee was appointed to investigate all phases of the matter.

The association also went on record as opposing any movement to bring boxing matches into Takoma Park. It specifically opposed a petition recently received by the Mayor of Takoma Park from the Takoma Park Legion Post to allow boxing matches to be presented under legion sponsorship.

Cathedral Stonecutter Will Be Buried Today

In 1912, Alexander Mowatt, of 3845 Thirty-second street northeast, helped lay the first stones in Bethlehem Chapel of the Washington Cathedral. This afternoon at 2 o'clock the Right Rev. James E. Freeman, Bishop of Washington, will conduct funeral services in the chapel for Mr. Mowatt who died Monday.

A native of Scotland, Mr. Mowatt had been a resident of Washington for many years. For more than 12 years he had been actively engaged in construction work at the Washington Cathedral.

Last week he was detailed to supervise the placing of a 6-foot stone cross on the gable of the North Transept of the chapel. The services, attended by many of his associates engaged in construction work at the Cathedral, will be held under that cross this afternoon.

Woman's Car Hits Man.

John Shumacher, 57 years old, 1713 Kearney street northeast, was treated for shock and contusions about the body yesterday after he was knocked down at Seventh and B streets southwest by an automobile operated by Miss Marian Davis, 27 years old, 1815 A street southeast.

SYSTEM OF PRIVATE GARAGES AND END TO PARKING ADVOCATED

PLAN WOULD SPREAD GRADUALLY OVER CITY

Reichelderfer and Glassford Listen to Proposal, but Fail to Comment.

Development of a system of commercial garages, aided by restriction of parking throughout the city, was recommended last night as the "only" solution of the parking problem facing Washington by Col. U. S. Grant 3d, director of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, and J. Rowland Bibbins, traffic expert and consulting engineer.

The plan, based on similar measures that have been taken in other large cities, was presented by the speakers at a dinner of the Arts Club of Washington, at which C. K. Berryman and Miss Florence S. Berryman were hosts.

Col. Grant recommended that the undertaking be carried out through cooperation between Government department, employes, merchants and the public. Under the plan the District Commissioners would restrict parking by degrees, beginning in a small area and gradually spreading throughout the city.

Street Parking Is Competition.

Only in this way, Col. Grant said, would development of commercial garages be justified to meet competition now offered by "free parking" on streets.

Any parking space left near Government buildings would be given over to those employes who found it absolutely necessary to keep their cars close to the buildings. Col. Grant described the garage to be built under the new wing of the Senate Office Building as the type that should be further developed in the District.

Col. Grant asserted that the system would not be detrimental to business, as figures show that two-thirds of purchasers in Capitol stores use street cars and buses. He also recommended further development of the system of Government employes forming themselves into groups and driving to and from work together.

Comment Is Withheld.

The plan, Mr. Bibbins predicted, would be beneficial in every way and result in a better transportation system. He showed that 28 per cent of the area of Washington is made up of streets and alleys, and pointed out that the proposed system would be applied to this area.

Beginning at the center, and working out through the main traffic arteries, parking restriction would begin first during lunch hours and then slowly be increased, he said. "We will have to learn to clear the streets sooner or later, and we will have to suffer congestion until then," he said.

Commissioner Luther H. Reichelderfer and Brig. Gen. Pelham S. Glassford, superintendent of police, were present, but did not comment on the proposed system. Other guests of honor included David Lynn, Architect of the Capitol, and Charles G. Abbott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, and their wives.

Skyviews of Washington—No. 39

Fairchild Aerial Surveys, Inc.

THE Congress Heights School, the large building with the power house and chimney behind it, dominates this picture of Congress Heights, in Anacostia. The school lies in a triangle formed by Nichols avenue, which bends to the left just before reaching the building; Alabama avenue, below the school, and Congress street, which it faces.

The second street below the filling station on the left side of Nichols avenue is Portland street, which runs across Giesboro Point almost to the river. Car tracks, unused since the World War, lie along Portland street. During the war they carried the numerous workers who labored at shell making in the steel plant at Giesboro Point. The plant has since been razed to add its space to Bolling Field.

MATE NOT AT WORK, WIFE SHOOTS SELF

A woman who failed to find her husband at his accustomed place of employment yesterday snatched a .38 caliber revolver she had tied around her neck with a cord and fired a bullet through her breast. In a struggle to prevent her "making a better job" of it, the weapon was discharged three more times.

The shooting took place at a fish market operated by William F. Wiseman at 1326 Half street southwest. After Mr. Wiseman had disarmed the woman, Mrs. Rebecca Helen Barrow, 42 years old, of 352 McLean avenue southwest, he called police, who hurried her to Providence Hospital. The single bullet had entered her body at the left breast and lodged under the left arm. Her condition is regarded as serious.

Mr. Wiseman said the woman appeared at his place late in the afternoon and asked for her husband, Raymond Barrow. He told her that the man was not there, that he had been sent to the Wiseman farm in Montgomery. Mrs. Barrow appeared not to believe him, he said, and started to the back yard. Mr. Wiseman said as he entered the building he heard a shot and looked out to see the woman stagger.

Mr. Wiseman said he took the gun away from her. Mrs. Barrow then tried to seize the gun, he said, and in the struggle it was fired three times into the ground.

Nation's Tree To be Lighted By President

President Hoover will attend the ceremonies of the lighting of the National Community Christmas Tree in Sherman Square, on Christmas Eve, at 5 o'clock, and will press the button that sets the living spruce tree ablaze with light at exactly 5:25 p. m.. At that moment, a flare bomb shot into the evening sky will burst into tiny multicolored stars, and Boy Scouts will herald a bugle call to the city that the Nation's Christmas Tree is alight, and that the Nation's ceremonies in honor of Yuletide have officially begun.

The churches of the city have been asked by the executive committee arranging for the annual ceremonies to ring their bells for a minute and a half at the moment the tree is lighted. A group of choristers from Gordon Junior High School will surround the tree singing a Christmas carol and other choral groups will participate in the ceremonies preceding the lighting of the tree.

The United States Marine Band will play a Christmas concert beginning at 4:30 p. m. and at 5:30 p. m. the ceremonies will be concluded.

The lighting of the tree this year will be done in a modern manner, from designs made by Harold Snyder of the Community Center department, developed and executed by the Electric League of Washington which annually has charge of the lighting.

Day Murder Trial Defense Ends Case Without Witness

Taking of testimony in the trial of Elmer J. Sweeney, known to his associates as "Bulldog," came to an abrupt ending late yesterday when defense attorneys Bert Emerson and H. R. Stephenson rested their case without submitting any evidence on Sweeney's behalf. Sweeney is accused of killing Talley Day, gambler, in a speakeasy row May 17.

James R. Kirkland, assistant United States attorney, concluded presentation of the Government's case at 3 o'clock. Within a minute the defense attorneys made known their decision not to use any witnesses in rebutting prosecution evidence.

Instructions that Justice James M. Proctor was asked to read to the jury then were debated, and the jury was excused for the day. The jurors will be seated today to hear arguments by attorneys and to receive the charge.

The slaying of Talley Day took place in a speakeasy at 1523 M street northwest. The shooting grew out of the throwing of two drinks of gin. The first was hurled by Day at a man known as "Gumps," and the latter retaliated later.

Day resented the retaliation and jumped to his feet and began firing at random. He shot no one; but Sweeney, confined to a corner of the front of the bar to escape being hit, fired one shot and struck Day over the eye. That one shot was fatal.

Sweeney surrendered to police two days after the shooting. He said then that he shot Day, stating that he had fired in self-defense. Testimony of many of the Government witnesses substantiated his claim.

LICENSE RULING HITS CAB RENTAL SYSTEM

Commissioners Limit Tags to Owners and Employes in War on Practice.

District authorities yesterday prepared to enforce the ban against the rental system of taxicab operation after the first of the new year. Upon request of the Public Utilities Commission, the District Commissioners adopted an order prohibiting the issuance of H or L license tags to any one save the operator of a cab or his "duly authorized and licensed employe."

This action was taken to put teeth into the provision of the recent Utilities Commission taxicab order, which stated: "No motor vehicle shall be operated as a taxicab except by the proprietor thereof or by a driver employed by the proprietor and responsible to the said proprietor."

Evidence introduced at the taxicab public hearing showed that three or more cab companies rent their vehicles to drivers for from $2.50 to $4 a day. While the company officials contend that the system is profitable both to the operator and the driver, some of the drivers contend they were on a "slave-labor" contract.

Officials of the commission, however, sought to abolish the system chiefly because of the lack of responsibility for the control of such rented cabs. The corporation counsel's office sought to prosecute drivers under this system for using improper tags, but withheld action because of doubtful authority pending the adoption of the order recommended to the Commissioners.

The several cab companies which employ the rental system, among which are the City, Bell and Broadmoor companies, are understood to be preparing to contest the authority of either of the District agencies to abolish the practice.

Civitan Club Elects Officers.

Visitors in Constant Stream Worship at Immaculate Conception Church.

Celebrating its patron's feast day yesterday, the Church of the Immaculate Conception gathered a constant procession of worshipers.

From the first mass to conclusion of the evening service visitors thronged the church. This marked the close of the most successful novena ever held in the history of the church.

The Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes, recently reconstructed and with a new marble altar installed, was sought by a continual crowd of worshipers.

Since erection of the grotto in the church, devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes has become city-wide among Catholics.

Last night a portion of the rock on which our Blessed Lady actually stood during her apparitions to Blessed Bernardette Soubrious at Lourdes, France, in 1858, was solemnly unveiled and blessed. This rock was sent by the Bishop of Loudres.

The Rev. Matthew Helmig, of the Fathers of the Precious Blood, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Egypt, Ohio, delivered a sermon on "The Goal at Last."

The Rev. F. J. Hurney, pastor of the church, was celebrant at solemn benediction. He was assisted by the Rev. Bartholomew Kennedy, superior of the Friars of the Atonement, and by the Rev. J. Kelly Reese, subdeacon. The Rev. Joseph Hillar and the Rev. Anthony Palusack were in the sanctuary.

Woman, 80, Found In Gas-Filled Room

Fellow Roomer Rescues Unconscious Victim of Stove.

The woman was discovered by Charles Dixon, another roomer, who smelled the escaping gas and investigated. He called Dr. S. W. Howard, of 1965 Calvert street northwest, who treated her at the house. Her condition is said to be undetermined.

Miss Ganghran has lived at the rooming house of Mrs. Annie E. Ford, 1448 Fairmont street northwest, for several years. Police were told she had no relatives living in Washington.

Couple Booked on Rum Charge.

A man and a woman were arrested last night on a charge of illegal possession of liquor after police said they found 22 pints of whisky and 53 bottles of beer in a house at 207 K street northeast. They gave their names as Evelyn Schotter, 29 years old, of 207 K street northwest, and Raymond Robertson, of no fixed address.

Man Abandons Stolen Car, Takes Another and Escapes

Police recovered the stolen automobile of John E. Hawkins, of Capitol Heights, Md., a few minutes before it was reported missing, but the net loss in automobiles is still one. The man who took Mr. Hawkins' car leaped out after a slight accident on M street northwest, and disappeared in the machine of Mrs. Annetta Stewart, of 1740 Wisconsin avenue northwest.

Mr. Hawkins called in to report his car missing from Constitution avenue, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets northwest. He was told that his car had just been recovered by Seventh Precinct police.

Mrs. Stewart was not so lucky. She had just parked her car at the curb at 3239 M street northwest. The man who had taken Mr. Hawkins' car, police said, just about that time became involved in traffic a short distance away. He backed up and rammed a truck, locking bumpers with it. Before the truck driver could move, witnesses said, the man leaped from the Hawkins car, ran over to Mrs. Stewart's machine and drove away.

GALLINGER PATIENTS PAY PLAN APPROVED

Commissioners Pass on Bill to Open Contagious Ward to Public.

The District Commissioners late yesterday approved a bill to admit pay patients to the contagious disease ward at Gallinger Hospital and will forward it today to Congress. Similar legislation now exists with regard to the psychopathic ward at Gallinger and at Tuberculosis Hospital.

"The District of Columbia budget for 1933 contains an appropriation estimate of $250,000 for the construction of an additional ward building for contagious diseases at Gallinger Hospital," Dr. Luther H. Reichelderfer, chairman of the board, stated, "with a contract authorization for $600,000."

A bill designed to authorize the District tax assessor to testify in condemnation proceedings was also approved by the Commissioners. The measure would permit the assessor to testify as an expert witness and not as an official of the District government.

William P. Richards, tax assessor, has been used frequently in condemnation cases as such an expert during the last two years, but only recently the District Court of Appeals held such testimony was not admissable.

"It would appear that there is hardly any one in a better position to know the actual value of real estate in the District of Columbia than the tax assessor, who is constantly dealing with real estate throughout the entire District," Corporation Counsel William W. Bride stated in proposing the bill.

A bill modeled after the Federal act, which would enable the District government to acquire land in Washington for its own use when obstacles arise to prevent acquirement through ordinary channels, was passed upon. The measure follows the Federal act which was passed on March 1, 1929, to enable the Federal Government to proceed with its building program in the Mall Triangle.

"It is felt that the District of Columbia will have but few occasions to make use of the provisions of the act," Mr. Bride said, "but that it is of utmost importance to have available the benefits of its provisions in case of necessity."

END OF DEATH CHAIR IN DISTRICT SOUGHT BY HOUSE MEASURE

Kvale Would Substitute Life Imprisonment as Murder Penalty.

Capital punishment would be abolished in the District under provisions of a bill introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Paul Kvale (Republican), of Minnesota.

Penalty for first degree murder would be life imprisonment under terms of the measure, which was referred to the House District committee. Life imprisonment, or not less than 20 years, is proposed for second degree murder.

The bill specifically provides for abolition of the District death house, and dismantling of all equipment used in executions. Penalties ranging from 5 to 30 years' imprisonment are provided for crimes of carnal knowledge.

A variety of local bills were introduced, ranging from proposed amendment of the Crampton act to speed up establishment of the George Washington Memorial Parkway, to a bill to regulate the sale of kosher meat in the District.

Kosher Inspectors Sought.

The former measure, proposed by Representative Smith (Democrat), of Virginia, would empower the National Capital Park and Planning Commission to accept private gifts of land adjacent to the Potomac on both Virginia and Maryland shores, from Fort Washington on the Maryland side and Mount Vernon on the Virginia shore, to a point above Great Falls. Representative Smith probably will be named to the new House District committee under chairmanship of Mrs. Mary E. Norton, of New Jersey.

Representative Samuel Dickstein (Democrat), New York, introduced the bill to regulate sale of kosher meat. The Commissioners would appoint two orthodox Jews as inspectors, at a salary of $2,500 each, under its terms.

Representative Henry W. Temple (Republican), Pennsylvania, presented a bill to establish the minimum area of Shenandoah National Park, in nearby Virginia, at 160,000 acres.

With the stamp of approval of the Public Utilities Commission, two measures, long a subject of debate, the traction merger and the bill to make taxicab operators responsible under bond, were introduced in the House.

Jury Selection Reform.

The merger bill is identical with the proposed joint resolution introduced last year, except the commission struck out a provision that fares in force in August, 1929, be continued in effect two years after the measure be enacted.

Senator Arthur Capper (Republican), Kansas, chairman of the Senate District committee, will introduce in the Senate in the next few days both of these measures, as well as a bill to legalize credit unoins in the District.

Yesterday he promised to study recommendations of Attorney General Mitchell for improvnig the method of selecting juries and handling indictments in Washington.

Other measures proposed yesterday include a bill to acquire additional land for Walter Reed Hospital, introduced by Representative John J. McSwain (Democrat), South Carolina; a bill to improve the west side of Georgia avenue north of Princeton place, introduced by Representative C. B. McClintock (Republican), Ohio; and a bill proposing appropriations to aid in construction of the George Washington Memorial Building, by Representative James M. Beck (Republican), Pennsylvania.

Police Ruse Nets 3 Men, Car and Rum

A clever ruse, worked last night by police of the First Inspection District, resulted in the arrest of three men and the seizure of an automobile and 24 pints of alleged "high quality" liquor.

Private E. L. Dalstrom, of the First District vice squad, posing as a student at Georgetown University, made arrangements yesterday afternoon for a quantity of liquor to be delivered at the university gates. Following a telephone call made by Dalstrom earlier in the day, he was met on the university campus by Michael Vigliucci, of 123 Fourteenth street northwest.

The two walked about the campus for some time, and finally it was agreed that the liquor would be delivered at the gate shortly after 7 o'clock. Dalstrom explained that, being a "student," he would rather not take the chance of having the "beverages" delivered within the walls.

Promptly at 7 o'clock, as Dalstrom and Sergt. R. A. Johnson, also of the First Inspection District, waited at Thirty-seventh and O streets, near the main gate of the university, Vigliucci drove up in an automobile with two companions.

The rumble seat of the car was thrown back and there were 24 pint bottles of the alleged whisky.

Dalstrom and Sergt. Johnson then made their identity known and placed the three men under arrest.

The other two men gave their names as Herbert W. Benedeth, 21 years old, of 1813 Otis street northeast, and Joseph M. Haith, 22 years old of 1014 Park road northwest. All were charged with illegal possession.

Fiscal Relations Group Fails to Agree on Report

The House special committee on fiscal relations between the Federal and District governments reached no decision on the final draft of the report it will present to the House within the next week.

Members will meet again at the call of Chairman Carl E. Mapes (Republican), Michigan. The committee has made no statement since it indicated at the close of the last session that some local increases in taxation might be recommended.

Pepco Employes' Club Headed by H.G. Hayden

The Kilowatt Club, an organization of Potomac Electric Power Co. employes, last night elected officers at a meeting in the company's building at Tenth and E streets northwest.

H. G. Hayden, chief accountant, was named president; S. K. Brown, vice president; E. P. Knapp, secretary, and E. C. Kidwell, treasurer. Following were elected to the board of governors: A. G. Neal, H. A. Brooks, E. D. Detwiler, and G. W. Riley. The Boys' Club presented an entertainment.

MODERN PAGANISM IS SEEN AS MENACE BY CHICAGO PASTOR

Rev. Walter A. Morgan, Once Minister Here, Assails Pleasure Chase.

A world-wide chase for pleasure and the desire for new thrills are among the ear-marks of a modern paganism which is dangerous to our civilization, in the opinion of the Rev. Walter Amos Morgan, D. D., minister of the New First Congregational Church, Chicago, as expressed in an address to the December dinner meeting of the Washington Congregational Club last night, at the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church.

Dr. Morgan, a former minister of the Mount Pleasant church, spoke to more than 300 members of the club on "The Church and Modern Paganism." There were present representatives of all Congregational churches in the District, and also a number from the Unitarian and Universalist congregations.

The program was arranged in celebration of "Forefathers' Day," with musical selections by members of the Mount Pleasant Congregational quartet, under the direction of Claude Robeson.

Wise Man Learns Lessons.

"The wise man learns the lessons of the past before he comes to adventures in the future," Dr. Morgan said. "It is the way of folly to attempt to rebuild a civilization without knowledge concerning the laws of human nature and the story of the rise and fall of peoples."

"In these days, when we are meditating upon our forefathers, it is well for us to ask ourselves concerning the spirit in which they met their problems. If they are to mean anything to us, it is because their spirit was triumphant in the midst of difficulties."

The Pilgrims and Puritans left England and Holland, Dr. Morgan declared, to escape a "blighting paganism" and to have an opportunity to develop a "commonwealth of God." There is existing today, he said, a similar paganism, which is "dangerous to our civilization," and which has four chief aspects.

World-Wide Pleasure Chase.

"There seems to be a world-wide chase for pleasure," Dr. Morgan said. "The desire for a new thrill is in the minds of many the dominating fact. Then there is the faith that modern scientific efficiency is enough for the rebuilding of the future. A whole religion called humanism has been built upon that basis."

REAL ESTATE TAX SALE.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS, District of Columbia, Washington, December 9, 1931. In accordance with provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, to amend an Act entitled "An Act in relation to Taxes and Tax Sale in the District of Columbia, approved February 28, 1898, and July 3, 1926, and as amended March 3, 1927," notice is hereby given that, commencing on TUESDAY, the 12th day of January, 1932, and continuing on each following day between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, until all the property hereinafter designated shall be sold, we shall, in the office of the Collector of Taxes of the District of Columbia, sell at public auction to the highest bidder or bidders, the real estate described in the subjoining list of taxes and assessed in the names therein appearing for default in the payment of taxes levied thereon and in arrears on the 1st day of July, 1931, also for all assessments subject to sale and interest in penalties thereon to said 13th day of January, 1931. LUTHER H. REICHELDERFER, HERBERT B. CROSBY, JOHN C. GOTWALS, Commissioners of the District of Columbia. Attest: DANIEL E. GARGES, Secretary.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

EVERY WOMAN wants a General Electric Refrigerator in her kitchen. She'll take pride in the famous Monitor Top, instantly recognized by friends and neighbors as the best in electrical refrigeration. The convenience and economy of her G-E's unfailing operation will reflect your consideration for years to come. Saves time, saves steps, affords positive health protection to the entire family. Makes possible the quick and easy preparation of new and tasty frozen dishes to delight family and guests. A General Electric quickly saves its cost. Eliminates waste by preserving left-overs. Makes it possible to do all the family's marketing on bargain days, in large quantities. Lowers refrigeration costs. Never needs attention—not even oiling. And a full guarantee protects every General Electric against any service expense for three full years. A small down payment assures Christmas delivery..choose your model today.

Join the G-E Circle. A special program for women every day at noon (except Saturday). On Sunday at 5:30 P. M. a program for the whole family. (E. S. T.)

"I Get My Information From The Washington Post . . . ."

"It seems that every minute of our evening time is completely absorbed. Last evening we were at the club's annual dance; tonight we have a theater engagement; tomorrow night some friends are dropping in for bridge and Thursday evening there is a dinner which we must attend . . . Really, the only time I have for reading is in the morning and, of course, then I want the up-to-the-minute news . . . Yes, we do take an evening paper and I sometimes have time to glance at the headlines, but I seldom, if ever, see it from front page to back."
